ROBERT HUGHES was in town over Sunday. While here he informed THE DISPATCH that next Friday, the 8th inst., he will go back to South Africa to serve for three years in General Baden-Powell's police force. Harold Gray will accompany him from here, and, perhaps, others. As these young men have both seen service on the veldt, they are not unacquainted with the work before them and will give a good account of themselves.

SINCE the new roof has been put on Graham's Opera house, the sidewalks beneath have been dangerous places at times to travel on. Monday afternoon the snow and ice took a slide off the west side and a brick chimney came with it. Later on in the evening and through the night more fell on Queen street and Geo. W. Gibson Tuesday morning mourned the loss of a sign. Some electric light and telephone wires also suffered.

A HIVE OF INDUSTRY.—One of the busiest places in the County is the store of C. M. Sherwood, Centreville, where from three to four live clerks are on the bounce from morn till night, and the volume of goods they turn out during each week is simply fabulous. Besides the constant influx of all kinds of fresh goods, he has just received upwards of $1,000.00 worth of ready made clothing, and nearly $2,000.00 worth of staple and fancy dry goods for the early spring trade, which is only a commencement of the volume of carefully selected goods to arrive during the next few weeks.

THERE will be no band at the ice rink Friday evening.

COL. DUNBAR, D. O. C., of the eighth military district, Fredericton, will inspect the armory of the Woodstock Field Battery on Monday March 12.

Building Outlook for the Coming Summer not Bright.

The building outlook in Woodstock for the coming summer is not bright. There are probably more good houses for sale here today than ever before in the history of the town. A man interested in building operations said to THE DISPATCH yesterday that there were about fifty houses in town that could be bought at a low figure. There are several properties, with buildings in excellent condition, that can be bought, houses and land, for less than it cost to erect the buildings.

This does not mean that Woodstock is in a state of decay, for it is really in a very wholesome economic condition. It merely means that more building has been done in the past few years than the progress of the town would warrant.

SERGT MAJOR COX who fought under Bulwer through the Natal campaign, will deliver a lecture on his war experience, on Thursday evening March 14th in the Opera House, Woodstock. Sergt Majr Cox has lectured in Fredericton and other cities and the newspapers speak in glowing terms of his address. The Sergt. was one of the volunteers who swam the Tugela river to bring over the ferry to the side on which the British were encamped. On the way over, the wire tackle got in a tangle and he went hand over hand up the guy and straightened things out, all the while Boer bullets were whistling around his ears. The audience may look for a more than usually interesting lecture.

A Suggestion in the Glean Matter.

To the Editor of the Dispatch:—
DEAR SIR.—Having noticed a communication in THE DISPATCH in re Gunner Glew's share of the Contingent Fund, I would suggest that subscription lists be opened in Woodstock and the principal places in the county, asking the people to contribute to the fund, and have it published in the local papers, and I have no doubt that the people when they are made acquainted with the facts will respond.

Yours truly,
J. A. CARPENTER, Bloomfield.

I would like to ask you this question, which would you rather do, cut hay on Main Street, Woodstock, or have the small pox.

Yours truly,
