

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Correspondents must send their names with each week's contribution, or their matter will not be printed. The names will not be published, but The Dispatch must know who is accountable for everything that is inserted in its columns.

KIRKLAND.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dickinson are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a young daughter, April 20th.
Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell from Littleton have been visiting her father.
David Kennedy is somewhat better. Three doctors were summoned to see him, Drs. Griffin, Saunders and White.
Cyrus Farnham from Meductic was in this place recently.
A young son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ivey, of North Lake, recently.
W. H. Clark lost a valuable cow recently.
Elmer Jackson has engaged to teach the school in Monument Settlement commencing May 1st.
Richmond Carter has returned home.
John Kennedy and crew have been driving some logs on Bull creek.
Susie Kennedy has returned from Rhode Island.
Thomas McGillicuddy has returned from New Hampshire.

KINTORE.

Mrs. A. M. Shaw and Miss Ethel Shaw spent a few days last week with Mrs. Innes.
G. K. Gendall has raised a new barn which much improves the general appearance of his farm.
Miss Annie Milne is expected from Boston in a few days.
W. S. Lou, of Kincardine, was calling on friends here Friday.
J. T. Curry, of Andover, was in Kintore Saturday.
Mr. Findlay sold a fine beef, Tuesday to Price the butcher of Perth.
J. C. Corey has purchased a fine new horse.
Dr. Coffin, of Arthuret was in this place Sunday.
Nearly everyone is sick with the grip.

UPPER ROYALTON.

Quite an amount of lumbering was done here during the past winter. Owens Bros., Buchanan Bros., N. A. Shaw and A. Beckwith put in a large quantity of lumber for Robinson's mills.
Last week Buchanan Bros. put them up a fine barn.
Owens Bros. are making preparations for building a large barn right away.
V. H. Beckwith has gone west to seek his fortune.
Mr. and Mrs. T. Baker from Victoria Corner and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gallagher paid Mr. and Mrs. George Buchanan a flying visit one day last week.
Miss Alice Cowan who has been stopping at Mars Hill, Me., for the past few months has returned home. We are glad to see her back again looking so well.

The young people of this place spent a very pleasant afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. Joshua Jones celebrating the eighteenth birthday of her daughter, Miss Temperance White. Among those present were the Misses Alice Cowan, Velma Hovey, Carrie Weade, Luella Hovey, Bessie Beckwith, and Messrs. Arthur Cowan, Hazen Beckwith, George Wiggins, Thomas Cowan, George Beckwith and others.

LONG SETTLEMENT.

Harken to a few items from Long Settlement. Signs of spring are approaching in more ways than one, singing of the birds, fields clothed in a green mantle, and the beginning of farm operations; though not much progress has been made in that line as yet owing to the rain of the past week of which we have received the "lion's share."
Miss Ella Long, who has been ill for a long time, is still no better.
Edna, the little daughter of J. E. Long, has recovered from her severe illness and is able to resume her duties at school.
Hollis, the young son of Mina Grey, who has been quite ill is on the road to recovery.
J. E. Long has secured the services of Charlie Cross to help him in his farming operations.

Are You Well?

Unusual question!

If your digestion needs a rest—whatever else may be true—you can get it from SCOTT'S EMULSION of Cod Liver Oil.

Whatever else it may be—it is a vacation for stomach and partly for bowels.

It feeds you a little without any work at all by the stomach. That little may be enough to set your whole body going again; for it helps you more than it feeds you.

If you have not tried it send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists,
Toronto,
50c. and $1.00; all druggists.

Our school teacher, Miss Foye, spent her Easter vacation with friends at DeBee.
A number of our young people spent a very pleasant evening at a candy party at H. Peterson's, Tracey Mills, quite recently.
Fraser McClarey who drives a delivery cart for Mr. Stokoe, of Bloomfield, passed through here today.
Mr. Raymond, of Woodstock, has been in this vicinity engaging milk for the coming season, as he intends running a cheese factory at Tracey Mills.

KNOXFORD.

The weather has been very disagreeable during the last few days, owing to the recent rains.
Miss Ina Semple and her brother from Florenceville made a short call here one evening last week.
David Irving has the contract to build the new school house in the lower settlement.
Odburn Trafford erected a new barn last Saturday. A number more will be seen along the road before long.
We are sorry to hear that a number of young men are going West in a few days. We wish them success and a speedy return.
Miss Minnie Congle is expected home soon from Boston.
Miss Cassie Reed, Centreville, who returned home from Lowell late in the winter is visiting friends here before she returns.
Miss Laura Smith is still staying away. The young folks seem to like the Yankee people.

