A friend of the family—Red Rose Tea.

Now is the time to place your orders for Window Screens and Door Screens at the Woodstock Woodworking Factory.

A VERY pleasant tea was given on Saturday last by the ladies committee of the Golf Club on the grounds near the club house.

REV. H. D. MARR left on Thursday last for his new charge at Courtney Bay, St. John Co. Rev. J. C. Berrie arrived in town from St. Andrews last week and preached his first sermon on Sunday last.

MISS MAY CLARKE, of the W. U. Telegraph office, underwent an operation on Wednesday for the removal of a toe, which was performed successfully by Drs. Rankin and Sprague. Miss Clarke is feeling well now and will be able to be out in a few days.

"THE ACTORS HOLIDAY" company and all the actors and actresses of this famous organization will arrive in town on the 4-40 express and will appear in full dress this evening at opera house. This is positively going to be the laughing event of the season and no doubt a great many of our theatre goers will take advantage of it. Seats are selling rapidly and a full house is sure to greet this funny show and most excellent company.

A delicious morsel in the musical farce "A Wise Woman," is the introduction of a quaintly melodious Southern "crooning" song and lullaby, done by Miss Marie Lamour. The music of this number is said to be extremely catchy and easy to remember, and so popular does it become that it is whistled and hummed by all the small boys, and by many of the big ones whenever the play is produced.

THE ORGANIZATION meeting of the Fred, erickson and Woodstock Steamboat Company, Ltd., was held Thursday. Directors were elected as follows: David Gilman, Pokok; Jas. S. Neill, Fredericton; M. B. McNally, Queensbury; H. C. Grant, Southampton; John C. Rogers, Southampton; Wm. Fisher, Woodstock; Frank R. Brooks, Southampton. Jas. S. Neill was elected president; M. C. Grant, secretary-treasurer, and J. H. Barry, K. C., solicitor.

NASON'S GRAND Moving Picture and Graphophone Show is visiting Carleton and Victoria Counties. The exhibition given by Mr. Nason and his Company consist of most realistic moving pictures of the Boer war and other recent events, beside comic pictures. The pictures are explained by a lecturer as the performance proceeds. The graphophone reproduces perfectly music of all kinds, band music, solos and choruses, beside stump speeches and addresses. Every village in Carleton County will be visited. Announcements will be made by posters and hand bills. Mr. Nason's Show is the real thing. Wait for him.

MANAGER GRAHAM has secured the funny farce comedy entitled "The Actor's Holiday," a rollicking farce, for Wednesday evening July 17th. "The Actor's Holiday" as a play was constructed for laughing purposes only and so cleverly is the plot interwoven that it bears the reputation of being one of the best of mirth provoking Irish plays now before the public. The cast includes many well known names whose presence in this organization serves to assure the patrons of the Opera House that the performance will be of all around excellence and one that all lovers of good comedy well played, cannot afford to miss. Reserved seats now on sale at Graham's store.

TO RUN a successful excursion anywhere, there must be an attraction at the place of destination. Such an attraction for the popular excursion from Woodstock and Houlton to Calais and St. Stephen, on Tuesday and Wednesday, 23rd and 24th inst., is the great trot at the Calais Trotting Park on these days. The favourite horses Lady Glen, Dora and Nominee Prince will take part in the contests. On Tuesday, the 23rd, the train will leave Woodstock at 6.00 a. m., and Houlton at 6.10 a. m., standard time. And excursionists can return on Tuesday or Wednesday night. The classes are 2.19, 2.25, 2.30 and 2.35. Fare from Woodstock and Houlton and return: Adults, $1.25; children, 65c.

Speaking of Tea—Have you tried Red Rose?

PETER GALLAGHER, of Newburg, was fined $4.00 and costs for being drunk on the street on Sunday.

MISS BOYER of the Ladies' Emporium is ill. Miss Hartt is conducting her business for her during her absence.

J. E. BARRY who has been doing good work in the photographic business on Queen street left yesterday for Sydney, C. B., where he will remain two months.

B. F. MACLEOD did the long course on the links last Friday in 44, and to show that it was no mere fluke he did it in 45 on Saturday. Up to that time 48 was the best score.

THE C. P. R. authorities have secured warrants for the arrest of a number of boys for malicious injury to the property of the company. They also have a warrant for the arrest of a fellow for being drunk and raising the deuce on the platform of a station near Woodstock.

It is gratifying to know that J. D. Dickinson & Son are making large additions to their tannery from time to time. Just now they are erecting a large building that will contain twenty four additional pits. This will involve the regular employment of a larger crew of men at the tannery.

C. T. MAXWELL, of the firm of Robert Maxwell, St. John, who have the contract for the jail, is in Woodstock. The excavation is nearly completed and the foundation wall is well along. Mr. Maxwell expects to get started on the partitions, all of which run from the ground, next week. He will be glad to employ any local brick layers or stone cutters who apply for work.

JOHN A. STANTON who has the contract for all the cut stone for the new jail is in town. He expects the first consignment of stone along any day. It comes from Newcastle. He will employ about eight men for two months here cutting the stone and getting it into shape. Mr. Stanton is the father of Lance Corp. Stanton, of the 1st Leinster regiment, now on service in South Africa from whom some very interesting letter have appeared in the St. John papers.

MR. B. M. MACLEOD, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia here is presenting the customers of the Bank with a very handsome "History of the Bank of Nova Scotia" from its foundation just one hundred year ago down to the present time. It is profusely illustrated with portraits of past and present officials and with pictures of some of the Bank's office buildings. It is gratifying to see that with a paid up capital of $1,860,000 it has a reserve fund of $2,418,000. There is no sounder institution on the continent than the Bank of Nova Scotia.

It is the Life Insurance Company that is the most carefully managed, and whose funds are the most cautiously and prudently invested that will have the best returns to policy holders. Through careful management the North American Life Assurance Company, has accumulated the largest percentage of net surplus to liabilities of any life insurance company doing business in Canada. It is the surplus fund alone out of which profits are paid to policy holders. The larger the percentage of surplus the larger will be the profits that the policy holders will realize. Messrs. Holyoke & Mallory are District Managers of this prosperous company.

THE Canadian Pacific Railway will run four Personally Conducted Excursions to the Pan American Exposition at Buffalo, leaving on Tuesday July 23rd, August 20th, September 17th and October 15th. Each excursion will last nine days, spending four days at Buffalo and Niagara Falls and one day each at Montreal, Toronto and Ottawa. Each excursion will be in charge of an experienced courier who has personally made the same trip with a party in the same manner as is intended on the above excursions. Passengers will purchase their railway and sleeping car tickets in the usual way and will personally pay for the various items of meals, rooms, admissions, side trips, etc., as those expenses are incurred. Parties who have made the trip state that in this way it can be done for $65.00, which will provide everything first class, and the courier will save all trouble of looking after sleeping cars, train and steamer connections, and arrangements for meals, hotels, etc., and also show passengers more than the can possibly see in the same time in any other way. For itemised estimate of expenses and itinerary giving full particulars, write to A. J. Heath, D. P. A., C. P. R., St. John N. B.

NOTICE TO FARMERS.

We have decided to buy lambs this season by the lb., to be weighed as collected. We feel confident that this is the proper way to buy and sell lambs and if farmers would co operate with us we are sure they would find it to their interest to sell their lambs by weight. We advise weighing lambs before selling to see if we are not offering more by the lb. than they would come to by the head
