The Canadian Order of Foresters.

This purely Canadian fraternal, benevolent and insurance society was organized in 1879 and now has a membership of upwards of 43,000, distributed in every part of the Dominion, to which its operations are confined. The society gives insurance to its members in policies of $500, $1,000, $1,500 or $2,000, the latter sum being the limit on any life. The premiums, payable monthly in advance, are as follows:

Between the ages of	On $500	On $1,000	On $1,500	On $2,000
18 to 25	.35	.60	.90	$1.20
25 to 30	.40	.65	.95	1.30
30 to 35	.45	.70	1.05	1.40
35 to 40	.50	.85	1.25	1.70
40 to 45	.55	$1.00	1.50	2.00

After paying upwards of one million and three quarters in death claims, the order had a surplus in the insurance department of $1,082,000 at the end of August last, all of which is invested in gilt-edged securities in Canada, or is on deposit in the best monetary institutions of the country. Not a dollar of the moneys collected for the insurance fund is or has been used for the expense of management. The death rate per 1,000 of membership in 1898 was 4.56, in 1899, 4.43, in 1900, 4.88, and since the organization of the society, the average death rate has been only 4.93.

The Sick and Funeral Benefit Branch is a very popular department and upwards of 22,000 of the members of the society are participating in this feature of the order. The benefits are $3.00 per week for the first two weeks of illness, and $5.00 per week for the following ten weeks, altogether $56.00 during any one year, besides a funeral benefit of $30.00. In case of continued illness, $56 is paid each year in sick benefits. The fees, monthly in advance, are as follows:

Between 18 and 25 years	25 cents
" 25 and 30 years	30 cents
" 30 and 35 years	35 cents
" 35 and 40 years	40 cents
" 40 and 45 years	45 cents

During the year 1900 over $63,000 were paid out in sick and funeral benefits, and $195,000 in death benefits. All physically and morally qualified males, between the ages of 18 and 45 years, who are not disqualified on account of occupation, are accepted for membership.

For further particulars enquire of any of the officers or members of the Order, or address,

"Fifty casks of a special design and the strongest possible construction," says the "Youth's Companion," will soon be sent to Behring Sea by the United States Revenue Marine Service, and placed upon the highest hummocks of the floe ice. It is hoped by tracing their future course to test the direction of the currents that cross the polar regions. The casks are twenty-eight inches long and sixteen inches in diameter, pointed at the ends and painted black, so as to be seen easily. Inside of each are directions printed in several different languages, asking the finder to write to the nearest United States consul, giving the latitude and longitude in which the cask was found, and the date.

DIAMOND DYES.

Are The Easiest to Use and Give The Best Results.

They Are a Necessity For The Coloring of Materials For Working Up The Diamond Dye Mat and Rug Patterns.

It is the easiest thing in the world to use the Diamond Dyes. Plain directions on every package tell how the dye should be used. A little child who can read can use Diamond Dyes with success. The Diamond Dyes are the only home package dyes that can guarantee absolutely fast and un-fading colors.

If you desire to make a handsome mat or rug, select one of the Diamond Dye Mat or Rug Patterns sold everywhere by the best dealers, and color your yarns, rags and other materials with Diamond Dyes, and you will have colors as rich and beautiful as can be seen in the most expensive imported rugs. If your merchant does not sell the Diamond Dyes Mat and Rug Patterns, write to The Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, Montreal, Que., and they will send you design sheets free.

A Confession of Judgment.

As a train on the Southeastern Railway boldly steamed into Holborn Viaduct station an elderly gentleman stepped out, and on being accosted with the usual "All tickets, please," the gentleman produced a ticket on which were the words: "Available only for children under twelve years of age."

The collector stared at the inscription for some moments, and turning to the gentleman he said:

"Excuse me, sir, but this is a child's ticket; can't you see the words 'for children under twelve' on it? I'm afraid I must detain you."

Very sarcastically the aged gentleman, addressing the officious collector, said:

"That's all right, my man; perhaps it's rather out of date; but I was 'under twelve' when I started from Charing Cross."

The collector, being aware of the record speeds of the Southeastern express, looked very small as he let the gentleman pass out of the station. [London Spare Moments.

Bent Nearly Double With Bright's Disease.

