

LOCAL TOPICS.

MRS. BARNEY lectured in the Free Baptist church on Friday evening last under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., taking for her subject "Prison work in Cuba."

FOR many years past the "Temperance and General" has done more business in this province than any Canadian Company—and this year it is even excelling its previous record—Its popularity increases with its age.

Irving Hoyt, C. P. R. station agent, is on a two weeks' fishing trip to the Restigouche, having left Tuesday. Mr. Tappin of Woodstock is substituting for Mr. Hoyt during his absence.—Van Buren cor. Republican.

OLDHAM BROS. of Southampton, have recently erected handsome monuments over the graves of Leonard Slipp, Upper Woodstock; Alfred Merrithew, Green Road; and Mrs. Edward Grey, Waterville.

CAPT. J. J. BULL and Lieut. F. G. McLean of the 67th regiment have received permission to attend the Canadian school of Musketry at Ottawa. On account of the local camp they may not be able to go at present.

GORTON'S MINSTRELS which gave a performance in the opera house Thursday last drew a large audience. The company put on a good clean show with lots of variety. The band in connection with the show is the best that visits this town.

BELL MCGOVERN died at the residence of her brother-in-law, John Gallagher, on Tuesday night, after a lingering illness. Deceased was 74 years of age and a resident of this town for many years. The funeral took place Thursday morning.

ALL parties who intend building will find it to their advantage to call and inspect our large stock of doors, sashes and house finish of every variety. Latest designs, best material and workmanship. The Woodstock Woodworking Co., Ltd., Woodstock, N. B.

THE attention of teachers throughout the county is directed to the fact that no definite arrangements have yet been made in regard to either the time or place for holding the Teachers Institute. Due notice will be given in the paper when such arrangements have been made.

W. B. JEWETT is presenting his customers with a handy game counter. If you play whist you may use it as a whist counter. If whist is wickedness in your eyes, you may use the counter for the game of old maid, if that game requires one. It is a very good counter and adaptable to any game.

THE C. P. R. is offering special rates from all parts of the province to the Fredericton Exhibition, good going from September 14th to 19th and good to return until the 23rd. Via the Gibson branch the rates are, from Woodstock, $1.50; from Hartland, $1.55; from Bristol, $1.60; Florenceville, 1.75; from Perth, $1.80; Bath, $1.90, and Perth, $2.25.

MILITIA Orders.—Sixty-seventh regiment, Carleton Light Infantry—To be major, Captain J. W. Baker, vice G. E. Boyer, promoted. To be lieutenants, Second Lieutenant W. P. White, vice Sutton, retired; Second Lieutenant A. Lawson, vice J. W. Barker, promoted. To be second lieutenant, provisionally, C. Rideout, gentleman, vice W. P. White, promoted.

THE races for Exhibition week are filling well and Gallagher Bros. expect to have a good field of horses. In the 2-22 class there will probably be George S. with a record of 2.21. Clifford Boy, 2.21; Dora, 2.21; Diamond, 2.21. In the 2-26 class there are expected to be Annie, 2.26; Wanda, 2.26; Jerry D. 2.22; Gertrude Glenn, 2.23 in the 4th class Queen Dufferin, Ucatlan, Cinderella Brown Dick, Baron Almatier, Maude E. Louie J. D. and Tyer Blend.

THE officers and soldiers of the local corps of the Salvation Army are certainly pushing their Harvest Festival with commendable enterprise. They are busy collecting fruit, vegetables, grain, groceries, and every other useful article which they will sell for the benefit of the Army work, in their barracks, on Monday, September 23rd. The amount which the local corps aims to raise is $90.00. We wish them every success. The Officer in charge ensign C. Allan is busy preparing a program for the Harvest Festival celebration which promises to be one of exceptional interest.

THE Woodstock mare, Dora, that has been doing such excellent trotting this season, got sick and went to pieces at Presque Isle last week. Last season, in six races she won four 1st, two 2nd and one 3rd, making a record of 2.24. Before her Presque Isle race of last week she had trotted this season six races, winning two 1st and four 2nd. In her last race in Houlton she won the 2.22 class in three straight heats. Against the same field of horses in Presque Isle last week she could hardly get within the flag. Her record this season is 2.21. She will trot again in Woodstock during the exhibition.

