Carleton County Man Ill in South Africa.
Ottawa, April 23rd.—Honorable Joseph Chamberlain's cable to Lord Minto announces that Trooper Henry Talmage Jones, C. division S. A. C., was dangerously ill at Standerton on April 20th. His next of kin is Mrs. Ray, Lakeville, Carleton county, N. B.

When a girl pins a flower on a man's coat she always tilts her chin up and looks at it sideways—and the man who doesn't take a tumble is too slow to lead a funeral procession.

Settled at Last.

A student at Chicago University, thirsting for knowledge, asked one of the professors a question bearing on the problem of the freedom of the will. The answer was "Theomously conditioned autonomy is not heteronomy, for God and man are homogenous." It is good to have a long vexed question settled in this lucid manner and we have no doubt that all our readers will be delighted with this final solution.

MAJOR W. C. GOOD

Entertained By His Friends on Wednesday Evening Last in Troy's Restaurant.

On Wednesday evening last a number of the friends of Major W. C. Good entertained him at Troy's Restaurant, on the eve of his departure for Halifax to join the fourth contingent, in which he holds the rank of captain. There were present His Worship Mayor Belyea, who presided, J. C. Hartley who occupied the vice chair, Major Good, Col. F. H. J. Dibblee, Col. Vince, Capt. Carvell, ex-Mayor Hay, ex-Mayor J. T. Allan Dibblee, Dr. Rankin, Geo. E. Balmain, A. W. Young, J. P. Malaney, N. Foster Thorne, J. Mauns Aitken, E. W. Mair, A. H. M. Hay, Fred B. Smith, Charles Appleby, Ollie Townsend, Clifford Dalling, Clyde Watson, G. R. Good, Ellis W. Smith, Williamson Fisher, Herb. Jones, Thomas McCafferty, James Gallagher, J. S. Leighton, jr., I. E. Sheasgreen, T. V. Monahan, J. J. Tattersall, J. H. Wilbur, Honorary Col. Harry Dysart, James Gibson, A. D. Holyoke, William Bolger, Alderman Ross, of Fredericton, Joseph Fewer and Dr. Thompson.

After dinner the loyal toasts were drunk and His Worship proposed "Our Guest," which was duly honoured, and the rooms rang with the cheering strains of "He's a Jolly Good Fellow." Major Good responded in fitting terms to the toast. He referred to the presence of (Col) Harry Dysart, who was with him in his last campaign in South Africa and whose excellent gun laying had twice been particularly commended by the commanding officer. Major Good spoke very modestly of his own achievements on the veldt, as became a good soldier. When he took his seat he was heartily cheered.

The toast "The Carleton County Militia," was responded to by Col. F. H. J. Dibblee, Col. Vince and Capt. Carvell.

Mr. Holyoke proposed "The Heroes of Paardeberg," calling on Mr. Aitken of the staff of the Royal Bank of Canada, who was in G. Company of the first contingent through the campaign, who was in the nine days fight at Paardeberg and was in the firing line on the morning of Cronje's surrender. The company sang the sad and solemn hymn, "Hail! Hail! the Heroes all Here," with a gusto. Mr. Aitken made a short and modest address in response. Other toasts were:—

The City of Fredericton, responded to by Alderman Ross, of Fredericton.

Ex-Militiamen, J. C. Hartley, Charles Appleby and Dr. Rankin.

Ex-Mayor Hay proposed the health of (Col.) Dysart of the second contingent. The Col. on arising to respond presented Major Good with a maple leaf with the request that he wear it through the campaign.

The Press, proposed by J. C. Hartley, was responded to by Charles Appleby and A. W. Young.

Our Host, proposed by Councillor G. E. Balmain brought forth a patriotic speech from J. J. Troy, a well known military gentleman, who explained the vast superiority of the Engineers over other branches of the service.

Mr. Hartley, speaking on behalf of those present and other friends of Major Good, announced that it was the intention to present the Major with a token of respect and good will, but the time had been so short that it had been impossible to do so, however the matter would be looked after at once and before sailing from Halifax Major Good would receive an express parcel from his Woodstock friends.

The evening passed very pleasantly. The rooms were looking their best and the host J. J. Troy was in his finest form.

Major Good left for Halifax on Thursday afternoon. A large number of his friends were at the station to wish him a successful campaign.

Sale of Imported Stock.

The stock imported by the Richmond Agricultural Society was sold by auction, on the farm of J. R. Kirkpatrick, Debec, last Wednesday. The sale proved a success. A large number of farmers were present, and all were interested.

Small Pox.

There are a couple of light cases of small pox at the hospital for contagious disease just beyond the town limits and three or four houses in town are quarantined. Dr. Morris, of St. John is in town looking after the cases. The second case to develop was that of Arthur Dickison, son of J. Fred Dickinson. He was taken to the hospital on Monday afternoon.

The Board of Health met on Monday and decided to enforce compulsory vaccination. The town was divided into seven districts and a district assigned to each doctor. The work was to have commenced yesterday afternoon but as there was no vaccine in town it had to be postponed until today.

No. 1 district.—All that part of the town south of Connell's Foundry. Dr. Kierstead.

No. 2 district.—Between Connell's Foundry and Meduxnakeag. Dr. Hand.

No. 3 district.—Between Main Street and the river, and the creek and Free Baptist Church. Dr. Rankin.

No. 4 district.—From Free Baptist Church on east side of Main Street to town line. Dr. Saunders.

