Next time you buy Tea, buy Red Rose.

THERE are some cases of scarlet fever in Woodstock.

THERE will be a concert in the A. M. E. church on Thursday night. Refreshments will be served after the concert. All are invited to attend.

SAP CANS, Boot Calks, Paints, and all other reasonable goods now in stock, sold for cash or pay down at cash prices. Shaw & Dibblee, Hartland.

THERE will be a meeting of the Carleton County Agricultural Society at 12 30 on Saturday afternoon. A full meeting of the directors is requested.

THE Rev. D. J. Fraser, B. D.; LL. D. will lecture in the Vestry of St. Pauls church Friday evening at 8 o'clock on the life and letters of Robert Louis Stevenson.

FARMERS' HALT.—Intending purchasers will save dollars by buying their Fertilizers from the undersigned. Analysis guaranteed. Call and get prices. Terms easy. Keith & Plummer, Hartland.

THE members of the Golf Club who wish to have lockers in the Club House should see Mr. B. M. Macleod at once. Mr. Killam expects to begin work on the new building this week.

DR. RANKIN'S lecture on Light, at the Guild of St. Pauls church last Friday evening drew a large house. The lecture was an excellent statement of scientific facts in popular language.

THAT "The Temperance and General" is becoming deservedly popular, is evidenced by the fact, that for some years past, it has done more business in the Maritime Provinces than any other Canadian Company.

ALL parties who intend building will find it to their advantage to call and inspect our large stock of doors, sashes and house finish of every variety. Latest designs, best material and workmanship. The Woodstock Woodworking Co. Ltd, Woodstock, N. B.

PERRY'S VAUDEVILLE Company played three nights in the Opera House last week. It was a clean show and a pretty good show. The tumbling was specially fine. Their band played on the streets every afternoon. They were a good looking lot of people and their music was good. Harry Lee of Woodstock is Musical director of the company.

E. F. TOMPKINS and Jarvis Tompkins of Minot, North Dakota, and Allan Tompkins, Devil's Lake, North Dakota arrived in Woodstock on Wednesday last to see their mother Mrs. William Tompkins, South Newbridge who was dying. There are seven brothers in the family and they are all at home now, the first time in twenty six years.

THE C. I. R. trains north of Woodstock played in hard luck last week. On Thursday night a special freight coming South struck a broken rail at Deep Creek, below Newburg Junction. The engine and thirteen cars left the track and two cars landed at the bottom of a ditch. A wrecking train was sent to the scene of the accident and the track was cleared so that the hobo was able to come down at eleven o'clock. On Friday afternoon the Express going North was derailed at a point near Bath and detained several hours.

JOHN L. CARLETON K. C., of St. John, delivered a lecture on John Boyle O'Riley the poet of humanity, in the opera house last Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. Mr. Carleton, in opening, made a delightful comparison between the subject of his lecture and Jean Val Jean the hero of Les Miserables. Both were born in poverty, one was sentenced to the galleys and one to the gallows for offences for which their own consciences did not condemn them and both afterwards came to deserve the respect and admiration of all who knew them. Mr. Carleton illustrated the generous love for humanity which inspired the poet by frequent quotations from his poetry. The lecture, which was interspersed with well told stories, was listened to with the utmost attention by a large audience. Mr. Carleton can always get a good hearing in Woodstock.

THE relatives of the late Moses Jewett will soon have about $40,000 distributed among them. Moses Jewett was well known along the river, having been a Baptist preacher for a number of years. He lived at Beagumec, Carleton Co., where he operated a saw mill and did considerable business. He died about two years ago leaving an estate worth $40,000. He left no family his wife and children having died before him. His fortune is now to be distributed among the surviving relatives, of whom there are about 40. Among them is the old Atherton house, corner Queen and Westmorland streets, this city. Jewett Brothers, who run a grist mill at Upper Kingsclear, are also heirs, and a number of them live at Keswick. Mr. L. H. Young, a Woodstock lawyer, is now making arrangements to have the estate closed up and equally divided among the different heirs.—F'cton Gleaner.

