SPEECHES FROM OUTSIDERS.

The practise of the County Council and sometimes of the Town Council, of hearing addresses from persons other than members, might safely be discontinued. The members of these bodies are elected by their constituencies to represent them, to pass bye-laws for them, to transact business for them, and the members should not allow outsiders to step in and make speeches to them during the course of their deliberations. If one outsider has a right to be heard all others have an equal right and thus the possibilities of endless speech making are awful to contemplate.

Tale of a Stamp.

I'm a stamp—
A postage stamp—
A two-center;
Don't want to brag,
But I was never
Licked,
Except once;
By a gentleman, too;
He put me on
To a good thing;
It was an envelope—
Perfumed, pink, square;
I've been stuck on
That envelope
Ever since;
He dropped us—
The envelope and me—
Through a slot in a dark box,
But we were rescued
By a mail clerk
More's the pity;
He hit me an awful
Smash with the hammer;
It left my face
Black and blue;
Then I went on a long
Journey
Of two days;
And when we arrived—
The pink envelope and me—
We were presented
To a perfect love
Of a girl
With the stunningest pair
Of blue eyes
That ever blinked;
Well, she mutilated
The pink envelope
And tore one corner
Of me off
With a hairpin;
When she read what
Was inside
The pink envelope,
I never saw a girl blush
So beautifully!
I would be struck
On her—if I could.
Well, she placed
The writing back
In the pink envelope;
Then she kissed me.
Oh, her lips were ripe
As cherries,
And warm
As the summer-sun,
We—
The pink envelope and me—
Are now
Nestling snugly
In her bosom:
We can hear
Her heart throb:
When it goes fastest
She takes us out
And kisses me.
I'm glad
I'm a stamp—
A two-center.

A Farmer's Trials.

A SUFFERER FOR YEARS, THE RESULT OF A FALL.

In His Weakened Condition La Grippe Fastened Itself Upon Him, and Brought Him Near the Grave.

Mr. William Silver is a well known farmer living near Hemford, N. S. During his life he has passed through much sickness, but now, thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, he is again enjoying vigorous health. To a reporter who recently interviewed him Mr. Silver said:—"I am now in my 62nd year, and I may date the beginning of my trouble to my sixteenth year when I was thrown from a horse's back and had my spine somewhat injured. This was always a weak spot and it seemed to leave me more susceptible to other troubles, as it grew worse as I advanced in years. As a farmer I always had to work hard, and often had to expose myself to inclement weather. My back trouble was finally aggravated by indigestion, and as this affected my appetite, I was very much run down. Finally a few years ago I was attacked with la grippe, which developed into pneumonia. My family doctor succeeded in conquering this trouble, but for six months I was not able to leave the house, and all that he could do for me did not bring back my strength. Finally I consulted another doctor, but with no better result. In fact before I stopped doctoring I had tried four different physicians and all the time instead of getting better I was growing weaker. Some eighteen months had now elapsed since my attack of la grippe, and during that time I was not able to do any work. My whole system was exhausted, and my nerves shattered. On fine days I would go out for a while, but often I would become so weak and dizzy that I could scarcely get back to the house. One day a neighbor asked me why I did not try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I thought the advice might be worth taking and I sent for a half dozen boxes of the pills. Before they were gone there was no doubt I had found a medicine that was helping me, and I got a further supply. I continued taking the pills for about three months, and before I quit using them I was feeling better and stronger than I had done for years. Every symptom of the weakness that had followed la grippe was gone, and my back which had bothered me for so many years was almost as strong as in boyhood. I have since done many a hard day's work, and been exposed to bad weather, but without any evil effects, and I can truly say Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have restored me to vigorous manhood."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure such cases as the one noted above because they create new, rich, red blood, thus strengthening weak and shattered nerves. They do not purge and weaken like other medicines, but strengthen from the first dose to the last. Sold by all dealers in medicine or sent post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

He Got The Potatoes.

At a railway station refreshment-room in Preston one of the passengers was in a hurry. "Please pass me them potatoes, mister," he said, addressing an elegant gentleman who sat next him. The latter slowly focused his gold-mounted eyeglass on the speaker. "Did you think I was one of the waiters?" he asked, icily. The others held their knives and forks suspended in mid-air, expecting to see the man shrivel up; but no such phenomenon took place. He turned and beckoned to the nearest waiter. "Waiter, come here, please." "Yes, sir." "I want to apologize to you, that is all. You see, I mistook this party for you, but I do hope you won't be offended at it. Now, pass me them potatoes, and we'll go on with the dinner!"
