Mr. F. W. Meyers, King St. E., Bertha, Ont., says: "I suffered for five years with palpitation, shortness of breath, sleeplessness and pain in the heart, but one box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills completely removed all these distressing symptoms. I have not suffered since taking them, and now sleep well and feel strong and vigorous."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure all diseases arising from weak heart, worn out nerve tissues, or watery blood.

Modern Fables. - By George Ade.
THE FRUGAL SON, AND HOW HE CORNERED THE BOOK AT THE WRONG PLACE.

A boy who had been fed on Home Influence for 20 Years finally had to get out and finance his own Meal Ticket. Therefore he decided to tear for the Tall Building where all the large Fortunes are made.

When it came time for him to take the Train, his Father handed him a little Book of Hunches.

"In this Book you will find the most valuable Tips that have been doped out by the 31-Candle Power Intellectuals," said his Governor. "If you read this Book you can't go wrong. In fact I think you will Bat better than 300 right from the start."

So the Young Fellow packed the Book in his Telescope with the Military Business and the Sachet Bag and made his first long Jump.

Having arrived in the City he began to answer the "Help Wanted" Ads. He found some very Fancy Openings for a Man with a little Captain which he was willing to let somebody else Hold for him. But the Business World was not exactly clamoring for a Guitar-Player who had nothing to show except some Scarf Pins and Military Brushes, not forgetting the Sachet Bag.

After he had drilled up and down the principal Streets without having a Lucrative Position forced on him, he consulted the book and was told to "Take up the Work nearest at Hand," so he got a Job shoveling Snow, with the Result that he froze his Ears and was landed by Pneumonia.

After he got out of the Hospital he consulted the Book and learned that "All Things come to him who waits." So he sat around Hotel Offices, reading the Advertising Blotter and waiting for a Benefactor to discover him. Nobody except the House Policeman seemed to pay any Attention to him. Finally he took another Peek at the Book of Wisdom and read as follows:

"See a Pin and pick it up
All that Day you'll have Good Luck"

He went out looking for a Pin and finally located one at a crossing. He stooped over to pick it up, when a Trolley came around Dead Man's Curve and caught him amidsthips. They separated him from the Fender and he got his Name in the Paper, showing that

Strike the Iron
While it's Hot is good advice.

Take
Burdock Blood Bitters
This Spring
is better advice.

During the winter, heavy rich foods are necessary to keep the body warm. When the spring comes, the system is clogged up with heavy sluggish blood; you feel tired, weary and listless and that all-gone, no-ambition feeling takes possession of you. If you take Burdock Blood Bitters it will regulate your system, put you into condition and make you feel bright, happy and vigorous.

even an obscure Youth from the Country may now and then attract Attention in the bustling Metropolis.

The Company compromised with him for $200, and now he had begun to earn a little Money he felt a renewed confidence in the Guide-Book.

He opened it and read: "Boldness in Business is the first, second and third Thing." So he walked into the Office of a great Corporation and asked: "Do you need a good Vice-President?" "Don't wait for the Elevator," was the Reply. "Fall down the Shaft."

"Hold on!" said the Youth. "Perhaps I selected the wrong Hunch."

He took another look at his trusty Volume and read: "Be Modest." Also, "Humble Beginnings make great Endings."

"Come to think of it," he said, "I should be Ticked to get anything to do."

They put him to licking Labels and answering the Phone at 6 Pesos per Week.

The Book told him to plant something every Pay Day, no matter how thin his Envelope might be, so he lived on Eclair and Tea and wore Celluloid Collars. He grew Paler day by day, and had about as much Gimp as a City Employee.

The Book told him that "A Penny saved is a Penny Earned," so he was a Tight Wad and very unpopular around the Shop.

Acting on the Advice found in the Book, he rode on the High Seat of the Sprinkling Cart, but one day he read that, "All Work and no Play Makes Jack a Dull Boy"; likewise, "Eat, Drink and be Merry, for tomorrow we Die." Next day he dropped his Whip. He alighted to pick it up, and when he turned around the Water Wagon was a Mile away. He did not catch up with it for a Week.

When he was offered a better Job with another House, his little Manual told him that a Rolling Stone gathered no Moss and that Contentment was a Jewel. So he stuck to the Starvation Pay, for he read it right in the Book that True Merit always comes in for a Reward. He knew that as soon as he was worth more Money, the Company would come around and put it in his Pocket.

Once he got to Fussing Around with a Young Lady who looked Fine to him, and he decided to Tag her, if possible. His old Stand-By warned him against Procrastination, and told him that Faint Heart never grabbed off Fair Lady, so he tackled her on a Corner after he had known her for two Weeks, and made a Flat Proposition, with the Result that he got the Harpoon in three different Places.

After four Years he had saved up a small Roll of the Needful. A True Friend gave him a Tip on the Stock Market. It was one of those Tips that come in a roundabout Way from J. Pierpont Morgan. It was a wireless Special. The True Friend took him up an Alley and whispered it to him for fear that a Newsboy might hear them and get his Money down first. Our Hero was Leery, but the Book said: "Nothing venture, Nothing Gain," so he margined 100 Shares of Amalgamated Bronze and told them to close it out as soon as it touched 180.