CENTREVILLE.

The Methodists of this place are repairing and remodeling their church, consequently there was no service Sunday.
A large number of teams from here and Bridgewater, drove to Hartland Sunday.
Mrs. Merritt and her daughter Lydia, are spending a few days in Hartland the guests of Mrs. Merritt's sister.
Mrs. E. P. Calder and family started Saturday for Summerside, P. E. I. to join her husband Rev. E. P. Calder, who has charge of a circuit in that vicinity.
Clarence Gatchell returned Friday from the head waters of the Tobique, where he has been superintending the stream driving operations of F. H. Hale.
John Graig has his new house well under way and intends rushing the work as fast as possible. This dwelling when completed will be a very valuable addition to our already pretty little village.
C. M. Sherwood is again in the front row in offering highest cash prices for deacon skins. Churches with an over plus would do well to correspond with him.
The Baptists of this place are looking forward to a new minister but as yet no definite arrangements have been made.
Miss Laura Hoyt who has been confined to the house nearly all winter from heart trouble is again able to be out. Dr. W. W. White, of Bridgewater has been in attendance.
Matt. Flynn, of Bridgewater, was in town Sunday.
Gilbert Graham, of Blaine, spent Sunday in town.
The international relations in the vicinity of the boundary line are very pleasant.

THERE IS NO PLEASURE

And even less satisfaction, not to mention the discomfort resulting from

A MISFITTING COSTUME

In winter it is a constant annoyance, and in summer a source of torture. Why therefore does any man tolerate one, when he can

Avoid All Misfits

If he will only avoid the low-priced clothing store and its hand-me-downs, and buy his garments at the

Fit-Reform Wardrobe

Where all clothing is made up upon scientific principles and a perfect fit a certainty.

Suits, $10, $12, $15.

Trousers, $3, $4, $5.

B. B. MANZER.

Many of the young people from across the border enjoy visiting Centreville frequently.

JACKSONTOWN.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Harris of Florenceville, spent Sunday with Mr. Tracy.
Miss Sadie Everett, recently arrived from Boston, and will spend the summer with her friends here.
The annual election of officers in the Jacksontown Baptist Sunday school, occurs next Sunday.
Mrs. Charles Everett was called to Providence, Rhode Island, last week, by the illness of her brother.
The local talent of this neighborhood will give a concert in the Baptist church, Friday night May 3rd, commencing at 8 o'clock. An interesting programme has been prepared and a pleasant evening may be expected. The admission will be 15 cents, and the proceeds are to be used for the benefit of the Jacksontown Baptist church.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.

Sprinkle, Sprinkle, Little Cart.

Sprinkle, sprinkle, water-cart!
How I wonder where thou art!
Never can I find you nigh
When the dust is deep and dry.

When the clouded sun is set,
And the streets with rain are wet:
Then you wing your little flight,
Sprinkling, sprinkling, left and right.

And when bright my boots are "shined,"
Hands in costly kids confined,
Rattling down the sodden street,
How you soak my hands and feet!

Some day when this deed you've done,
I will aim my trusty gun:
Then we'll wonder where thou art,
Buckshot-sprinkled water-cart!

Prepare to Go.

"Now, John," his wife said, gently pressing him back when he tried to get up, "you must stay in bed today. I've telephoned for the doctor, and he's coming right over."
"All right," he submissively replied as she threw his trousers out of reach, "you'll find my will and the insurance policies and so forth in that little tin box in the third drawer of my desk."—Chicago Times-Herald.

A Revolution in Clothingdom

AT THE

GREAT SACRIFICE SALE.

Since the commencement of our Great Sacrifice Sale, the mighty wave of public enthusiasm has been growing in intensity. Crowds from every part of the city and country have been steadily in attendant. The machinery of Low Prices has been set in motion and daily onslaughts have been made upon high prices.

Our Sale has effected a Breach in the Stronghold of Prices

Widening the breach, flushed with just pride at the magnificent response to our efforts, we plunged this week into the battle of fiercest competition with lower prices and better values prevailing everywhere throughout our store. We reinforce the marvellous and amazing offerings with an unprecedented sacrifice of