AN EXHIBITION

Is always of interest, but some are much more so than others. Of course you are going to attend the Woodstock exhibit, and while here I would invite you to call at my studio and see the beautiful display of that we are showing. Our styles and workmanship are fully up to date and cannot be surpassed in this county. I have lately returned from the Boston exhibit of photography, and am prepared to do the very latest and best work known to the art. Again I invite you to call at my studio on Main street where a very courteous welcome will be extended to all. Yours respectfully,

G. A. KEITH.

H. V. DALLING left on Monday for Glassville to put in some new instruments on Mr. Welch's telephone line on the South Branch Miramichi.

THE Reformed Baptist church is receiving a coat of white paint which will add greatly to its appearance. Messrs. Foster and Jewell are doing the work.

W. F. GLIDDEN sold a span of heavy horses to R. A. Estey, in Fredericton, last week, beside shipping three others to other points. He shipped the four horses for the British Army, a week ago Monday.

ALLEN BELL, an old time resident of Richmond, who went west over thirty-five years ago, and who had not been heard of for many years, came last week as far as Malden, Mass., to visit his sister, Mrs. John Wheman.

ARTHUR KIRK a St. Stephen mason working on the piers of the new highway bridge at Andover had the misfortune to break his leg badly on Saturday. Dr. Wiley set the leg and Mr. Kirk left on the express for St. Stephen. The leg is so badly broken that it may have to be amputated.

THE ragged flag flying from a wretched old stump of a pole at the post office is enough to turn a man's heart sick. The pole has been in this condition for a long time and it is disgraceful that a new one has not been erected in its place. If the flag is the best we have it is a matter for tears.

DON'T forget the big fair in Woodstock commencing next Wednesday. The best horse races ever seen in Woodstock will be pulled off here on the three days of the Exhibition. The three corps of Carleton County Militia will be encamped here during the time. It will be one of the biggest events ever seen in Carleton County.

JOHN McLAUCHLAN has the lower window of his store dressed as a Memorial window to the late respected President McKinley. On a back ground draped in crape and black silk rests an excellent picture of the ex-President. In the fore ground is an American flag. The work, which is tastefully executed, was done by Miss McLaughlan.

AT Union Corner for the past two months a series of special religious meetings have been conducted by the Rev. A. H. Hayward of Florenceville and the Rev. LeRoy Dakin. A very great deal of interest has been taken in these meetings and during their progress fifty three people have been baptized and taken into the Baptist church. The meetings will close this evening.

It is now practically settled that the express going north, which has always heretofore run into Presque Isle, while the passengers for Edmundston have been carried from Aroostook junction to their destination on an accommodation, will be changed to run straight through to Edmundston and the Presque Isle passengers will travel from the junction on an accommodation. It is not known how soon the change will take place.

Burpee Everett.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burpee, Jacksonsville, on Thursday last, Miss Sadie Theresa Everett, sister of Mrs. Burpee, and youngest daughter of B. A. Everett, late of Fredericton, was united in marriage to Ward W. Burpee, one of the most prosperous young farmers of Jacksonstown. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Rand Pierce, of Lynn, Mass., brother-in-law to the bride. The drawing room in which the ceremony was performed was beautifully decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. The wedding march was played by Miss Blanche Estey. The bride was given away by her father. Miss Louise Everett of Kingsclear and Miss Myrtle Kilburn of Boston, cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids. Fred H. Everett of Kingsclear, a member of the second Canadian Contingent for South Africa, cousin of the bride, was groomsmen. The ushers were Fred Mallory of Jacksonstown, R. P. Allen, city editor of the Fredericton Herald and Alderman A. E. Everett of Fredericton. After the ceremony a luncheon was served and a reception held. The presents to the bride were numerous and valuable. The bride is an accomplished young lady, a graduate of the Roxbury High school and of the Boston Normal school. Mr. and Mrs. Burpee left on the early train on Friday morning for a trip to Boston and other United States cities.

The Royal Party.

On Monday the 16th the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York arrived at Quebec, where they were received by his excellency the Governor General, and Sir Wilfred Laurier, who is to travel with the Royal Party in Canada.

A despatch from London dated Saturday the 14th says:—"It is learned by the Associated Press that King Edward is considering the advisability of the Duke of Cornwall and York attending the funeral of President McKinley. The uncertainty which exists here as to the date of the ceremony and the lack of knowledge of the attitude of President Roosevelt and others towards such a visit have prevented anything definite being done."
