An Unappreciated Favor.
"Say, Toggles," said Mr. Woggles, "Joggles tells me you're going to run down to the city tomorrow. Will you have time to run into Wheels & Pinions' to get my watch for me? I left it there to be fixed the last time I was down."

"Sure, old man," agreed Mr. Toggles, cordially.

"Well, here's the money to pay for it, and I'll be everlastingly obliged," said Mr. Woggles.

"Oh, that's all right; glad to accommodate," responded Mr. Toggles.

"Say, Toggles," asked Mr. Woggles, a couple of weeks later, "didn't you get my watch down in the city for me?"

"Sure, old man," replied Mr. Toggles.

"Well, where is it?" asked Mr. Woggles.

"Why, the fact is," explained Mr. Toggles, elaborately, "I ran into a pretty gay gang down there, went broke, and had to pawn it."

"My watch?" gasped Mr. Woggles.

"Sure," certified Mr. Toggles. "But it was for only $15, and I'll send the ticket around to you in the morning."

"But it was my watch," insisted Mr. Woggles, pathetically.

"Of course," assented Mr. Toggles. "Say, you didn't suppose I'd pawn mine with yours in my pocket, did you?"

"But how about the $15?" queried Mr. Woggles, with a puzzled frown. "Why should I pay that?"

"Why, you don't mean to say you'd sacrifice a $150 watch for $15, do you?" cried Mr. Toggles, lifting his eyebrows in surprise.

"But—but it seems to me you ought to pay that," asserted Mr. Woggles, with perplexed hesitancy.

"Why should I?" demanded Mr. Toggles, briskly. "It's your watch, isn't it?"

"Ye-es," acknowledged Mr. Woggles, doubtfully. "Ye-es, I suppose it is, but—er—oh, confound you!"

"Now, see here, Woggles," said Mr. Toggles, decisively, "you claimed you'd be obliged if I got your darned old watch for you, and I went to a lot of trouble to do it, but if I'd known you were going to lose your temper and kick up all this fuss about it I'd never consented to accommodate you in the world. The next time you want a favor done you go to somebody else," and Mr. Toggles walked off with a highly indignant swing.

Mr. Woggles has hired a lawyer to find out exactly what obligation he is under.—New York World.

Aroused at Last

To the terrible ravages of consumption in Ontario, the Government is petitioned to establish hospitals for consumptives. As a preventative to consumption there is no treatment to be compared to Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linsced and Turpentine which promptly and effectually cures every cough and cold. It has by far the largest sale of any remedy for throat and lung troubles. 25 cents a bottle. Family size 60 cents. All dealers.

How to Use Glycerin.

Since so many people use pure glycerin for the skin a word of caution seems necessary. If you apply a little glycerin to the tip of the tongue, you will find that, although it has a pleasant, sweet taste, the first sensation that is felt is one of pain and burning. This is caused by the fact that glycerin has a strong affinity for water and that it absorbs all the moisture from the surface which it touches, thus drying up and parching the nerves.

Ignorant of this fact, nurses and mothers have applied pure glycerin to the chafed skin of infants, producing often great pain. The glycerin ought to have been first mixed with an equal bulk of water. This being done, it may be applied to the most tender surfaces without producing injury, and, as it does not dry up, it virtually maintains the part in a constantly moist condition, excluding the air and promoting the healing process.

Rosewater is most frequently used, and benzoin is an excellent addition.

60 Specialists on the Case.

In the ordinary run of medical practice a greater number than this have treated cases of chronic dyspepsia and have failed to cure—but Dr. Voa Stan's Pineapple Tablets (60 in a box at 35 cents cost) have made the cure, giving relief in one day. These little "specialists" have proven their real merit.—72

"Verra Refreshin'"

A correspondent sends us a good story, which I do not remember to have seen in print, of a Scottish soldier at Bloemfontein who was just recovering from an attack of enteric. One day he suggested to the doctor who called to see him that he would be grateful for a wee drappie. "No, no," said the doctor. "Do you know that your stomach is in such an ulcerated condition that a spoonful of whiskey would kill you?" "Aweel sir," replied the patient, "I must just do without it; but, doctor, just come up close to me." The doctor obliged. "Ah, doctor," sighed the soldier, sighing contentedly, "yer breath's verra refreshing!"

Keeping Shoes Nice.

If your shoes have got caked with blacking, as they often do, wash it off occasionally with a cloth wrung out of lukewarm water. Let nearly dry; then rub a very little castor oil well in. Clean next day in the usual way. Leather or kid that is caked with blacking is likely to crack and go in holes.

Enormous Sale. Many Imitations.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food has come into popularity by leaps and bounds, until now the sales are enormous, far surpassing those of any nerve restorative or blood builder. As a consequence of this phenomenal success there have sprung up many imitations that relieve by deadening the nerves, but which can never really cure and are positively harmful and dangerous to the system. As you value your life and health beware of these worthless imitations, and refuse all substitutes which are said to be "just as good."