No. 5 district.—Between south side of Connell Street and creek on west side of Main Street. Dr. Sprague.

An Old Resident Passes Away.

John Connor, of Upper Woodstock, died at the home of his son, Benjamin, on Thursday morning, April 24th, in his 85th year. Mr. Connor came out from the south of Ireland some 60 years ago, and during the most of the time has been a resident of Upper Woodstock. His wife died in 1887. For some time past he has been afflicted with heart trouble and his recent attack proved too much for his enfeebled constitution. He leaves three children, Mrs. W. Sherwood and Miss Kate, both now in San Francisco, Cal., and Benjamin, of Upper Woodstock. He was a consistent member of the Methodist church for a great many years and beloved by all. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Jas. Crisp and interment took place at Waterville.

THE ONTARIO ELECTIONS.

The General Elections for the Province of Ontario will take place on the 29th of May. The Hon. Geo. W. Ross, Premier, goes to the country on the record of a government that has been in power since 1871, first under the Hon. Edward Blake, then under Sir Oliver Mowatt, later the Hon. A. S. Hardy. Mr. Ross became premier in 1899. The fight is on in all its vigour and the outcome is watched with interest throughout the Dominion.

ON TRIAL FOR MURDER.

The King vs. Frank Fisher is Disposed of at a Very Interesting Mock Trial.

A very interesting mock trial was held by the members of the Woodstock Debating Club in the rooms of the Woodstock Business College last Thursday evening, when Frank Fisher was tried for the murder of the well known John Doe.

William Dibblee acted as judge and the officers of the court were Don Connell, Clerk; J. F. R. Balloch, Sheriff and W. H. Martin, Crier. E. Ken Connell and N. Foster Thorne represented the crown and Donald M. Campbell and Harry Saunders appeared for the defence. On the jury were I. E. Sheasgreen, Will Balmain, R. E. Holyoke, Walter Townsend, Harry W. McLaughlan, Harry Watt, Geo. Clark, Roy Harvey, L. Milmora, Will Dalling, Will Nicholson and C. F. Dalling.

The witnesses for the prosecution were Marcus Tapley, Abdallah Harmon Moses, Ralph Waite and Detective Pinkerton Holyoke. For the defense the witness were Don Nicholson, John Connor jr., Harry Stevens and Harry Dunbar.

The examination and cross examination of the witnesses produced a good deal of mirth. The evidence was entirely circumstantial and was very skillfully brought out by counsel. The jury was out just about long enough to have a smoke and on returning, through Mr. Sheasgreen, foreman, rendered the verdict "guilty" but with a strong recommendation for mercy. Sentence was reserved and the prisoner set at liberty on giving bonds in the penalty of fifteen oyster stews.

Moody Rogers.

After an illness of nearly a year, Mr. Moody Rogers passed away, at his home in Bristol on Thursday evening last. He was a son of the late William Rogers, and had lived nearly his whole life upon the farm where he died. He ever took an active and intelligent interest in public affairs, and was a prominent member of the Primitive Baptist church, a consistent Christian, a valuable member of society, and won the respect of all who knew him by his upright walk and many excellencies of character.

The funeral was held in the Primitive Baptist church on Sunday afternoon, and was very largely attended. Rev. L. A. Lockhart, assisted by Rev. A. H. Hayward conducted the solemn services. The pall bearers were six of his sons, David, Sandford, John, Theodore, Duncan, and Sankey.

The deceased was 73 years of age, and leaves a wife, nine sons, and one daughter. Three of the sons are away in the States. Three brothers and two sisters and a large circle of relatives and friends also mourn their loss.

Fall River News.

BESSIE GILBERT AT THE CASTO. A dozen years ago a dainty, black-eyed miss of twelve astonished and delighted those who attended the New England Lyceum courses by playing a few simple airs upon the cornet. As she grew older she grew handsomer; she studied under the best masters, practiced and improved until she stands today the most accomplished of lady cornetists, a soloist with Sousa's Band, a star attraction on the vaudeville stage, and a popular favorite in musical circles. Bessie Gilbert may rest assured that when she sees herself billed as "the queen of cornetists," that the honors are deservedly hers.

The Little Magnets Musical Burletta Co. will appear at Woodstock May 2nd, headed by the above artists—the queen of cornetists—with the Hurley Sisters, Merrill and Cushing, Sunderland and Foda, Rossi Sisters, Henry and Terry, Nellie Buckley, Howard and Hollis and others.

Seats now on sale at Graham's. Prices 25-35 50.

We also wish to state that each and every lady purchasing a reserved seat will be presented with a large cabinet photo of Miss Gilbert.

Arrested and Taken to Hartland.

E. T. Howell, of Fredericton, a young man who, it is said, has been travelling through the up river counties as a representative of a St. John drug firm which has no existence, was arrested here Wednesday last by Deputy Sheriff Foster, of Hartland, Carleton County. The charge against Howell was that of disposing of a horse and carriage owned by Frank Thornton, the Hartland hotel man. Howell, it is said, spent some days at Thornton's hotel. He hired this team and drove up river, visiting Andover among other places. Howell was here early this week and the deputy sheriff came down in pursuit of him. The deputy went up to Fredericton by rail yesterday morning, and on his arrival there learned that Howell had taken the steamer for St. John. The sheriff was at Indiantown when the steamer docked. Howell was arrested and was taken to Hartland.—St. John Sun. On Thursday he was taken before Mr. Barnett but as there was no evidence on which he could be held, he was dismissed.
