CONDUCTOR HAGERMAN is one of the best known employees of the C. P. R., and one of the most popular. He had been running on the Fredericton branch ever since its construction, over 35 years ago. A couple of weeks ago he was dismissed on account of an unfortunate but not serious accident at Fredericton Junction and his position was given to George McCluskey, a Woodstock man, who has been on the Gibson branch. Mr. Hagerman's friends will be pleased to learn that he has been taken back on the road by Mr. Osborne.

FRANK HILLMAN, a young man about 17 years old employed in Henderson's Furniture factory, was oiling a shaft on Saturday, when his sleeve caught in the belt and he was carried to the ceiling where he would undoubtedly have been killed had it not been for the prompt action of Mr. Hipwell who extricated him. A PROMINENT physician informs us that there is no doubt but that Houlton is in for a run of scarlet fever. There have been a few cases reported since last week. With this disease in town a rigid quarantine of infected families ought to be maintained. In one family where the disease is reported the children have been allowed to go on the streets and mingle with their playmates. The laxity of enforcement of the quarantine laws in this particular case have several times been brought to our attention. If we hope to check the disease and prevent a serious spread a more rigid enforcement of the laws ought to be demanded by the public.—Aroostook Times.

POSTMASTER HUME of Houlton has arranged for a Free Rural Delivery to go into effect about the first of January. The route as arranged will be about as follows: up North road as far as Jas. Abernethy's residence, across Ludlow road about one half mile into town of Smyrna then back on County road to Houlton. This route will cover a territory of 23 1-2 miles taking in 150 families and accommodating about 625 people. The results which attend this route will determine the advisability of establishing other routes through near by neighborhoods. Wherever the Free Rural Delivery is in force it is proving a great accommodation to the people patronizing it. The carrier has authority to transact all business that now has to be done at the post office. The outcome of the experiment is awaited with interest.—Aroostook Times.
