NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS

Correspondents must send their names with each week's contribution, or their matter will not be printed. The names will not be published, but The Dispatch must know who is accountable for everything that is inserted in its columns.

RICHMOND CORNER.

The Rev. A. W. Teed attended the meeting of the board of Home Missions in St. John last week and took the opportunity to visit his parents at Dorchester. He returned Friday evening.

We see by the report of the county council meeting that $800 00 has been assessed to Richmond for the poor. We have not heard anything about gold watches but the banquet must be sure. Some of the councillors who think the poor are not used well should take a trip to Richmond.

Rev. J. E. Flewelling attended the meeting of the Woodstock Deanery at Jackson town, Tuesday and Wednesday, 29th and 30th. On his return he spent Thursday with his father-in-law, Andrew McIntyre.

Mrs. Thomas Gartley, a very old lady, died very suddenly last week, dropping dead as she was walking about in her usual health.

Mrs. Richard Fitzpatrick, who has been ill for some time, died Wednesday and was buried Friday in the R. C. cemetery in Woodstock.

February 1st being the 81st birthday of Charles S. Jamieson, nearly fifty friends and relatives gathered as a surprise to wish him many happy returns. After partaking of the many good things provided the evening was spent very pleasantly in dancing, games, music and recitations. At the first sound of the music Mr. Jamieson and his partner were first on the floor and few of the younger men could step with him. The company broke up about twelve o'clock. All were invited to return on Feb. 1st, 1902.

CANTERBURY STATION.

Owing to the recent storm the roads are in poor condition.

Rev. J. E. Flewelling attended the deanery meeting at Jacksonville this week.

A memorial service for our late Queen was held in Trinity church Saturday at 1.30. Several attended from McAdam.

Rev. Geo. Ross was unable to keep his appointment here last Sunday much to the regret of his parishioners.

Mr. Belyea and assistant Mr. Kirkpatrick, representing M. R. & Allison, St. John, were in the village last week.

The enterprising agent for the Fredericton Herald, T. W. Rainsford, has visited us again. He is a hustler and has a host of friends through the country who are always glad to welcome him.

A large party visited W. J. Scott's camp at Deer Lake last Saturday. All report a jolly time and are loud in praise of the cook.

Our tailor T. C. Annis is doing a large business at present.

Miss Annie Trafton, of Woodstock, is visiting Mrs. E. London.

Miss Bessie London is convalescent.

Lorne Grant paid a flying visit to Houlton this week.

Mr. Farris, of the T. H. Estabrook's Co., St. John stopped at Donovan's Hotel this week.

JACKSONTOWN.

Thank to the kindness of Mr. Sheppard, the young folks of this place are enjoying the benefit of a good singing school. Do, me, sol, do.

A very enjoyable gramophone entertainment was given at the home of our singing master last Friday evening.

Our day school is in a flourishing condition under the auspices of our popular teacher, Mr. Brittain.

Out of our seven native teachers, three, viz., the Misses McLeod, Hartt and Dunham, teach the same schools as last term. Misses Cora and Sadie Estey teach respectively the Lower Wakefield and Bakum Settlement schools and Miss McLeod is attending the Provincial Normal school.

The Women's Aid Society meets at Mrs. John Mallory's on Feb. 7th. An interesting meeting is anticipated.

The circle in connection with the Waterville church met at Mr. Wilmot Bartt's on Thursday the 31st.

In spite of the inclement weather a good congregation got out to hear Rev. Joseph Cahill.

Concerning the weather we will say in the words of one of our local poets, "Though bleak thy winds and cold thy snows, We love thee still, fair Canada."

NORTHAMPTON.

Owing to the recent cold rain from the north the trees in the woods and elsewhere are thickly coated with ice, every bud and twig being embedded in it. The deer and partridge are being hard pushed for an existence. Old woodsmen say they never saw the woods in a worse state.

Newman R. Bacon, J. Jarvis Bull and John Monteith, employees of the Carleton Creamery Co., were in Fredericton last week attending the F. & D. Association.

Henry, the only child of Edgar Marr, aged about five years, died recently from inflammation of the brain. The remains were interred at Greenbank. The Rev. Mr. Martin officiated at the funeral.

WATSON SETTLEMENT.

