PILLS

Mrs. I. STEEVES, Edgett's Landing, N. B., writes on Jan. 18, 1901: "In the fall of 1899 I was troubled with a severe pain in the back. I could scarcely get up out of a chair and it gave me great pain to move about. I took one box of Doan's Kidney Pills and was completely cured. I have not been troubled with it since."

THREE APRIL MOODS.
 (Boston Transcript.)

The jonquil fires have hidden the skie's deep blue
 At mandate of the sun, and downward rolled
 From off the glittering hills, the liquid gold
 Falls on the thick, soft grasses, drenched with dew;
 The warm winds, blowing from the South, steal through
 The ruddy maple boughs and half unfold
 Their scarlet pennants, and with color bold
 Tall tulip-torches flame and flare anew;
 Up from the emerald valleys comes the bleat
 Of glad young lambs that in the pastures play,
 And far and near the shrill voiced cocks repeat
 Their strenuous, noisy welcomes to the day,
 And, high o'er all by April, bugled sweet
 Spring's jubilates break from spring away.

The minstrel winds are hither wandering,
 The eager minstrel winds that as they stray
 Upon a thousand lutes of April play,
 And from the hearts of all things growing bring
 Immeasurable music of the spring.
 O, soul divine, exultant go thy way
 And with the daffodils keep holiday,
 For the whole world is new, when blue birds sing.
 Pale tipped the hemlocks in the sunshine glow,
 And silver shoots hide fair the willow's glow,
 And butterflies have 'scaped their shrouds, and lo,
 The stones are rolled from the flower Sepulchres;
 O, soul, watch bloom from groves arisen, and know
 Thou, too, shalt one day break thy prison bars.

Across the hills I heard the spring's voice call,
 And straightway, light-anointed, I became
 Lifted to the most high, far, clad in flame,
 The dazzling sun o'er rode the horizon wall
 And let a measure of his glory fall,
 Till earth a resemblance to the heavens could claim;
 And so baptized and shaven from the past shame
 Of my despairs, I shook my soul, like Saul,
 O, April, grief and I have since grown old;
 Nor canst thou, calling now o'er all the land,
 Waken such perfect love; nor can the gold
 With which the morning skies is flooding spanned
 O'er take that shore, mine eyes would fain behold,
 Whereon the feet of my beloved stand.

A PLAIN QUESTION: Do you really get the only Painkiller—Perry Davis—when you ask for it? Better be sure than sorry. It has not, in 60 years, failed to stop looseness and pain in the bowels.

Love and Poker.
 "You are my queen, and I your king," he cried,
 And in his arms she lay, with rosy blush;
 And as he drew her closer to his side
 He gazed upon those same red cheeks and sighed:
 "Ye gods! at last I hold a royal flush!"

Strike the Iron
While it's Hot
is good advice.

Take
Burdock Blood Bitters
This Spring
is better advice.

During the winter, heavy rich foods are necessary to keep the body warm. When the spring comes, the system is clogged up with heavy sluggish blood; you feel tired, weary and listless and that all-gone, no-ambition feeling takes possession of you. If you take Burdock Blood Bitters it will regulate your system, put you into condition and make you feel bright, happy and vigorous.

The Editor's Own Poetry.
 Editor (to old schoolmate): "It hurts me, old fellow, to wound your feelings, but really we are so overstocked with poetry that it's useless to read yours. We can only accept what shows unmistakable genius."
 Old Schoolmate: "Well, just read that poem and tell me what you think of it."
 Editor (having read the poem): "It is as I feared; the poem shows no promise whatever. Pardon me, but it is simply absurd."
 Old Schoolmate (with a broad grin): "That's just what I thought. It's a copy of some verses you wrote in my autograph album while we were at school together."

Pain in the Joints
 may be muscular or rheumatic. The joints are hard to get at, and it requires a powerful, penetrating remedy to reach the affected parts. Polson's Nerviline exactly meets the requirements, for it is both powerful and penetrating. The pain is expelled as if by magic, for one drop of Nerviline equals in strength five drops of other remedies. You won't often call the doctor if Nerviline is in the house. Price 25 cents.

Mr. Justice Grantham is telling a good story at his own expense. He was travelling in a non-smoking carriage when there entered a stalwart looking man who promptly lit a rather big cigar.
 "This is not a smoking carriage," said Mr. Justice Grantham.
 "All right, old chap," answered the man, "I will just finish this cigar."
 His lordship handed the man his card and said he should report him at the next station. The smoker put the card in his pocket and went on with his weed. At the next station he changed into another carriage. Mr. Justice Grantham shouted for the guard and demanded that the man's name and address should be taken. The guard went to the carriage and after a moment's conversation returned to his lordship.
 "Do you know," he said, in a confidential whisper, "if I were you I would not prosecute that gent; he has just given me his card—here it is—he is Mr. Justice Grantham."

VICTORY AFTER VICTORY
 At all Dairy Fairs and Expositions held in Canada, buttermakers who use WELLS, RICHARDSON & CO'S "IMPROVED BUTTER COLOR" carry off nine-tenths of all the prizes awarded. This proves that it is the best and safest color to use at all seasons. WELLS, RICHARDSON & CO'S "IMPROVED BUTTER COLOR" being the strongest color made, it is the cheapest to use. All honest merchants recommend it.

