

HYGENIC PALLADIUM.

ANTICEPTIC and MICROBICIDE.

FOR DOMESTIC CLEANING AND PRIVATE HYGIENE BY THE APPLICATION OF PASTEUR'S THEORY.

A Household Necessity.

It preserves and promotes the growth of the hair, embellishes the skin, preserves the teeth, removes foul breath, cleans stains and grease from clothes without affecting texture or color, destroys insects and parasites. Directions inside. Those who give it a trial adopt it at once.

Price 25 Cents.

PUT UP BY THE

Albert Chemical Co., Woodstock.

P. O. Box 337. Sold by druggists and general dealers.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Correspondents must send their names with each week's contribution, or their matter will not be printed. The names will not be published, but The Dispatch must know who is accountable for everything that is inserted in its columns.

KIRKLAND.

A number of Indians have their tents built at the corner and are busily engaged in making baskets.

About thirty five couples of the old folks, friends and neighbours of this place and vicinity met on the shores of Bell Lake near the residence of Con Mack and held a picnic in honour of visitors from out west, of whom one is Mrs. Eels, formerly Miss Kate Denning.

Mrs. Thompson Graham and daughter, Tillie, have been visiting friends at North Lake.

Serena, daughter of George Maxon, North Lake, has gone to Texas, where she will live with an uncle.

Frank DeMerchant and family have moved to Cary, Me.

Jean Bustard has a new organ purchased from Mered Brewer, Woodstock.

John Murphy, from Lewiston, is visiting relatives in this place.

Mr. Hayes, from Sussex, representing the McLaughlan Carriage Co., was in this place the guest of J. W. Crawford.

The missionary society of Lakeside held their monthly meeting at the residence of Mrs. Harvey Watson.

Gertrude Lenentine, from Lewistow, is visiting her sister Mrs. Andrew Bustard.

Charles Green, from Westford Hill, Me., was in this place recently.

A. Sterling Mowatt, from Harvey Station, is expected to teach the school in Monument Settlement.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Knapp, from Amity, are calling on friend here.

UNION CORNER.

Sixteen more were baptized last Sunday Sept. 8, making a total of 46 added to the church.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Sypher from Marietta, Ohio, are visiting at his old home, after being away 12 years.

Mrs. David Currie after a very pleasant visit has returned to her home in Boston Mass.

The invitations to the marriage of Mr. Fredrick Furse to miss Lena McNeerlin are out, which will take place in the Baptist church on Wednesday evening Sept. 18th.

ANDOVER AND PERTH.

Annie Armstrong, of Perth, is attending the Normal school.

Let it Alone.

Scott's Emulsion is not a good medicine for fat folks. We have never tried giving it to a real fat person. We don't dare. You see Scott's Emulsion builds new flesh. Fat people don't want it. Strong people don't need it.

But if you are thin Scott's Emulsion is the medicine for you. It doesn't tire you out. There is no strain. The work is all natural and easy. You just take the medicine and that's all there is to it.

The next thing you know you feel better—you eat better—and you weigh more. It is a quiet worker.

Send for free sample.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Toronto, Canada. 50c and $1.00; all druggists.

Mrs. Graves, of New Hampshire, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Poingle Kelley has returned home.

Guy Porter, his sister Florence, and Helen Perley have gone to Sackville for the school year.

Judge Stevens has presented the Presbyterian church here with a handsome silver communion service.

Mrs. (Rev.) S. D. Ervine who has been visiting her old home at Hatfield's Point, Kings Co., has returned home.

Mrs. J. E. Wright and Mrs. D. Currie attended the Baptist Convention at Hartland.

Contractor Brewer of the bridge has some difficulty in procuring men, but is getting on well with the work.

Perth fire and water incorporation with its commissioners A. L. Green, C. W. Lewis and D. Baird have called for tenders for the purchase of $7000.00 worth of debentures to close 10th of this month.

EAST FLORENCEVILLE.

Miss Ella M. Moore is visiting friends at Bridgewater.

Thomas Darkis left on Wednesday last for Leadville, Col.

Mr. Haines, of St. Marys, has a crew at work repairing the bridge, which is quite shaky in some places.