Easter Holidays

Are drawing near, but we are here first with our Special Prices for the holiday trade. From now until after the Easter holidays we make great reductions in prices of Cabinet and Half Cabinet Photographs

SIGNS OF SPRING.—The crow has been with us a week and at least one robin has been sighted

THE Roller Rink will only be open on Wednesday and Saturday evenings for the rest of the season.

JAMES W. WOLVERTON, town health officer is making his round. All unclean places in town must be cleaned up promptly.

Harry Dunbar, son of Alex. Dunbar is ill with appendicitis. It is expected that an operation will be performed this week.

MAIN STREET was very much improved in appearance yesterday by being washed down with a stiff stream of water from a hydrant.

J. K. FLEMING M. P. P., entertained the Carleton County Normal School students at his residence in Fredericton on Friday evening last.

GRENVILLE JAMES, a United States Consul at one time at Woodstock, later at Prescott Ont., and since at Grenoble, France, is now in Chicago.

S. A. PERKINS' grand new hotel at Centreville will be opened on Wednesday April the 3rd with a ball and oyster supper. Tickets will be $1.00 a couple.

A good cup of tea brings more refreshment to the weary than a beefsteak. UNION BLEND TEAS are always good, and at 25, 30, 35 and 40 cents a pound are the best values in the market.

AN invitation dance will be given in Uniform Rank Hall next Tuesday evening in honor of Burnett E. Anderson, formerly of Woodstock, who is about to leave us for Lancaster N. H.—The Kennebank Me. Star.

C. M. SHERWOOD is selling Ryans superior brick at $11.00 per thousand. A full line of best quality of paints, varnishes, graining colors, glass, brushes etc, including about everything usually kept in a city hardware store constantly on hand at bottom prices.

THERE are probably less vacant stores in Woodstock today than at any time in six or eight years. Merchants in all lines said their trade last Christmas was the best in years. With more competition if business is better the outlook for the town must be called more than good.

JOHN McCoy has procured from Woodstock parties a rakish looking grey pacer that rumor says can go fast enough to head any of the fast ones owned in the city. It is hunted he has a record of 24, and from his appearance it would seem he is not a stranger to the track.—Gleaner.

SERVICE and covering capacity are what show the economy of paint—not the price per gallon. The Sherwin-Williams Paint wears longest and covers most. It is the best paint economy. Made to paint buildings and everything else with. Sold by W. D. F. Dibblee & Son who have just received their spring stock of Sherwin Williams ready mixed Paints.

THE Provincial Dairy School will shortly close its present session which has been the most prosperous on record. The examinations commenced yesterday. Among the students who will probably get diplomas are George Ross, Florenceville; Elmer Stokoe, Bloomfield; Win. Emack, Andover; Ernest Carey, Bristol; J. M. Monteith, Woodstock; and John Crawford, Dobeic.

THE funeral of Mrs. William Tompkins, South New Bridge, was held on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. The husband of the deceased was unable to attend the grave, as he has been bedridden for years. Services were held at the house and at the grave. The services were conducted by Rev. Thomas Todd who married Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins and by Rev. Mr. Mair.

J. C. HARTLEY, Barrister at Law, and Archie F. Hale have entered into a partnership for the purpose of carrying on a general insurance business. They have the Liverpool and London and Globe, The Phoenix of Hartford, The Aetna of Hartford and The Hartford of Hartford fire insurance companies, The Ocean Accident and Guarantee Corporation of London Eng., and the New York Life Insurance Company.

A VERY pleasant evening was spent on Monday last at the residence of F. B. Carvell. A social and musical was held by the ladies of the Methodist church. The following programme was rendered: Piano solo, Miss Johnston; vocal solo, Miss Page, Centreville, song and chorus, W. Townsend and four young men; vocal solo, Mrs. R. E. Holyoke; male quartette, Messrs. Mooers, Lockwood, Comben and Dr. Baker; violin solo, Mr. G. H. Williams; duet, Mrs. Frank Good, and Mrs. H. H. Lockwood. Mr. A. J. Phillips also favored the audience with several vocal selections which were much appreciated. Refreshments were served after the music was finished. The proceeds which amounted to about $26 are for a charitable object.
