A letter punctually dispatched at the right season is a graceful attention; postponed it may be as a remainder biscuit, and awkward as a redundant guest.—June Ladies' Home Journal.

If girls had less of a smattering of high-sounding knowledge, and were better grounded in the practical lessons of living, it would be infinitely better for their future happiness.—June Ladies' Home Journal.

THE HARTLAND BRIDGE

Gets a Good Send off From the Government Engineer.

In connection with a bill for extras presented by Mr. Brewer the builder of the Hartland bridge, Mr. Wetmore, the Government Engineer, submits the following report: "I believe that the entire work from top to bottom is thoroughly and faithfully executed according to plans and specifications. I have made a careful examination of the whole work and I have much pleasure in reporting it most satisfactory. I have no hesitation in stating that I believe Mr. Brewer, the contractor, to have taken every care and given every attention to the undertaking, with the object of securing a structure as perfect and thorough as the plans and specifications he had to work from would admit of. I cannot state too strongly that I believe Mr. Brewer is one of the best mechanics in this line of work with whom the construction of the work could have been in the hands of. If unfortunately he has not made a success of the undertaking from a financial point of view, he has not slighted his work on that account, and deserves any fair considerations the government might secure him. That the structure pulled through the extraordinary ice run, and freshet of the spring without the slightest damage, alone proves that it will likely continue to meet the requirements for which it is intended."

Swiped a Bicycle.

Charles Kinney, a sixteen year old boy living back of Bristol stole a bicycle belonging to Miss Colwell of Bristol last Wednesday. Miss Colwell was attending a wedding in a church at Bath and had left her wheel near the door. Deputy Sheriff Foster was telephoned for and he set out before daylight on Thursday morning to locate the lad. The boy started for Fort Fairfield via Andover. He spent the night in a barn a few miles above Bath. He punctured his tire in the morning and that detained him. The Sheriff caught him about twelve miles above Bath, brought him to Woodstock where he was arraigned before the Police Magistrate. He pleaded guilty and was sent to jail. The Police Magistrate contemplates sending him to the reformatory in St. John. The boy has had a rather unsavory reputation.

The Government Approves.

The Provincial Government, at its last meeting approved the site for the jail, selected by the County Council. Harry H. Mott, of St. John, the architect of the new building will be in Woodstock from Thursday evening June 20th to Saturday afternoon. The tenders for the building will be opened on Friday afternoon the 21st and the architect will have a day here in which to go into details of the work with the man who gets the contract explain the contract to him and settle things generally for the whole work.

The Test of Quality.

In the Maritime Provinces, in Newfoundland, and in parts of Quebec and Ontario, Red Rose Tea is a popular favourite. It has proved a success wherever it has been introduced. That is the true test of quality.

Shrubs growing in a poor soil seldom produce bright, high-colored flowers. Generally the application of manure in liberal quantities will improve their colour. Iron filings and scales collected about a blacksmith's anvil have a tendency to intensify the color of many plants, if dug into the soil about their roots.—June Ladies' Home Journal.

The bride was attended by her sister Miss Leda Nicholson and Irving Sweet, a friend of the bridegroom; was best man. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of iron blue ladies cloth trimmed with chiffon, lace and white ribbon, and carried brides roses. The bridesmaid wore a dress of white mulle and carried Lawson pinks. The parlours were profusely decorated with lilacs. After the ceremony a brief reception was held when the happy pair received the congratulations of their many friends. Messrs. Ed. Fuller, Arthur Page and Fred LaPorte were the ushers. A dainty wedding lunch was served to the guests by Misses Vina Pugh, Ada Slater and Jennie Driscoll. Mr. and Mrs. Barlow were the recipients of many valuable wedding gifts among which was a handsome parlour lamp from the members of the Horsehair Club of which the bridegroom is a member. The newly wedded couple left on the 3 30 train for Boston for a brief bridal trip and were accompanied to the station by a party of friends who showered them with rice. Returning they will reside at 329 Essex street. Miss Nicholson's former home was in Kirkland, Carleton County.

MESSRS LABILLOIS AND FARRIS

On A Tour up the St. John-Brittain's Mill Gets the Bonus—Carleton County Promised the Diamond Drill.

The Hon. Charles H. LaBillois, Chief Commissioner of Public Works, and Hon. L. P. Farris, Commissioner of Agriculture, were in Woodstock last Thursday, Mr. Farris to inspect the factory of the Carleton Creamery Co., and Mr. Farris's roller mill and Mr. LaBillois to see what was needed in the way of repairs to roads and bridges in this vicinity.

The County Council had asked the government for the use of the Diamond drill for the purpose of boring into the ground in some places in our county to see what could be found in the way of minerals or oil. Mr. LaBillois said there were two localities ahead of us with their applications but as soon as they had been served Carleton would have the drill.

Mr. Farris said that the government had granted a bonus to Mr. Brittain's mill at Bristol on Mr. Brittain having given bonds to put in a steam power before the 1st of January next.

Messrs Farris and LaBillois left on the express on Friday for Andover where they would look over the highway bridge and decide if it should be torn down at once to avoid danger to life. They would also inspect the Creamery and the roller mill at that town.

At St. Basil they were to inspect the Creamery and the Hospital.

At Edmundston there was the opening of a new road to look into, and some enquiries to be made into the enforcement of the liquor law. From Edmundston to intend to go up to Connor's station.

All the way along Mr. LaBillois had the public works of the province in his eye and Mr. Farris the farming interests along the road. They will return this week.

From the Philippines.

Mr. Storey McLauchlan, son of the late Alexander McLauchlan is visiting his cousin John McLauchlan in Woodstock. Mr. McLauchlan returned from the Philippine Islands about two months ago where he was engaged in active service with the 20th Regulars of the U. S. army. He was through about a dozen general engagements and several small scraps. He was engaged in the battle of San Mateo in which General Lawton was killed. While his regiment was garrisoned on the outskirts of Manila one night lying under arms, in constant expectation of being attacked, they were called out to suppress an uprising of the natives. The night was pitch dark and the soldiers could not see the insurgents but could only shoot at the flash of their fire. At length the fight became a hand to hand contest and bayonets and rifle butts were freely used. Mr. McLauchlan received a severe blow over the heart that laid him out. He was in the hospital about eight months, and though able to be about now he is by no means strong yet. Mr. McLauchlan was born in Northampton and he is now visiting the scenes of his very early youth. He has passed through some very exciting experiences and tells some very interesting stories.

Death of William Currie.

William Currie, a prominent farmer of North Richmond, died at his home about two miles from Richmond Corner, on Saturday night, at the age of 64 years. He had been sick about a week and died of acute inflammation of the stomach. He leaves a wife, two sons, Edward, who lives at home, and another son who is in the United States, and two brothers, Robert and Andrew, who live in North Richmond, and one sister, Mrs. Ivory Kilburn, who is now in Vancouver. The funeral took place yesterday.
