

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS

Correspondents must send their names with each week's contribution, or their matter will not be printed. The names will not be published, but The Dispatch must know who is accountable for everything that is inserted in its columns.

TOBIQUE NARROWS.

The young men have all returned from the drive. Some of the men are busy running rafts. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanson made a short visit to Bath last week. Miss E. DeMerchant, of Bath, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. R. Wallace. R. Wallace left for Plaster Rock Monday where he intends working for the summer. Miss Myrtle Lovely intends visiting at Bath next week. Miss M. McLaughlin spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Bessie Craig. Miss Bertha Wilson intends visiting at the Rapids next week. Still DeMerchant arrived home last Saturday.

WEST GLASSVILLE.

The weather keeps quite cold, yet we see the trees beginning to open and the leaves beginning to form. All the farmers in this section of the county are busy sowing grain. There is more wheat being sown this year than previously, on account of having a first class flour mill in the place. Your correspondent has had the privilege of testing the work done by George Brittain, of Bristol, with his new mill, and must say that he does first class work.

Our day school is in a flourishing condition under the management of John Farley of Bristol, who is a very competent teacher.

George Bailey, has been prospecting on Chicktehawk, and reports finding a large vein of ore containing gold and silver. Mr. Bailey is the discoverer of the Mirimachi mine, which is being worked, and is panning out well.

The drive passed down the Chicktehawk stream, ten days ago, driven by Charles Lochart, to his mill. Mr. Lochart is doing a large business sawing deals.

George Logue, had a ploughing frolic last week, and was well satisfied with the amount of work done.

Miss Jennie Somerville, is visiting friends in this place.

Wesley Releeder, lost a valuable grey mare last week. He refused an offer of one hundred and fifty dollars, for the animal the day before she died.

EAST FLORENCEVILLE.

Miss Stella Dalling, of Woodstock, is visiting Miss Kate Jameson.

Harry Burnham has just finished a neat and attractive summer resort on the bank in front of the hotel.

C. Heber Jameson, of Houlton, has been spending a few days at home.

B. F. Smith is giving his house a new coat of paint.

A dress making shop was opened up last week over Sample's store by two young ladies of the place.

CANTERBURY STATION.

The community has met with a great loss by the sudden death of John L. Merrithew one of our most respected citizens. He leaves a widow and large family. For some years he has been engaged in the lumbering business giving employment to a number of men. The funeral was held at Back Lane Monday. Rev. Mr. Todd officiated.

Mr. Bennett has been very ill for the past week.

Miss Minnie Grant is home from Woodstock.

Miss Josie Lawson is visiting friends in St. John.

Dr. Crawford, of St. John, is here for a trip to Skiff Lake.

Rev. F. L. Carny was presented with a purse of $20.00 by his parishioners on the eve of his departure for Fredericton.

Crowds are steadily pouring in for the lake. A party from Houlton arrived Monday. Mr. Gould is in attendance.

H. H. Hebb spent Sunday in the village.

Body-builder.

Food. In health, you want nothing but food; and your baby wants nothing but food. But, when not quite well, you want to get back to where food is enough.

The most delicate food, that is known to man, is SCOTT'S EMULSION of Cod Liver Oil.

When usual food is a burden, it feeds you enough to restore your stomach; baby the same.

The body-builder is food; the body-restorer is

EAST CENTREVILLE.

The farmers of this place are busy putting in their crops. The old men say this is the most favorable spring for seeding we have had for fifty years. A number of the farmers here are rushing their crops in with two teams.

Miss Alanda Buchanan is working at the millinery business in Centreville.

Miss Alvaretta Clark is visiting her sister, Mrs. Loretta Lewis.

Allan Galloupe made a flying visit to this place last week. He was the guest of G. L. Lewis.

Ada McClary has returned, after spending the winter in Hampton, N. B.

Wm. Cogswell sold his Knight of Chester horse to Scott Reid, of Knoxford, for a good figure.

Miss Eva McCain is talking of getting up a music class this summer. We wish her success.

L. R. Margeson and son have a fine pair of driving horses, which took the prize at the exhibition at Centreville.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Diogee have arrived safely in Truckee, California. They will be missed by their many friends here.

The boys are longing for the time to come when Capt. Margeson will be mustering his company for the drill at Sussex.

Walter Cogswell, who attended the military school at Fredericton last winter, is expected to go into Capt. Margeson's company.

Miss Margeson is teaching our school in the absence of Miss Upton, who is away for a short time.

Ernest McClary has bought one of Ing. Harold's farms, and moved in.

Chas. Good spent a few days at Robinson's mills, this week.

Alfred Peters of Centreville, passed through this place on Tuesday.

Telephone Eavesdropping.

(New York Tribune.)

