BURNT LAND BROOK.

Business seems to be quite brisk if one can judge from the number of peddlers that continually wend their way up and down from Perth to Nictau.

Mrs. James Bigger, of Ox Bow, spent a day recently with friends in this place.
Rev. Mr. Sterling, of Plaster Rock, held service in the school house here last Sunday, and left an appointment for the fourth Sunday in February.

Mrs. James Jenkins, our worthy councillor, has returned from Andover, where he has been attending the Victoria Co. Council.
Misses Mary McLaughlin and Susie Watson were the guests of Mrs. D. Jenkins last Sunday.

Mrs. Elbridge Everett has returned after a week's visit among friends at Riley Brook and other places.

Several loads of men passed through here enroute home from the lumber woods this week and last.

KIRKLAND.

Joseph Crawford who has been ill for a number of years with asthma and heart trouble, died very suddenly on the 23rd, of January. He had not been any worse than usual. His wife lay down for a rest, when she awoke to find him gone from the trials of life. He leaves beside a wife, one daughter, an adopted son, a mother, four brothers, three sisters and a number of other relatives.

KICK A DOG

Kick a dog and he bites you.
He lites you and you kick him.
The more you kick the more he bites and the more he bites the more you kick. Each makes the other worse.

A thin body makes thin blood. Thin blood makes a thin body. Each makes the other worse. If there is going to be a change the help must come from outside.

Scott's Emulsion is the right help. It breaks up such a combination. First it sets the stomach right. Then it enriches the blood. That strengthens the body and it begins to grow new flesh.

A strong body makes rich blood and rich blood makes a strong body. Each makes the other better. This is the way Scott's Emulsion puts the thin body on its feet. Now it can get along by itself. No need of medicine.

the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the to mourn their loss. Over thirty teams followed the remains to the cemetery. The Rev.

William Fowler addressed the congregation and mourners.

A young daughter arrived at the home of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler on the 27th, of January.

At a recent meeting of the L. T. B. Lodge the following officers were elected for the present year. Mrs. William Nicholson W. M., Mrs. David Dykeman D. M., Mrs. Charles Bell Treas., Daniel Gidney D. of C., Mary Jackson Con., George Crawford Chap., David Dykeman F. S., Leslie Kennedy R. S., Vina Kennedy I. S., William Nicholson
O. S.

Mrs. H. Gidney is home from Waterville.
Mrs. Mary Kennedy and son from Richmond Corner were visiting relatives in this place recently.

Ella McIntyre, who was burned so badly this summer died on January 23rd. She would have been eleven years old in April.
The funeral was held on the 25th. About fifteen teams followed in procession to the cemetery. She leaves a father, mother, three little sisters, and one brother to mourn her departure from their midst.

John McIntyre was recently married to Miss Adelia Mastine who came from Limestone Maine.

Daniel Gidney is kept busy pressing hay.

Perley Dykeman made his parents a visit recently.

GRAND FALLS.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Sewing Circle intend to hold a fancy sale and supper at an early date. The ladies composing the circle have held weekly meetings during the past six months and have made a large number of ornamental and useful articles which they purpose to dispose of at the bazaar.

Mrs. L. W. Wilson had a quilting party at her residence on Thursday, and her guests passed an enjoyable and busy day. The following ladies attended:—Mrs. Fred Dixon, Mrs. Frank Goodreau, Mrs. Fred Wilson, Mrs. M. Hayward, Mrs. J. J. Gallagher, Mrs. George Taylor, Miss Alice Stroupe and Mrs. S. Smith. A sumptuous repast was served during the evening.

A case which aroused considerable interest and caused a large attendance of spectators was tried before Police Magistrate Kelly on Thursday last. Augustus Violette, a hunter, had set a number of traps, and George Price, a game warden, opining that a certain steel trap had been set for beaver in contravention of the game law, demolished said trap. Violette sued Price in tort for twelve dollars, the alleged value of the destroyed trap, and the Police Magistrate delivered judgment in favor of the plaintiff carrying costs. J. J.
Gallagher was attorney for plaintiff and Thomas Lawson for the defendant. The defendant objected to the jurisdiction of the Police Magistrate, and the case will be appealed.

A Mr. Dow from Meductic intends to open a tailor shop here in a few weeks, and will attend to all the sartorial requirements of the citizens.

There is still a mild agitation in favor of the introduction of a system of water works and electric lights. It is rumored that a joint stock company will be formed for the purpose, provided the town grants all the necessary franchises. If a plebiscite were taken by the town, there would be an overwhelming majority in favor of the town controlling the system.

Matthew Burgess, who has been confined to his residence for several weeks with a severe attack of muscular rheumatism, has now fully recovered, and is again performing his duties as manager of his father's extensive mercantile and lumber business.

The guides and ninruds in this vicinity condemn in emphatic terms the proposed amendment to the game act increasing the license fee for local sportsmen from two dollars to ten, but favor making the open season commence on Sept. 1st. The best hunting ground for large game in the province is within a few hours drive from Grand Falls.

There will be a masquerade ball at the new Hotel Minto just before the Lenten season, opens, and another grand ball and supper will be held at Curless' hotel on Easter Monday. The ladies are already designing their costumes for the latter event.

MEDUCTIC.

Miss McKay, of Hawkshaw, has been spending a few days at this place.

Norman Dow is home on a visit.

Miss Boyd is visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Heran.

Harry Dow, who has been home for a few weeks, leaves soon for Grand Falls, where he will start business.

Rev. G. B. Trafton passed through this place last week on his way to Marysville.

The monthly public missionary meeting of the Reformed Baptist church which was held on the evening of January 30th, was well attended.