Mrs. Jane Gartley relict of the late Thomas Gartley died at the residence of her son John Gartley, of this place on Saturday the 26th of January at the ripe age of eighty-five years. She arose in the morning apparently as well as usual. On going to her room after breakfast she fell unconscious on the floor and died in a few hours. She was buried in the Episcopal burying ground at Lower Woodstock. Mr. Teed conducted the service. She leaves a family of six sons and two daughters as well as grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The large number which gathered at the funeral, testified to the universal esteem in which she was held.

Our community also suffers loss in the death of Mrs. Richard Fitzpatrick, who after many weeks of suffering died on Wednesday morning last. Her remains were interred in the Roman Catholic cemetery at Woodstock. She leaves a husband two sons and a daughter to mourn the loss of a kind and loving wife and mother, as well as a large circle of friends. She was much esteemed by all who knew her.

John McBride, who has been laid up for sometime with neuralgia of the face is somewhat improved.

Our school is progressing under the management of Miss Annie McLean, of Bristol, who is a favorite with both scholars and parents.

Bernard McBride, who has been working at the blacksmith trade at Jacksonville for some time past has returned home.

Miss Jennie Gartley, who was visiting in Houlton, the guest of her uncle, Spurgeon Parrinton has returned home.

Alex and Miss Myrtle Carson, of McKenzie Corner, recently spent a few days visiting friends in this place.

GORDONSVILLE.

Though Gordonsville has been rather neglected in your paper lately we are not all dead by any means.

Our boys are commencing to come out of

Why Scott's

EMULSION of Cod Liver Oil?

There are others; why SCOTT'S?

The good one is SCOTT'S. It's nearly 30 years old; it is used by intelligent people all over the world; and approved by physicians all over the world.

When anyone says "Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil," he means SCOTT'S. No other is famous.

SCOTT'S EMULSION is made in a certain way; of certain things; it keeps; it is always alike; it does what it does.

The others—nobody knows what they are or do. There wouldn't be any others but for the goodness of SCOTT'S—there wouldn't be any counterfeit money but for the true.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

the woods, looking hale and hearty. They talk of the good times they had in the bush. The logging camps are breaking up early and every day groups of lumbermen pass here on their way home.

Our school is in charge of Miss Bertie Faulkner of Windsor. The attendance of pupils is large.

Mrs. Elijah Brooks has been dangerously ill, but are glad to learn she is slowly recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Teadford of Windsor spent Saturday with their daughter Mrs. Bridges. Mr. Adington Teadford is spending a few days with Mr. Bridges.

Mr. John Pelkey passed through here Saturday on his way home from R. Stickney's camp. He says Mr. Stickney intends breaking up camp Tuesday.

On January 28th Rev. T. Dewett pastor of this church organized the Christian Endeavor here.

BRISTOL.

Mrs. M. A. Tompkins spent last week in Hartland.

Miss Dora Davis has gone to Perth to spend a few weeks.

Inspector Meagher visited the village schools one day last week, and found them in a satisfactory condition.

M. A. Tompkins had the misfortune to fall a few days ago, fracturing one of his ribs. Dr. Somerville has been in attendance.

Miss Jennie Somerville is spending a few weeks in Westmorland County.

The lumber season has about closed and many men are coming out of the woods. Jos. Curtis brought his crew out last week, and several other crews are expected out this week.

The snow plow has been at work upon the river and a very good track has been cleared off. On Saturday there were some interesting trots, several fast horses taking part.

On Saturday evening Court Sterling held its regular meeting, and the Court Deputy, Joseph W. Curtis installed the officers for the present year. They are, A. J. McLean, C. R.; E. W. Bell, V. C. R.; F. A. Phillips, P. C. R.; J. Farley, R. S.; H. M. Tompkins, F. S.; G. H. Tompkins, Treas.; W. J. Jones, Orator; Ansley Lockhart, S. W.; F. Kearney, J. W.; P. Tapley, S. B.; G. W. Somerville, M. D., Physician.

EVERETT.

Our storm of yesterday has not been of much account.

Mrs. Walter Atherton, of Woodstock, has been here during the past week visiting her old home, and other relatives and acquaintances.

Mrs. Jas. Watters has returned from Rocky Brook, where she was visiting.