In a few Days he received a Business Letter reading as follows: "You Lose."

Once more his Visible Assets consisted of the Military Brushes and the Sachet Bag.

He headed for Home, and as he walked in, he said: "Folks, I've Come Back to Eat."

Have you got it in Large Bills, or do you carry a New York draft?" asked his Father.

"That was a bummy Chart you gave me," replied the boy. "It had me steering in all Directions. I wish you'd take back your Proverbs, and give me a Receipt for cooking up a few Practical Schemes."

MORAL: No matter what the Play, there is an old-time Proverb to back it up.

Long Life Is Inherited

This statement you can prove by investigation. When a person whose ancestors had long lives dies in middle age you can in nine cases out of ten trace the cause to disorder kidneys and consequent suffering from Bright's disease, rheumatism, fatty heart or dropsy. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills prevent and cure these fatal and painful diseases as no other preparation was ever known to do. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box.

Photographers as Sportsmen.
From The London Globe.

In a recent book a hunter tells how he spent many weary months in the attempt to shoot an eagle, and at last ambushed so successfully that he actually touched the bird with his fingers. Having got so far he was content, and let the eagle go free. It may be a hunter's tale; but there are at present a very considerable number of sportsmen who are a great deal keener to see their game at close quarters than to kill it. Instead of the old phrase, Let us go and kill something," the hunter now says, "Let us go and focus something." The camera has supplanted the gun. There are now made all manner of devices, more ingenious and intricate even than the older trappers devised, for getting the camera to bear on unsuspecting animals. A boat resembling a little the duck-shooting boats used on the Irish coast, has been devised, which is propelled without oars or sails, and has a beautiful photographic apparatus rigged up in the bows. There are other not less clever means for approaching and photographing deer in their native haunts, and they have been used with al-

Asthma.

You've tried almost everything for it, haven't you? And we presume you are about discouraged. Now what do you think of our idea of breathing-in the medicine, bringing it right up to the diseased part? It looks reasonable, doesn't it? And it's successful, too.

When you inhale Vapo-Cresolene your breathing becomes easy, the wheezing ceases, and you drop to sleep. For croup and whooping-cough it's a quick cure.

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. The Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a lifetime, and a bottle of Cresolene complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresolene 25 cents and 50 cents. Illustrated booklet containing physicians' testimonials free upon request. VAPOR-CRESOLENE CO., 120 FULTON ST., NEW YORK, U.S.A.

together remarkable success. Humanitarians are already pointing out that this sport with the camera gives all the excitement of the chase without any of the cruelty; and at least this much may be conceded, that the difficulties of photographing, say, a weasel, are considerably greater and therefore more attractive than those of shooting it.

A BOY'S LIFE SAVED!

A Grateful Mother Writes About the Rescue of Her Child.

PAIN'S CELERY COMPOUND

Triumphed After A Physician's Failure.

Mrs. G. Stone, of Eganville, Ont., grateful for the rescue of her little boy from death, writes as follows:

"I think it my duty to inform you of what Paine's Celery Compound has done for my little boy. He became very ill, and had the attendance of our physician, but no good results were apparent. The dangerous turns to which my boy was subject became more frequent, and always worse in winter. He would become pale as death, feet and hands icy cold, and vomiting always followed. He seemed to be powerless, and for days could not lift his head from the pillow. After trying various kinds of medicine we decided to get Paine's Celery Compound for him. One bottle made him well, and since that time he is permanently cured."

In face of such testimony, who can deny the fact that Paine's Celery Compound saves life? Hundreds of such letters as Mrs. Stone's are on file for the inspection of doubters.

When your children are nervous, fretful, despondent, sleepless, weak, rundown, have loss of appetite, slow circulation of blood and decreasing in weight, give them Paine's Celery Compound for a week or two, and note well the cheering results in returning health and vigor. We strongly urge the immediate use of the great medicine for all sickly and weak boys and girls.

Joe's Revelation.

Not long ago a nice young man was invited to dine at the home of an east-end young woman and accepted the invitation with pleasure. It was just a family dinner, and everything was passing off well when an unpleasant and quite unforeseen incident occurred.

They were all discussing the pie when the young woman's little brother, who had been regarding her closely, suddenly spoke up.

"Gee," he said, "look at Marie tryin' to put on style just 'cause Joe is here. She's eatin' her pie with a fork."

It is needless to add that the cherubic child experienced a very unpleasant quarter of an hour after Joe had gone.

Mathematical Facility.

In one of the public schools recently, according to a writer in The Gentleman's Magazine, a number of the small pupils were busily engaged in working problems in multiplication, with more or less satisfactory results.

After some time the teacher noticed one little fellow who seemed most unhappy. His cheeks were flushed, his hair tumbled, and tears were very near the surface. The teacher said, in a kindly tone:

"Well, John, what is the matter?"

"Oh dear, I wish I was a rabbit!" replied the boy.

"A rabbit!" exclaimed the teacher, in astonishment. "Why on earth would you like to be a rabbit?"

"Well, my papa says they multiply so fast!"

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1901. Gentlemen: - Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 735 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost. INTERNATIONAL AURAL CLINIC, 596 LA SALLE AVE., CHICAGO, ILL.