Mrs. Fred Hunter and children left for a short visit to Grand Lake last week.

Frank Smith drove Jerry D. at Presque Isle last week receiving first money in two races. He also had Tiger Blend along who took first money in the farmers race.

While George Smith was riding a bicycle Saturday afternoon the front wheel struck a stone which threw him off breaking his right arm below the elbow.

Mrs. Isaac Carle, of Black's Corner, Queens County, is visiting her son, Stanley.

The young fellows around town went down to Nackawick Thursday night and gave Mr. and Mrs. Sisson who just came from Perth and were stopping at Elijah Tompkins, a rousing reception. They were handsomely treated by Mr. Sisson, after which they returned to their native village.

President McKinley Dead.

The tragedy of the new century reaches its culmination with the passing away of President McKinley in the presence of his wife, brother and sister, near relatives, members of the Cabinet and friends. His last words were to Mrs. McKinley on Saturday morning at 2.15. They were, "God's will, not ours, be done." The streets of Buffalo were filled with swarming masses of sorrow-stricken people. The President made a fight for life covering five days. In all that time, although suffering intensely, he manifested a magnificent courage, that always will be a proud heritage to the people of the nation that he loved. His soul was sustained through the dark hours by the sublimest Christian serenity. From the time when he was pierced by the assassin's bullet, when he said pityingly, referring to his assailant, "Let no one harm him," up to Friday night, when he voiced his resignation to the inevitable to his devoted wife, every hour of suffering was characterized by lofty Christian fortitude. No word of complaint nor frown born of petulance marred the even tenor of his patience. His physicians and nurses, who were comparative strangers to him one week ago, after the first day in his sick room loved him with a reverence that words cannot describe.

The last two hours of his life were moments almost of grandeur. With exhaustion and pain numbing his senses, he finally closed his eyes in unconsciousness, and then, as if reluctant to leave the side of one who shared his joys and sorrows since young manhood, he awoke and asked for Mrs. McKinley. That last private meeting with all that it meant for both of them is for the stricken wife alone. With a beautiful courage that seemed to rise with the need of the hour, Mrs. McKinley, though broken in health and racked almost to the breaking point with her overwhelming sorrow, walked bravely to the bedside of the President and gave him a farewell embrace and kiss.

Theodore Roosevelt, who was tragically elevated to the Chief Magistracy of the American Republic by the death of President McKinley, entered Buffalo, the city of mourning on Saturday afternoon, after a remarkable and perilous journey from the heart of the north woods. He had been President under the constitution and law of the land since the minute the martyred President ceased to live. All the duties and powers of the office had devolved upon him, but he was as powerless as the humblest citizen to exercise one of them until he had complied with the constitutional provision requiring him to take a prescribed oath to support and defend the constitution and laws of the United States. He took that oath at 3.38 on Saturday afternoon in the library of the residence of Ansley Wilcox.

On Monday morning the body of the late President was taken to Washington on a special train. The remains now lie in state in the White House.

A Study of Political Hysterics.

A most lamentable comedy is the title of a powerful novelette by Mr. William Alien White, which begins in the September 21 issue of THE SATURDAY EVENING POST, of Philadelphia. This absorbing serial is a study of political hysterics—the story of a State gone mad. The scene of the novelette is a Western State laboring under the burdens of a panic year. The central figure is a grocery store demagogue, whose harebrained oratory captures the State convention. The story rises to a height of dramatic power and intensity rarely equalled in the fiction of the day.

CZOLGOSZ LOSING HIS VANITY.

Pays no Attention to His Personal Appearance.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Nobody outside of official circles sees Czolgosz, but it is said that he has grown to be even a more repulsive object that when he was first locked up with his face battered and his clothes torn and bloody. He has not been permitted to shave and his face is covered with a growth of scraggy beard that is not an ornament.

The police are not worrying about their prisoner's personal appearance. The duties he has to do are simple. They consist of sleeping on his plank eating his meals, and now and then appearing for further cross-examination. The sleeping and the eating are optional, but the appearance for cross-examination is imperative. Probably he enjoys it. It is the only change he has. His guards answer none of his questions, and he has quit asking them.

