

LOCAL TOPICS.

L. E. YOUNG, Barrister-at-Law, will be absent from his office for the next ten days.

A VERY popular commercial traveller who visits Woodstock frequently is to be married on the eighteenth and will live in Woodstock.

COL. VINCE has been appointed Deputy Assistant Adjutant General (b) for the Brigade Camp at Sussex this year, a position he occupied last year.

At the meeting of the Grand lodge, F. & A. M., at St. John last week, E. L. Hagerman, Senior Deacon, of Woodstock lodge was elected Grand Senior Deacon.

"The amalgamation of 'The Temperance and General' and the 'Manufacturers' Life assurance companies—Places before the Canadian Public, one of the greatest insurance and financial institutions of the age.

ALL parties who intend building will find it to their advantage to call and inspect our large stock of doors, sashes and house finish of every variety. Latest designs, best material and workmanship. The Woodstock Woodworking Co., Ltd., Woodstock, N. B.

A YOUNG man was arrested on Connell St. on Wednesday night, for being drunk and disorderly. He resisted the marshal and got stroked on the ear with the official club for his pains. On Thursday morning he was before the police magistrate and got twenty days jail for his fun.

The friends of Rev. C. T. Phillips will regret to learn that while on his way home yesterday from the conference at Grand Manan, he slipped and injured his foot so that when he arrived in the St. Croix last evening he was unable to bear any weight upon the injured member.—St. John Star.

W. F. DIBBLEE & SON have one of their store windows very attractively dressed with sportsmen's supplies of all kinds; rifles, shot guns, knives, belts, gun cases, ammunition, reloading tools, and that indispensable part of a huntsman's outfit, pocket flasks, for carrying lime juice. If a fellow wants to go hunting he will surely find something in this window that he needs.

A COUPLE of warm bundles of gypsies struck town last week and encamped near L. P. Fisher's residence. They located some spirituous and fermented liquors, got drunk, fought, and scared some women who lived near the place where the encampment was situated. The police gave them notice to quit and they left town. The police authorities at the next town they strike are advised to keep them on the move.

OPEN SEASON for shooting all kinds of wild ducks begins Sept. 1st; for hunting moose, caribou, deer and partridge begins Sept. 15th, 1901. Licenses for hunting moose and caribou can be had at Geo. H. Saunders, game warden, after Sept. 15th, 1901. All parties caught in the woods hunting moose or caribou without licenses will be fined. Sunday shooting and hunting strictly prohibited according to the game laws of New Brunswick.

THE FRUIT TRADE.—A. L. Goodwin has recently bought from H. Sharp of Woodstock three carloads of New Brunswick apples, which Mr. Sharp claims are all the good apples of that variety remaining in that section of the country. The trade in apples and in fact in all other fruit is active at present. Gravensteins will not be in for about two weeks, but other Canadian fruits, such as grapes and peaches, will be along before that time. Massachusetts pears are now becoming quite plentiful.—St. John Star.

DR. R. G. THOMPSON, who is a graduate of the Philadelphia Dental College and Garretson Hospital of Oral Surgery, has opened an office over The Baird Company, Ltd., drug store, Main street, where he will be prepared to do all kinds of dental work with the very latest appliances known to dental science. The office is situated in the centre of the town and is fitted up with a view to the convenience and comfort of those requiring work in the dental line. The doctor is a Woodstock boy and comes from college well recommended and will no doubt receive a share of the public patronage.

HUGH M. GAYNOR DEAD.—A despatch received last night by Rev. W. C. Gaynor conveys the sad intelligence that his brother, Hugh M. Gaynor, has been instantly killed in Sisterville, West Virginia, where he resided. No further particulars are given. Mr. Gaynor was about 32 years old and has resided in the United States fourteen years. He was married, but had no children. For some years he has been engaged in the oil business. Deceased was one of four sons of Thomas Gaynor, Esq., of Chatham, and was born in this town. He received his education mainly at Woodstock.—St. John Star.