Robert Greer, of New Maryland has been ill at the Everett House with pleurisy. He is rapidly improving. His brother Jas. is here attending him.

Pedler Giberson, our genial friend, spent last evening in this place.

ANDOVER.

On Saturday afternoon Rev. S. B. Hillock held a memorial service in honor of the Queen, in the Episcopal church. In the evening a similar service was held in the Presbyterian church. The speakers were Revd's. McPherson and Gregg.

Mrs. G. W. Murphy, Mrs. Sloat, Mrs. Bertha Waite, and Mrs. Prescott, have all had a severe attack of la grippe, but are now improving under the skilful treatment of Dr. Wiley.

Rev. R. W. Demmings and Rev. Charles Sterling exchanged circuits on last Sabbath. Miss Bessie Sloat is visiting Mrs. Sutton. Adam Beveridge visited Fredericton last week.

KIRKLAND.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dickinson made a short visit to their relatives in Maxwell Settlement recently.

There was a very pleasant party at the residence of Charles Carter on the 29 Jan. It was made in honour of his daughter Miss I. B. Carter and was largely attended. Miss Carter left on the 30th for Mount Pleasant where she is engaged to teach school.

A young son made his appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Nicholson, February 1st.

Messrs. George Saunders and John Bagley from Woodstock were through here the other day.

Elva Bustard from Monument Settlement, attends school in this place.

Louis Mushroo has been busy thrashing and sawing wood at Canterbury.

The Banquet.

MR. EDITOR,—At the public dinner and reception given to the S. A. Soldiers, in the Opera House, we thought, some of the speakers acquitted themselves to the satisfaction of the audience, while others were too tedious and apparently did not know when to take their seats. We were pleased to see such a large gathering of ladies and it would have looked more sociable to see them take their places at the table. We were pleased to see such a large number in the gallery, and thought those in charge of the ceremonies did not do their duty when they allowed the gentleman in burning their cigars to raise such a smoke that the ladies were compelled to retire before the proceeding terminated and no doubt they did not consider such usage very complimentary.

CITIZEN.

Generally a taste for different brands of tea has to be acquired, but with the first cup UNION BLEND wins approval. Four grades 25, 30, 35 and 40 cents a pound. $400 for consumers in December.

God helps them that helps themselves. Dost thou love life, then do not squander time, for that is the stuff life is made of.

We Cater to Fastidious Dressers.

The enthusiasm of youth causes a young man to bring the same intense interest to the subject of clothes as to everything else. He becomes excessively particular what to wear. How to wear it. Latest collar and make up. All must meet his idea.

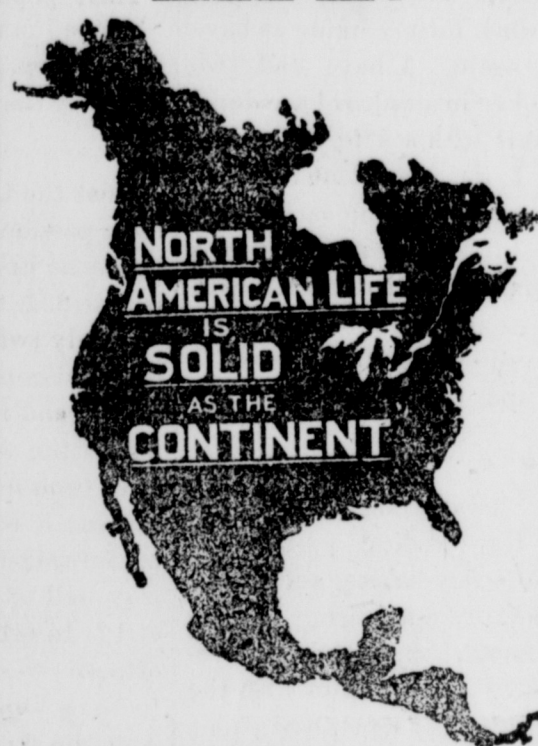

For such good dressers ordinary ready-made won't do. That is where Fit-Reform comes in with the best tailor-made garments ready-to-wear.

Your money is not ours until you're satisfied. Overcoats, $10, $12, $15. Trousers, $3, $4, $5.