CANTERBURY STATION.

There is much sickness in the village.
Lorne Grant and Miss Josie Lawson are among the number.

Mrs. E. Landon and Miss Bessie returned from Woodstock Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Landon entertained a number of friends Saturday evening, the occasion being Mr. Landon's birthday.

J. Leslie Drysdale has been granted three months leave of absence owing to ill health.
He left on Saturday for the Pacific coast.
Charles Tinker, Bristol, is relieving him.

Miss Sarah Tinker spent a few days last week with her brother.

A party of young folks drove to Skiff Lake Thursday for an afternoon's skating.

EAST FLORENCEVILLE.

W. B. Taylor has the contract to carry the mail from the train to Florenceville.

It was a common sight to see the boys skating to school on the road last week, and now and then there would be a bicycle on the move.

There was a big crowd at the dance last Thursday night. After this there will be a dance every Thursday night for a while.
Music furnished by the East Florenceville Orchestra.

H. B. Taylor was in Fredericton last week attending the Farmers and Dairymen's Association.

Last Saturday Feb. 1st Truman Lovely and Roland Semple rode to Hartland on their bicycles which was quite a trip on bikes in winter.

The big storm Sunday almost blockaded the town. Besides lifting the roofs off several barns near, it blew off chimneys and even blew the porch away from a house here so that no trace has been heard of it since.

BRISTOL.

Miss Alice Merritt has returned from a visit to Presque Isle.

Mr. T. P. Richardson the C. P. R. agent has moved his family to Bristol, and now occupies rooms over Mrs. DeLong's store.

A. J. McLean received a dispatch on Friday announcing the death of his father, which occurred at his home in Cape Breton.

Miss Hunter, of Queen's County, is visiting her sister Mrs. Somerville.

Mrs. A. F. Lockhart of Hartford was in Bristol on Saturday.

Enoch Grey, of Pembroke, is visiting his sister Mrs. D. S. Jones.

John L. Fawcett, barrister of Hartland has decided to visit Bristol once a week, and in future will be found on Wednesday's at Colwell's hotel.

On Sunday night, a violent storm passed over this section, about six inches of snow fell, but this was piled in heaps by the heavy wind which accompanied the storm. Several barns in the vicinity were unroofed, and some were blown down, and other damage was done.

ANDOVER.

The river closed here a week ago, and work has begun again in earnest on the Andover Perth bridge.

The steel superstructure for the bridge at the head of the narrows, has arrived in Perth and is being hauled up under the superintendence of Engineer Carpenter.

Rev'ds. R. W. Demmings and A. H. Hayward exchanged pulpits last Sunday.

The house of Fred Browning, Arrostook Junction was destroyed by fire on Thursday of last week. Shortly after the fire was discovered, the school children and neighbors arrived on the scene, and the contents were about all saved. The family has moved into a vacant house near by.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. F. D. Sadler gave a party for her young friends. Maude and Ida Williams and Miss Cole assisted Mrs.
Sadler in entertaining the young people, and a very jolly evening was spent. On the same evening Miss Jennie Currie gave a birthday party at which a number of her friends were pleasantly entertained.

Miss Viola McCain, of Florenceville, is visiting Mrs. Robt. Ervin.

The ground hog and all his furry relations came out in full force Candlemas day, if there is any truth in the old saying that he stays in bed if the sun shines. Sunday night this community entertained a young blizzard, presumably from the west. Let us hope that his uncles, and his cousins and his aunts will stay at home.

A decided shock of earth quake was felt here on Monday morning about 8 o'clock.

RESTLESS LITTLE ONES.

Peevishness and Sleeplessness a Sure Sign That Baby is Unwell.

When babies are restless, cross, or peevish it is the surest possible sign of illness. Well babies sleep soundly and are cheerful and playful when awake. When baby is cross too many mothers give so-called "soothing" medicines, which contain opiates that deaden but do not remove the trouble. What is wanted is a medicine that will go right to the root of the trouble and make baby sleep well, eat well and be cheerful in a natural way.
Such a medicine is Baby's Own Tablets, which are sold under an absolute guarantee that they contain neither opiates nor other harm-drugs. All mothers who have used them for their little ones speak of them in terms of warmest praise. Mrs. Albert Young, Stratford, says: "My baby, who is now five months old, has always been very cross and peevish. She was very constipated and sleepless. She was a thin, delicate looking child and cried nearly all the time. I did not know what to do with her. I tried several medicines but they did her no good. A friend who had used Baby's Own Tablets advised me to try them. I did so, and since using them baby has been quite well, her bowels are regular, and she has grown plump and good natured. I am delighted with the Tablets and keep them on hand all the time, and whenever baby gets cross and feverish I give her a Tablet and she is all right."

These Tablets are the best medicine in the world for simple fevers, colic, diarrhoea, all stomach troubles, constipation and other minor ailments of little ones. They are for children of all ages, and dissolved in water, or crushed to a powder may be given with absolute safety to the youngest infant.
Mothers who once try them will never afterwards use any other medicine for their little ones. Sold by all dealers in medicine or sent post paid at 25 cents a box by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"Sit down," said the fierce man, and the trembling youth obeyed. "Well, what is it?" The unhappy young man cleared his throat.
"I have come; that is, I have come," he began in stammering accents, "to ask you for the hand of your daughter Ruth." The old man leaned back in his chair and intently regarded his visitor. "Does my daughter want you?" he asked. "Yes, sir; I am sure she does," the youth replied, with some eagerness. "She sent me to you." The old man sighed. "The whims of that child are really unaccountable," he muttered. "It