His Parting Benediction.
 A country minister in a certain locality took permanent leave of his congregation in the following pathetic manner:—
 "Brothers and sisters, I come to say good-bye. I don't think God loves this church, because none of you ever die. I don't think you love one another, because I never marry any of you. I don't think you love me, because you have never paid my salary; your donations are mouldy fruit and wormy apples; and by their fruits ye shall know them. Brothers, I am going away to a better place. I have been called to be chaplain of a penitentiary, and may the Lord have mercy on your souls. Good-bye."

Why CATARRHOZONE CURES CATARRH. It goes to every affective part and kills the germs that keep up the diseased condition. Catarrhazone never irritates, but stimulates the mucous lining of the nose, throat and lungs to normal action, and keeps the nasal passages free from offensive discharges. Catarrhazone contains no dangerous drugs or opiates, and is delightfully pleasant and simple to use. Catarrhazone is an absolutely certain cure for any form of Catarrh and sells for dollar at druggists, small size 25c. By mail from Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

The Modern Version.
 "Where are you going, my pretty maid?"
 "I'm going ping ponging, sir," she said.
 "May I go with you, my pretty maid?"
 "Yes, if you like, kind sir," she said. She led him away to the ping pong net; and then came an hour he'll never forget; for his shoulders ache from the many stoops to pick up the balls, and his eyelid droops, where she smote him twice with her racket small, which left her hand as she struck the ball; and he'll never ping where she pongs again, for she heard him swear when she pinged him then.

Where the Paint-Brush Never Rests.—In order to preserve the steel of the gigantic Forth Bridge in Scotland from the effects of the weather, it is repainted every third year, and the structure is so large that it takes three years for the workmen employed, about 35 in number, to cover the entire bridge, so that, being compelled as soon as they have reached one end to begin again at the opposite end, they are continually at work. The bridge contains 50,000 tons of metal, and is 8,295 feet in length.

Benham—I'm going to smoke as long as I live. Mrs. Benham—Oh, longer than that, dear.

Don't Wake the Baby.
 Did you know you could give medicine to your children while they were soundly sleeping? You certainly can. It is called Vapo-Cresolene. You put some Cresolene in the vaporizer, light the lamp, and place near the bed. The children quietly breathe-in the vapor. There is nothing equal to it for whooping cough, croup, colds, cough, sore throat, and all other troubles of the throat and chest. It is economical, pleasant, safe.
 Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including the Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a life-time, and a bottle of Cresolene, complete, $1.50. Extra supplies of Cresolene 25 cents and 50 cents. Illustrated booklet containing physicians' testimonials free upon request. VAPOR-CRESOLENE CO., 180 Fulton St., New York, U.S.A.

For a Novel of Hall Calne's
 (After Kipling.)
 He sits in a sea-green grotto with a bucket of lurid paint,
 And draws the Thing as it isn't for the God of Things as they ain't!

Your Decision This Day Is All-Important.

Paine's Celery Compound
 Guarantees a Freedom From Disease and Sickness.

Indifference and Carelessness Lead to Physical Shipwreck and the Grave.

The weak, ailing, sick and diseased have now more than ever before under their control their physical condition. They are free agents, and almost wholly responsible for their future. When the brain is not affected, and the mind can discern between right and wrong, a duty to themselves, their friends and country loudly demands, a marked decision—prompt and determined action when health is impaired and life is in danger. It is the part of wisdom that true decision be made to-day; to-morrow may be too late. In thousands of cases the checking and banishment of disease depends upon instant action; an hour lost frequently means the snuffing out of some precious life.

Few people in our country are without some knowledge of the wonderful life-giving virtues of Paine's Celery Compound, a medicine that guarantees release from the diseases common to life.
 What will your decision be to-day, poor sufferer? Will you give Paine's Celery Compound the fair and honest testing that others are giving it, with its certain reward of health, strength, vigor and happiness, or will you remain indifferent and careless, content to pass your few days or weeks in misery, agony and wretchedness until the dark grave claims you as its victim.
 It is almost needless to enumerate the blessed results that flow from Paine's Celery Compound when used promptly in spring-time, as you and your friends have a knowledge of them. Of this you may be assured; the seeds of disease are banished, the system is fortified, the blood is made red and pure, the nerves braced, digestion regulated, headaches sideaches and backaches forever dispelled, and a sweet, restful sleep takes the place of insomnia.

A Keen Sense of Smell.
 One of the sorrows of childhood is the slowness of some older people to take a hint. It is often quite a strain on good manners to be obliged to reinforce a suggestion that should have been adequate in itself.
 A little girl, calling at a neighbor's house, sat near a plate containing some apples. At last, unable to keep silence any longer, she said, "I smell apples."
 "Yes," returned her hostess, "it's those parings."
 "No'm," said the little girl, solemnly. "I smell whole apples."

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:
 Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1901.
 I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
 I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours,