Those wishing Sittings at Keith's Studio
will find him at home after September 2nd.

He will return from the Boston Exhibition

ALL people who have the best interests of our county at heart are earnestly requested to do all in their power to make the exhibition a big success. The efforts of each man will count and no one should allow an opportunity to pass to promote the interests of the air.

EVERYTHING is being done to make the Carleton County Exhibition a huge success. Among the attractions will be two days races at the track on Wednesday and Thursday. The classes will be 2-22, 2-26, 2-31 and 2-40. Entry blanks are now being sent out. Some fast horses are expected.

A LATE issue of the Boston Herald, is referring to a vaudeville entertainment given by the guests of the Turk's Head Inn at Rockport, Mass., of the ragtime solos of Miss Baird and the banjo duets of the Misses Baird of Boston. The Miss Baird is well known in Woodstock, their native town.

ONE of the indications that business is good and that merchants and business men are looking for an increase instead of a falling off, is the fact that the sign factories are turning out a good many signs. One painter has no less than 9 on the stocks at present; four for one man and one each for five others.

THE Woodstock Band gave a most successful picnic on Moore's interval on Labour Day. They were assisted by the Houlton Band who furnished music during the afternoon. A very large crowd of people attended. In the evening the Band gave a dance in the opera house. It was remarked on all sides that the Woodstock Band has improved very much in its playing.

DAVID SHANKS, a resident of Rockland, was arrested by C. P. R. detective D. O'Regan last Friday, on a charge of having stolen materials from one of the railway section houses. He was taken to Fredericton where he now awaits examination. The police magistrate imposed a fine of ten dollars with an alternative of thirty days in jail. The young man went to jail.

FRED MURRAY, a young man living near Benton, was arrested on the up express on Monday, for using profane language and trying to start a fight. Two private detectives of the C. P. R., L. G. Crevier and D. O'Regan, gathered the young man up and brought him to Woodstock where they turned him over to Marshall Harvey. He will be before the police magistrate today.

ONE of the most deplorable mishaps that ever shocked the people of Florenceville was the accidental poisoning of Vernon Nicholson's little girl last week. She got hold of some pellets that were in the house for medicinal purpose and ate them. Though medical aid was promptly summoned nothing could be done for her. The funeral services which were held on Wednesday were conducted by the Rev. E. W. Simonson.

A. W. FIELDS, Lieutenant of the 10th field Battery, Woodstock, has received the appointment of A. D. C. to the Duke of York and Cornwall, during his royal highness trip through Canada. Mr. Fields leaves for Halifax on the first of October where he will join the Vice Royal party and will make the necessary arrangements for hotel accommodations and railway transports through Canada.

THE ladies of the Methodist church, Northampton, will hold a basket social on Clowes Island on Thursday afternoon, September 5th. Each lady is expected to bring a basket with cups and saucers for two. The baskets will be sold; proceeds to go toward the Methodist church. Tea, coffee and refreshments will be provided and a pleasant time may be anticipated.

MISS M. F. CRABE, an enterprising young lady, a native of Debec, has successfully conducted a business college in St. Stephen since 1895. The annual calendar of her school for the current year is now out. It is an interesting book of twenty pages, showing courses in shorthand, typewriting and special courses beside the regular business course. Miss Crabbe's school is spoken of in the highest terms by its graduates and by business men in whose offices they have found employment.

A VERY pleasant event took place Wednesday, August 28th, at the residence of Mr. Whitfield Sharp, Midland, when his eldest daughter, Jessie, was united in marriage to Mr. Frank Dunn, of Woodstock. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. F. G. Francis. The bridesmaid was Miss Edna Floyd; and Miss Gertie, youngest sister of the bride, maid of honor, while Mr. Morton, of Penobscot, acted as best man.—Norton cor. Sussex Record. Mr. Dunn is the local agent here of the Imperial Life Assurance Company.