A Severe and Torturing Case of Bright's Disease—A Justice of the Peace Certifies to the Cure by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mr. James Dellihunt, a much respected resident of Coneseon, Ont., states:—"I was a sufferer from Bright's Disease for several years, and at times the tortures of mind and body were almost beyond endurance. The pains were in my head, between the shoulders and down the whole spine, concentrating across the kidneys, where I was never entirely free from pain. When I got up in the morning I went about bent over nearly double. It gave me great pain to urinate, and at times the water was very scanty. Medicines seemed to have little or no effect in my case, until I began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. The first dose relieved me, and five boxes entirely cured me. I have no pains in my kidneys, and can now do a good day's work as I ever could."

Mr. J. J. Ward, J.P., of Coneseon, certifies that he knows Mr. Dellihunt's statement of his cure to be correct and true and without exaggeration. It seems foolish to trifle with new-fangled medicines when you can get the tested and proven kind. The Provincial Sunday School Convention.

The place of the Provincial Sunday School Convention is Fredericton.

The time is October 8th, 9th and 10th. The first session begins at 2.30 o'clock on the afternoon of the 8th.

Who may be delegates?

All pastors; five county officers from each county as elected in county convention, or their substitutes; two delegates appointed from each Sunday school; normal graduates; and of course all officers of the provincial association. Credential forms will be found folded in the programme sent as a supplement within the Advocates mailed to superintendents, pastors, and others, if county officers have sent addresses on Form 2.

How to get there. Delegates over all railways in the province will secure a first class ticket at the station from which they start. On the C. P. R. each person must ask for a "Standard Certificate" with their ticket. This certificate being signed in convention will be exchanged at Fredericton or St. Marys station for a return ticket free. Do not fail to get a "Standard Certificate" with your ticket.

Will all pastors going to convention please use the "Standard Certificate" instead of their half fare permits?

Tickets may be obtained three days before convention, but will not continue good later than third day after convention, Sunday excluded.

Delegates names should be forwarded to Mr. A. S. McFarlane, Fredericton, to reach him not later than October 1st. The Credential Forms should be filled in and presented by each delegate.

Homes will be provided by our Fredericton friends for all whose names are thus forwarded. But do not send the name of a delegate who cannot go. If a name be sent, and later another name is substituted, or no one can go, be sure to notify Mr. McFarlane.

The Credential Forms should be taken with the delegate. Go direct from the station to the Methodist school room. Present your credentials, register, receive your badge and the appointment to a home.

Our beloved William Reynolds used to say to delegates: "Take with you, a Bible, pencil, notebook and pocket book. Take home from convention, a truer consecration for work, a full note book of principles expounded, an enasm to sustain you in working them out in your school life."

The convention badge will be red. The local committee at boats and train will be recognized by an additional blue badge.

The Canadian Hymnal will be used in the sessions. It would be appropriate to bring your own copy with your name written on the outside.

His Criticism.

"Don't you think she is an actress of a great deal of finish?" asked the admiring friend of the gruff manager, who was watching the first performance of the amateur leading lady.

"Well, I can see her finish," said the hard-hearted manager, as he wrote the usual two weeks notice of discharge.—Baltimore American.

Stop Thief!

would be a justifiable cry directed against the countless humbugs that offer a cure for Catarrh. There is only one scientific method of treatment for Catarrh. Make the air you breathe the carrier of healing, balsamic, curative agents. It bathes every inch of mucous membrane with its healing, soothing properties. That's Catarrh-zone. Your druggist or doctor will tell you it's the only effective method of treatment and that it is sure—prompt—permanent. Remember the name Catarrh-zone. All dealers, 25c and $1.00. Youthful Playwrights.

The following good story is told by the Right Hon. Sir M. E. Grant Duff in his "Notes from a Diary."

A little boy and girl, grandchildren of Sir Thomas Watson, . . . proposed to act a play, which was to be entirely out of their own heads. Their family and friend assembled expectant.

When the curtain drew up the two young people were being married at St. George's, Hanover-square, but parted on the steps of the church, the bridegroom having been suddenly summoned to take part in the Egyptian campaign.

Presently a door was opened and a voice announced that ten years must be supposed to have passed away. When the stage was again visible, the husband, his breast covered with various colors to represent decorations, had just returned to his adoring wife, who proudly observed to him: "And I, too, have not been idle," at the same time opening a cupboard and displaying a row of ten dolls, the children who had been born during his absence.

