Inverted Fable.
 IN THE LAND OF THE OUGHT TO BE.
 "Now," said the Big Buck Deer to his elder born, "I will show you a sight that you never saw before, and I am so proud of that I feel like walking around on my hind legs all the rest of my life."
 "Why!" said the fawn, "it is a man, as I live!"
 "Yes," said the fawn's proud parent, dragging out the carcass from behind a tree, "and now, like a little good deer, run and get me my sharpest knife, while I skin him and prepare his head as a dining-room ornament. And shall I tell you how your papa did such a brave deed? Then listen my son. This morning, in company with my faithful bloodhounds, I tracked the man through the forest, drove him into the lake, having first ascertained that he was unarmed and then, as he was swimming about almost exhausted, I put forth in my canoe and shot him at leisure in a nice vital spot where it wouldn't show." Moral—"But papa," said the fawn, "the man had no chance at all against your skill and science. I don't see anything brave or to be proud of."
 "But you will," said the Big Buck Deer,
 "when you get to be as big as I am."—N. Y.
 "Life."

Where Medical Science Falls. to cure rheumatism, and all the time you suffer dreadfully, why don't you get a bottle of Pol-son's Nerviline and try that? Rub it into your stiff joints, sore arms, lame back, bent shoulders —wherever the pain is. Nerviline has cured plenty of people in this way, and that ought to be proof enough that it will cure you too. It is an unusually strong liniment that cures rheumatism in unusually short time. Best household liniment known. 25 cents.

Pity the Poor Rich.
 The "Youth's Companion" tells of two ladies discussing the spectacular existence of a very rich man.
 "Yes, my dear," said one, "I knew him when he worked for Uncle Joe for three dollars a week. Of course that is the fixed price for all millionaires who have made their money, and it does make one tired, but this is literally true. And now he has a house in New York, another at Newport, a farm on Long Island, an estate in Lenox and cottages at Tuxedo and Aiken, besides a yacht and a private car that is the apotheosis of leather and gilding."
 "Where is his home?" asked the other.
 "Home? He hasn't any. When they get as rich as that they've no more home instinct than milk-cans."

What Would They Give?
 It seems a waste of time to warn people against neglecting coughs and colds, but what would victims of consumption and pneumonia give if their disease were only in its beginning; if it were only a cough or cold. Deadly lung diseases begin with colds that could certainly be cured by Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, the great prescription which not merely relieves but thoroughly cures cough and cold together.

Whisper, And You Can't Hear!
 Fanny Kemble once gave a most amusing instance of the extent to which "stage whispering" may be carried on unknown to the audience. It was in a well-known theatre, and Romeo and Juliet" was the play.

Romeo was at the words (stage version, not Shakespear's), "Quick let me snatch thee to thy Romeo's arms," when he pounced upon her, and lifting her up bodily staggered down the stage.

"Let me go," she whispered, "you've got me up horribly; let me down," but all in vain. The climax came at the passage, "Tear not my heart-strings thus; they break, they crack, Juliet" (still the stage version), when—Juliet (to corpse): "Am I smothering you?" Corpse: "Not at all; but could you, do you think, be so kind as to put my wig on again for me?—it is falling off." Juliet (to corpse): "I am afraid I cannot; but I'll throw my muslin veil over it. You have broken the vial, have you?"
 Corpse: "No, indeed."
 Juliet: "Where's the dagger?"
 Corpse: "Pon my soul, I don't know." All these "asides" went on unknown to the audience in the very crisis of the tragedy.

A Cry for Help.—A pain in the back is a cry of the kidneys for help. South American Kidney Cure is the only cure that hasn't a failure written against it in cases of Bright's disease, diabetes, inflammation of the bladder, gravel and other kidney ailments. Don't neglect the apparently insignificant "signs." This powerful liquid specific prevents and cures.—70

A Scottish minister was once asked how long he would require to prepare a speech.
 "That depends," said he, "upon how much time I am to occupy in its delivery. If I am to speak for a quarter of an hour, I should like a week to prepare; if I am to speak for half an hour, three days will do; if I am to go on as long as I like, I am ready now."

To Nervous Women
 Mrs D W Cronsberry, of 168 Richmond Street, Toronto, says:—"My daughter's nerves were so exhausted and she was so weak and debilitated that she had to give up work, and was almost a victim of nervous prostration. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food proved an excellent remedy in restoring her to health and strength. After having used four boxes she is at work again healthy and happy. 50 cts a

A certain bishop, as he was going about his diocese, asked the porter of a lunatic asylum how a chaplain whom he (the bishop) had lately appointed was getting on.
 "Oh, my lord," said the man, "his preaching is most successful. The idiots henjoys it partickler."