He is wearing the same clothes he had on when he shot the president. He was not provided with a change of linen, and the police did not think it was their duty to secure any for him. He wears neither coat nor vest. His faded shirt is soiled and spotted with blood, the blood which was drawn from his nose and face by the blows which were rained upon him immediately after he shot the president. The buttonholes in the collar of his shirt are ripped apart.

His hair is long, heavy, and tangled. It falls over his face and ears, and is beginning to turn up at the back of the neck. Czolgosz made one request for a comb. It was denied him, and since then he has not displayed the slightest interest in his personal appearance.

As he appears now, there are not very many men who would be pleased to meet Czolgosz in a lonely byway at night. There is a good deal of the animal in his make-up. The police say he has the phrenological characteristics common to criminals of a low and degraded class.

It is again reported that the man is breaking down, but this probably is an exaggeration. His gluttonous appetite may have fallen off a little, as is said to be the case. That is only natural. It is not surprising either, that the seclusion of a dungeon and the absolute isolation from the world and from any echo of what is being said and done about him is a condition that has a cooling effect even upon a man as great as his.

Subscribe for THE DISPATCH.

FOR PICKLING PURPOSES.

We have a Pure Apple Cider Vinegar made especially for pickling purposes, that will keep your pickles firm and is not injurious.

We also have Pickling Spices, Turmeric, Ginger Root, Mustard Seed, and Pickling Sundries.

We are headquarters for the goods.

NOBLE & TRAFTON,
63 Main St. Tel. 42-2.

FALL ROBES.

Plush, Seal
—AND—Shawl Robes.

Balance of SUMMER ROBES will be sold at a Reduction.

ATHERTON BROS.
Harness Makers,
King Street, Woodstock.

The BIG STORE,
FROM STREET TO STREET.

Two Entrances:

WELLINGTON and MAIN STREETS.

Everything on the Ground Floor.

50 CASES

New Fall and Winter Goods,

Just Opened.

Ladies' and Gents' Furs, Ladies' Cloth Jackets, Dress Goods, Hosiery, Ready to wear Clothing of all kinds, Hats, Caps, etc.

B. B. MANZER.

Woodstock, N. B.

THE CRANE'S STORY.

The colonial wife concocted grand dishes under the crane, in her great kettle; but who shall say that the little granite pan and kettles today do not yield delicious fare?

Provide your kitchen with our

Granite Preserve Kettles, Granite Pots, Stew Kettles and Pans, as you provide your larder with food.

We have just received a large consignment of Granite Preserve Kettles, and we also receive every week new novelties in Kitchen Hardware.

W. F. Dibblee & Son.

20 Pounds GRANULATED SUGAR For $1.00.

This is the best Sugar on the market. Our customers demand the best and we give it to them.

We give the same quality to all our customers, rich or poor.

Six bars Soap for 25 cents.

Ten pounds Soda for 25 cents.

Other prices according.

We are willing to compare prices with any merchant north of St. John, whether he is selling on a credit or cash basis.

WHITE & TWEEDIE,
CENTREVILLE.

NEW

SCHOOL BOOKS
HAVE ARRIVED.

We have all the regular books that are in use, including the NEW Fifth Book, the NEW Geography, the NEW Book-Keeping Book. The NEW English and Canadian History expected in a few days.

All kinds of Scribblers, Pens, Pencils, and other Writing Materials.

MRS. J. LOANE & CO.,
Main Street, Woodstock.

Watson's Music Rooms.

THE

BELL PIANO!

Is the Best Canadian Piano made.

It is made by the richest Canadian concern now engaged in making pianos and they can therefore afford to employ only the highest class of workmen in their factory.

I can sell you the very best instrument on the market at a more reasonable price than you will have to pay to an outsider.

If you want a good instrument give me a call and I will have pleasure in showing you the beauties of the Bell.

C. R. WATSON,
WOODSTOCK.

TENDERS.

Tenders will be received up to 15th October by the undersigned for the erection of a barn 42x50 feet.

to be built any time before 15th June next. Plans and specifications can be seen at F. L. Thompson's tin shop, King street.

J. H. THOMPSON.

Aug. 28-71.

Butter Paper, printed and unprinted, in one and two pound wrappers, at this office.