It is a common failing of human nature to take too much interest in other people's affairs, and curiosity sometimes extends so far that one person will listen to a conversation between two others when they are all on the same telephone line. The growing use of the telephone in the rural districts opens the way to a new form of eavesdropping. It is difficult to indulge in this practice without detection, however. The Electrical Review tells the following story:

A man in Ohio has been made by his neighbors to pay a fine of $25 for eavesdropping over the telephone. Some time ago the farmers of a certain town organized a telephone company and installed their instruments on the party principal, by which arrangement all the bells on the circuit ring when a call is made. After a while the subscribers became aware that some one listened to their telephonic conversation, and they determined to find out who the eavesdropper was. It was, however, entirely by accident that the culprit was discovered. One afternoon a week or two ago two of the farmers were talking over the line, when the unmistakable sound of a transmitter being removed from its hook reached them. Instantly they ceased their conversation, and in the momentary silence that followed both distinctly heard the sharp, clear chime of a clock striking the hour. The clock in question had a chime whose peculiar tone when struck was familiar to both men, who at once knew who the listener was.

Raising Buffalo.

One of the most unique lines of business, and one which is followed by but few persons in the United States, is that of Buffalo farming, and near the little station of Cochrane, Wis., is located one of the most extensive farms of this sort in the country.

The ranch is operated by Huber Brothers, and they have a large herd of this species of animal. Twelve years ago C. Huber went to Thief River Falls, where he secured two buffaloes that were owned by Indians. These, with a few others, were taken to his Wisconsin farm, and formed the nucleus of a herd that now numbers forty-two full-blooded animals.

Huber Brothers have sold specimens to various parks in the country, and one animal was sent to the London Zoo. Recently Burgess & Hanson of Laana, Ia., purchased a herd of six from Huber Brothers, with which to stock their ranch. Included in this lot were Old Tom and Lincoln, the kings of the herd.

The experiment of Huber Brothers in crossing the buffalo with domestic cattle has proved very successful, and yields a quality of meat and hide considered by many to be superior to that from pure-bred animals. The fur is much even, while on the thoroughbred it is long and coarse on the neck and forequarters and scant elsewhere. The animals bring high prices, owing to their scarcity, averaging about $1,000 each.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Religion is not a fire-escape, built on the outside of your dwelling, for which you have no use until some morning the fire breaks out—when, perhaps, you discover that it has become so rusty and broken as to be useless; but the house you live in, the table at which you sit, the fireside to which you draw near, the bed on which you rest.—Phillips Brooks.

A NERVOUS WRECK

WAS THE CONDITION OF MISS GILLIS FOR EIGHT YEARS.

The Best Doctors and Hospital Treatment Failed to Help Her, and She Had Almost Lost Hope of Ever Being Well Again—Her Earnest Advice to Other Sufferers.

One of the most common, at the same time one of the most to be dreaded, ailments which afflicts the people of this country, is nervous debility. The causes leading to the trouble are various, overwork or worry being among the most prominent. But whatever the cause, the affliction is one that makes life a burden. Such a sufferer for years was Miss Margaret Gillis, of Whim Road Cross, P. E. I. Her life was one of almost incessant misery, and she had come to look upon her condition as incurable, when Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were brought to her notice, and to this life-giving, health restoring medicine, she now owes health and happiness.

Miss Gillis tells of her illness and cure as follows: "For the past eight years my life has been one of constant misery. My nervous system was shattered, and I was reduced to a mere physical wreck. My trouble began in one of the ailments that so frequently afflict my sex. I was irritable and discouraged all the time, and life did not seem worth living. For seven years I was under treatment by doctors. I even went to Boston and entered a hospital where I remained for some time. While there the treatment temporarily benefited me, but soon my condition was worse than ever. Finally my nervous trouble took the form of spasms which caused more suffering than words can tell. When thus attacked I felt as though I was literally being torn apart. I would frequently become unconscious and sometimes would remain in that condition for half an hour. I have sometimes had as many as six of these spasms in a week, and no one who has not similarly suffered can imagine the tired, worn-out, depressed feeling which followed. Doctors seemed utterly unable to do anything for me, and those years of misery can never be forgotten. Then I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and in a short while found them helping me. Then another doctor told me he could cure me. I stopped taking the pills, and like the dog in the fable, while grasping at the shadow I lost the substance. I was soon in as wretched condition as ever. The pills were the only thing that had ever helped me and I determined to begin them again. I continued to take them for nearly nine months, the trouble gradually but surely leaving me, until I am now in almost perfect health and fully released from what I at one time thought would prove a life of constant misery. I cannot praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills too highly, nor can I too strongly urge those who are ailing to test their wonderful health restoring virtues."

In thousands and thousands of cases it has been proved that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the greatest blood builder and nerve restorer medical science has yet discovered. The pills act speedily and directly upon the blood and the nerves and thus reach the root of the trouble, effecting thorough and permanent cures. Other medicines merely act upon the symptoms, and when the patient ceases using them they soon relapse into a condition as bad as before. There is no trouble due to poor blood or weak nerves which these pills will not cure. Those who are sick or ailing are urged to give this medicine a fair trial, and are cautioned against the numerous imitations which some dealers offer. The genuine pills always bear the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" on the wrapper around every box.

Armoured Train Dynamited.

LONDON, May 20.—Lord Kitchener reports to the war office under date of Pretoria, May 18, as follows: "An armoured train has been dynamited south of American siding. Major Heath of the South Lancashires killed."