Painful, Fatal Kidney Disease

One of the most common symptoms of kidney disease is the smarting, scald-ing sensation when passing water, which is likely to come very frequently and at inconvenient times. Then there is the dull, heavy aching in the small of the back and down the limbs.
 When these pains are accompanied by deposits in the urine after it has stood for twenty-four hours, you may be sure that you are a victim of kidney disease, and should not lose a single day in securing the world's greatest kidney cure—Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.
 Don't imagine that you are experimenting when you use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They are almost as well known as his great Recipe Book, have made some of the most surprising cures of kidney disease on record, and have come to be considered the only absolute cure for kidney disease. Ask your neighbors about them. Nearly everybody can tell of some remarkable cure by their use. One pill a dose; 25 cents a box, at all dealers', or Edman-son, Bates & Co., Toronto.

House of Lords Nervous.
 American woman suffragists must regard with envy such English women as the Baroness Berkeley and the Baroness Burdett-Coutts, who, being peeresses in their own right, have, in the opinion of many good authorities, a right to sit in the House of Lords and to vote with that body.
 In the days of the Plantagenets and Tudor peeresses were often called to meeting of Parliament, but the custom died long ago; and the recent difficulties with the Irish members would be a mere summer zephyr compared with the parliamentary storm that would be roused should some modern peeress demand her rights.
 Just at present the matter has been brought to the front by a rumor in connection with the conversation in English uppertendom. It is said that certain peeresses in their own right intend and demand the privilege of being present at the coronation as actual members of the House of Lords and to have their trains carried by pages as the Lords do.

 fat."

TESTIMONY—
 PILOT MOUND, Man., Oct. 4th, 1900.
 Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto.
 Dear Sirs,—I suffered for some time from kidney troubles. My back was so bad that to stoop over or straighten up after stooping caused terrible pain.
 I had to get up several times during the night to urinate. My urine was highly colored, contained a thick sediment, and caused a burning sensation.
 I tried numerous remedies, but none did me any good until I got Doan's Pills. I took four boxes, the pain in my back has entirely disappeared, my urine is as clear as water, does not burn, is without sediment, and I can recommend Doan's Pills to all sufferers.

Mark Twain's Pension.
 One Samuel Clemens, of Elma, N. Y., had applied for a pension, on the ground of "Rheumatism, piles and sore eyes." His claim was numbered 297620. Senator Hawley was looking after it. When he was notified from Washington that the claim had been allowed, he was absent, and his wife, who looked after his correspondence, sent congratulations, in his name, to the applicant, but the letter was directed in error to Samuel L. Clemmens, Elmira, instead of to Samuel Clemmens, Elma.

Shortly afterwards the Pension Commissioner received the following characteristic reply:
 Elmira, N. Y., July 8th, 1885.
 John C. Black, Commissioner.

Dear Sir,—I have not applied for a pension.
 I have often wanted a pension—often—ever so often—I may say, but inasmuch as the only military service I performed during the war was in the Confederate army; I have always felt a delicacy about asking for it.
 However, as you have suggested the thing yourself, I feel strengthened. I haven't any very pensionable disease myself but I can furnish a substitute—a man who is just simply a chaos, a museum of all the different kinds of aches and pains, fractures, dislo-cations and malformations there are; a man who would regard "rheumatism, piles, and sore eyes" as mere recreation and refreshment after the serious occupations of the day. If you grant me the pension, dear sir, please hand it to General Hawley, United States Senator—I mean hand him the certificate, not the money, and he will forward it to me. You will observe by his postal card, which I enclose, that he takes a friendly interest in the matter. He thinks I've already got the pension, whereas I've only got the rheumatism; but I didn't want that; I had that before. I wish it were catching. I know a man that I would load up with it pretty early. Lord, but we all feel that way sometimes! I've seen the day when—but never mind that; you may be busy; just hand it to Hawly, the certificate, you understand, is not transferable.
 Very truly yours,
 S. L. CLEMENS,
 Known to the police
 as "Mark Twain."

Jackson Promised.
 A good story is told in Missouri at the expense of its once famous Governor, Claiborne F. Jackson. Before he solved the enigma of love-lock he had married five sisters!—in reasonable lapses of consecutiveness. After one wife had been lost and appropriately mourned he espoused another, and he kept his courting within a narrow circle of his own relatives, for he rather liked the family.
 The aged father of the segirls was almost deaf, and when the Governor went to this octogenarian to ask for his surviving daughter the following conversation ensued:—

"I want Lizzie?"
 "Eh?"
 "I want you to let me have Eliz-a-beth?"
 "Oh, you want Lizzie, do you? What for?"
 "For my wife!"
 "For life?"
 "I want—to—marry—her!"
 "Oh, yes! Just so! I hear you, boy."
 "I'm precious glad you do!" muttered the governor.
 "Well," slowly responded the veteran,
 "you needn't halloo so that the whole neighbourhood knows it! Yes; you can have her.
 You've got 'em all now my lad; but for goodness' sake, if anything happens to that 'ere poor misguided gal, don't come and ask me for the old woman!"
 Jackson solemnly promised that he never would.