Imitators do not dare to reproduce the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, which are found on every box of his genuine remedies.

How Snakes Spend the Winter.

We usually think of snakes and reptiles as so cold blooded that the bleak weather matters little to them, but they feel the frosty nights and take them as a warning to go to their winter quarters. Now and then a snake creeps out and coils up on the warm rocks, but soon the cold nights will drive them underground, where they will knit themselves into a tangle until spring, oftentimes in vast numbers. Few snakes are to be seen after Thanksgiving day.

Have you Eczema?—Have you

any skin disease or eruptions? Are you subject to chafing or scalding? Dr. Agnew's Ointment prevents and cures any and all of these, and cures Itching, Bleeding and Blind Piles besides. One application brings relief in ten minutes, and cases cured in three to six nights. 35 cents.—71
Sold by Garden Bros.

Benefits of Intellectual Contact.

"Did you have an interesting literary club meeting, Alice?" "Oh, yes; every woman there was working on a new pattern of Battenberg lace."—[Indianapolis Journal.

Mistress: "Did you tell the lady I was out?" Servant-girl: "Yes, ma'am." mistress: "Did she seem to have any doubts about it?" Servant-girl: "No, ma'am; she said she knew you wasn't."—[Tit-Bits.

KIDNEY DISEASE FOR TEN YEARS.

A Glen Miller Man's Terrible Trial.

He Found a Cure at Last in Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mr. P. M. Burk, who is a well-known resident of Glen Miller, Hastings Co., Ont., was afflicted with kidney trouble for ten years.

So pleased is he at having found in Doan's Kidney Pills a cure for his ailments, which he had begun to think were incurable, that he wrote the following statement of his case so that others similarly afflicted may profit by his experience: "I have been afflicted with kidney trouble for about ten years and have tried several remedies but never received any real benefit until I started taking Doan's Kidney Pills. My back used to constantly ache and my urine was high colored and milky looking at times. Since I have finished the third box of Doan's Kidney Pills I am happy to state that I am not bothered with backache at all and my urine is clear as crystal. I feel confident that these pills are the best kidney specific in the country."

The January "New" Lippincott.

CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY'S new novel is published—complete—in the January number of the "New" Lippincott. This is a Revolutionary Love Story, or, as the subtitle has it: "A Comedy of Cross-Purposes in the Carolinas." The real title, "When Blades are Out and Love's Afield," fits the plot to perfection. "Blades" stands for the hot-headed young officers; and "Love" is represented by the two pretty, plucky North Carolina girls, whose nearest male relative is staunch Tory, while their own sympathies lean towards the Colonies, and their lovers are on both sides of the fight. This combination of circumstances makes things lively for the girls, and leaves no time for ennui. Exciting events follow each other in quick succession, and there is not a break in the interest of the tale from cover to cover. This must take first place in the list of Mr. Brady's novels.

Besides this novel there are several notable short stories. "The Personal Equation: A Story of Cornell College," by James Gardner Sanderson, fulfils an editorial preparation of many months to publish a series of College Tales dealing with the principal Universities of America. With love and athletics, strong elements in these stories, they must appeal to every college student in the land, as well as to persons who like to keep in touch with the manner of doing things at the different colleges. A Story of the University of Pennsylvania is announced for next month. Mr. Sanderson is an Alumnus of Cornell who enters into the spirit of his theme with fervor.

Let Them Commence at Home.

France has much to blush for in the treatment which has been accorded to ex-Queen Ranavolo of Madagascar. Though the Queen was removed from her capital with little ceremony after the conquest at Madagascar and sent into exile at Algiers, she was allowed to take with her a small retinue of native attendants. She was deprived of one by one of these attendants until there was left to her only one, an old dignitary of the court who took the office of interpreter, for Ranavolo, though she speaks English, knew no word of French. Now they have sent the interpreter back to Madagascar and left the Queen alone with her guards.

It has been decided that she is never again to hear her native tongue and never again to see one of her own race. Though France has wrested from her her ancestral domains and she is helpless in the hands of France, her position seem to call for some of the pity which the French has been offering so freely to Kruger. Her guards at Algiers are all about her house, and she is treated with scant respect.

Constipated Bowels.

Constipation, or inactivity of the bowels, is probably the cause of more distress and suffering than any other organic derangement. Once the bowels are constipated, the kidneys become clogged, the liver torpid, and the stomach and whole digestive system completely interfered with.

The head aches, there is dizziness, weakness and blurring of vision, pains in the back, arms and limbs, the accumulation of wind and gas on the stomach, pains and flatulency in the region of the stomach, and depression and despondency of spirits.

Constipation can never be cured by the use of salts and similar weakening and debilitating purgatives. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills not only cause the natural action of the bowels, but so strengthen and invigorate them as to enable them to regularly perform their functions without the aid of medicines. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers.