Woman is as Old as She Looks

It is not age but disease, weakness and ill-health that makes women look old, care-worn and wrinkled. You cannot look your best unless you feel well, strong and vigorous, with pure, rich blood and steady nerves. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food makes good looks because it makes good health, restores the healthful glow to the complexion, rounds out the form and gives elasticity to every motion of the body.

Queen Champions a Dog.

The Paris Figaro tells an interesting anecdote of the Queen of the Belgians. While Her Majesty was driving the other day in a pony chaise in the environs of Spa she met a raggicker's cart drawn by a dog, which was being cruelly beaten by the two occupants.

The Queen drew her carriage across the road and requested the raggickers to cease ill-treating the dog. Their only reply was a volley of insulting language, while they thrashed the unfortunate animal more brutally than before. Her Majesty thereupon turned her carriage round and followed the men to Theux, where she had them arrested for cruelty.

On the police authorities wishing to add the charge of insulting the Queen, Her Majesty asked them to strike it out, as she made her complaint solely in her capacity as a member of the Society for the Protection of Animals.

Woman's Priceless Pearl

The greatest menace to happiness is her health. The gravest menace to her health is Kidney Disease. Mrs. Young says South American Kidney Cure is a "priceless pearl." So it is.

Mrs. A. E. Young, Barnston, Que., says: "It is seven months since I took my last dose of South American Kidney Cure and I have not had the slightest symptom of the aggravating Kidney trouble from which I suffered so many years. I paid doctors a small fortune without any permanent results. This great remedy is a 'priceless pearl' for women suffering as I did."

It relieves in six hours.

A Relic of the Past.

A Darlington lady, upon engaging a new cook, was very careful to impress upon her that no followers were allowed at that establishment, and added that the last cook had been discharged through breaking that rule. Shortly afterward, suspecting that all was not right in the culinary department, she paid a surprise visit to the kitchen, and, upon making a tour of inspection, was astounded to find a fine specimen of the genus Atkins standing bolt upright in a cupboard.

"Bridget! what is this man doing here?" she asked.

"Faix, ma'am, he must have been left there by your last cook," said Bridget.—[London Answers.

CARE-LINED FACES

Are not always the sign of mental worry, for many a person goes silently along day in and day out, suffering almost beyond telling from bodily pain, and the only sign that betrays it is the care-lined face.

Stomach out of order? Indigestion with its cutting acids making every breath you draw a dagger pain? Dyspepsia gnawing to almost the point of distraction? Can't sleep? Nervous? You needn't suffer—South American Nerve puts "all things to rights," chases the seams from the brow, and instead of the care lines there'll be the glow of health. First bottle helps; a few bottles cure.

A writer in the San Francisco "Argonaut" spoils a good story in this wise: Pauline Bonaparte Borghese, Napoleon I.'s younger sister, posed entirely nude to Canova, and it is said that she remarked, when asked if she did not feel cold without drapery: "No, the room was kept warm by a stove." The real story, according to the "Critic," is that a friend, who was very much shocked when she heard what Pauline had done, exclaimed, "How could you do such a thing?" To which the Princess replied, with a shrug of her beautiful shoulders, "It was nothing—the room was warm."

Feeble, Wasted Nerve

Aroused to New Life.

A Sufferer For Years From Weak Heart, Exhausted Nerves and Sleeplessness Cured by Five Boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Whether weakened and wasted by overwork, worry or disease, the result of exhausted nerves is felt in neuralgic pains, nervous headache and dyspepsia, serious functional derangements and ultimately in paralysis, epilepsy, locomotor ataxia, prostration or insanity. The remedy is found in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, as is proven in the case referred to below:—

Mrs. Chas. H. Jones, Pierceton, Que., writes:—"For years I have been a great sufferer with my heart and nerves. I would take shocking spells and a dizzy swimming feeling would come over me. Night after night I would never close my eyes, and my head would ache as though it would burst. At last I had to keep to my bed, and though my doctor attended me from fall to spring, his medicine did not help me."

"I have now taken five boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and it has done me more good than I ever believed a medicine could do. Words fail to express my gratitude for the wonderful cure brought about by this treatment."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Company, Toronto.
