

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Correspondents must send their names with each week's contribution, or their matter will not be printed. The names will not be published, but The Dispatch must know who is accountable for everything that is inserted in its columns.

UNION CORNER.

We had our share of the big rain. No bridges were taken away, for the fact there were none except Crane brook bridge. The travelling was about suspended for a time. The mail carrier could not make his regular trips therefore we were late in receiving the news of the day. The indications are there will be early farming.

The neighbours are busily engaged cutting up their wood. Two parties are sawing in the settlement, S. Porter and son and Fred Carson.

Miss Jameson our teacher had her brother, Rob, to see her recently. She spent her Easter vacation at Island Falls, Me.

Miss Lena McNarlin has gone to Boston on a visit.

Census enumerator W. V. Benn passed along last week.

Milton J. Green, we are glad to report has recovered his health again.

Fred Givan, Wilmet Carson and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Barton were at Woodstock last Thursday.

TOBIQUE NARROWS.

Fine weather has come at last. Nearly all the men in this vicinity have gone away to drive. Some to the state of Maine and others up Tobique.

David Craig left here on the 11th for Riley Brook with a four horse load of drivers for J. E. McCollum.

Mrs. W. H. Hudson was visiting Mrs. J. K. Larlee last week.

The T. V. R. was delayed Monday of last week on account of a wash out on Saturday at D. Curry's.

Miss Ida Denison was the guest of Mrs. J. K. Larlee last Wednesday.

EAST FLORENCEVILLE.

Bicycles are on the move. W. Riley Trafford has opened up Balmain Bros warehouse here just above the bridge. A new barber shop is now under construction.

Rev. Mr. Marple has been holding meetings here for the last two weeks in the Baptist church. Eight persons were baptised Sunday before last, and seven last Sunday.

P. R. Semple was to the lower part of the province last week attending his brothers wedding.

Wilmet Hunter wears a nice little smile these days,—another boy.

Fred Hunter had the misfortune to sprain his ankle last Friday while stepping off the platform.

NORTHAMPTON.

Our roads are dry and dusty in most places. Oliver Speer lost a valuable horse under most peculiar circumstances, lately. The animal was feeling especially well, and after being watered made a bolt for the door, its head coming violently in contact with the top of the door frame, the force of the blow instantly crushing its skull, and death resulted instantly.

D. S. Gibson started driving operations last Thursday, with a crew of fifteen or sixteen men.

There is a good deal of bank lumber to be rafted this week. A number of rafts went th Frederickton some days ago.

Miss Annie Rogers, who has been home on a visit for some weeks, left to resume her duties as teacher at Portland Me., some days ago.

Mrs. James Clowes is very poorly, and under the constant attention of Dr. Kierstead. She has been sick all winter.

It is not practically settled yet whether the Northampton station of the Carleton Creamery will be operated this summer or not.

James Clowes is preparing to build a very large barn. He is now engaged in framing the lumber, with George Gallagher as framer. This will be the largest barn in the parish.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gill spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. C. W. Britain, at Bristol.

Luke Appleby has bought the Andrew Scott farm, and has moved his family up from Gagetown, Queen's County.

KIRKLAND.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Graham are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a young daughter.

David Kennedy is very ill with inflammation of the stomach.

Myrtle Carter has gone to Lawrence Mass. Messrs. George Dickinson and Herb. Gidney have gone to British Columbia.

William Hilley recently lost a fine cow by accident. She ate some Paris green.

A young son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas John Graham, North Lake on the 14th.

Fred Saunders and crew are busy working on the bridge across Bull Creek.

Mr. Benn, who is taking the census, gave us a call recently.

Messrs. Howard and Robert Bustard, Henry Anderson, Thomas Kennedy and Blair Graham have returned from New Hampshire, where they spent the winter.

CENTRAL SOUTHAMPTON.

About all you hear in this place just now is boat. Preparations are being made to build a steam boat near George Brown's place and a tow boat on F. O. Brown's front.

The Orange Brotherhood held a meeting here on the evening of Saturday the 13th. They decided to celebrate the 12th of July in good fashion. A parade will be conducted and a sermon will be preached to the members of the order in the Reformed Baptist church. A celebration will be held similar to that of the last twelfth and as much better as it is possible to make it.

The Free Baptist Sewing circle is very busy just now. They met last Wednesday at the residence of Mrs. Arlington Wright.

The remains of Mrs. Frederick Tompkins were brought here for interment. The funeral took place on Sunday the 14th. Mrs. Tompkins was a young woman. She left a husband and one child to mourn their loss.

The Rev. Mr. Baroes preached an appropriate sermon in the Free Baptist church on Sunday evening.

RED RAPIDS.

Holland Giberson has sold out his mill and farm and intends moving inside a month to parts unknown.

It is good to see Mrs. Rob Terrance out again after an attack of la grippe. She drove to Three Brooks on Friday to see Mrs. Frank Reed.

Mrs. Gilbert Cronk is somewhat better of la grippe.

We are having beautiful weather and our roads are nice and dry but quite rough. They will soon be levelled down by the traffic.

If poverty is the mother of crime agents are the mother of poverty when they can sell ten cents worth of tin for two dollars.

Our gentle sex are trying to see who can turn off the nicest mat. No mistake there have been some very fine specimens made and
