MODERN FABLES, - BY GEORGE ADE.

The Long Range Lover, the Lollypaloozer and the Line of Talk.

One evening while at a Dramatic Entertainment consisting of 22 Coon Songs, a Rising Young Lawyer looked across the Parquette and nearly blinded himself. He thought he had seen some 24 carat Tizums when he had attended College and hung around the Fem. Sem. but the Girl that he now beheld was in a class by herself. She made Cleopatra look like Martha the Sewing Girl. And Venus arising from the Sea was a squizzly old Soap Advertisement in three elementary colors.

The fair Unknown had a pair of Incandescent Headlights that beat the Anna Held Lithographs; a Complexion like the Sunset Blush on a Snow-Bank and enough Hair rising above her to fit out two Girls of Her Size. She was somewhat attired in a Whip-Cream delicatessen Delirium with mauve-colored Galluses. When she fanned herself it could be seen that she had put some Jeweller out of the Business.

It is very seldom that anyone sees anything of that kind except in the back part of a Magazine.

Of course she did not know that the Opera Glasses were being pointed at her, even by those who sat two rows in front. If she had known that it would have annoyed her a lot. It always annoys a Young Woman who has put on $1200 worth of Hurrah Clothes to have a lot of Strange Men do the Waldorf-Astoria Inspection. The only thing that annoys her more than that is to have these same Goodyear Specialists overlook her entirely.

When some 47 would-be Lady-Stealers are giving a Circus Maiden the Grand Stand Eye, she has to be in fine condition, if she can sit through it and not let on. The Unknown was still a Bud, and yet she was thoroughly up in the Part. She was unconscious of her own Hit, and she was determined to keep on being unconscious.

Among the other Things she wore that Evening was a featherweight Escort, who had Percy written all over him. The Men were wondering why any Peachette with a Kentucky Shape, who could take her Pick of all Mankind, should want to carry such a sad Specimen of Excess Baggage. He was one of those 90-pound Wrap-Holders who showed his Teeth when he was pleased. He belonged out at Mother's Place in the Country, feeding the White Rabbits. Every Man who saw him smuggling up to the Unknown hoped that he would fall down and break his Leg.

The Rising Young Attorney caromed on both sides of the Aisle when he went out, for he was still looking at the Dream. He hid behind a Bill-Board and saw her come out with the Human Weasel. In her Opera Cloak she certainly was very easy to look at.

On his way to the Boarding House he walked two Blocks past the Place. The Unknown had him transcribed. He imagined himself riding with her in a Golden Automobile through a Grove of Violets. There was a Music Box Attachment under the Seat and she was fighting to hold his Hand. He came to just in time to save himself from walking into the River.

This Attorney was an Emotionable Proposition. He had a high John C. Calhoun Forehead and the yearning Look of a Genius who would like to trade a College Education for a Meal Ticket. From the Moment when the Goddess flashed across his Pathway, he was Stung in eight different Places. All during Business Hours he looked off into Space without seeing anything in Particular and he was thinking of Her. No clients ever came stamping in to pull him out of his Reverie and slip him a few Retainers. He was a good Union Lover and put in his full 8 hours per working up Day Dreams. He called her a good many Names that would have been New ones on Her.

One Day he saw her on the Other side of the Street. It made him google-eyed, and he walked off the Curb. Another time she zipped past him on a Trolley. Every time he spotted her, she looked at least 10 per cent. better than the time before.

"I'm for her," he told himself.

Once he saw her coming out of a Department Store, and she made the other look like the Odds and Ends of a Rummage Sale. He heard her Rippling Laugh, and there was enough Music in it to carry a whole Season of Grand Opera. A Friend who was with him said that her name was Clarice. So he told his Friend. "Anytime that you read about Clarice being engaged, start in to drag the River."

When he heard that she had gone to a Summer Hotel, he trailed her and continued his long-distance Worship. He was afraid to get too near for fear that he would curl up and have a Spasm.

Who was he, a Legal Worm, that he should dare to crave a Word from those Rosebud Lips or hope for a melting Glance from those star-lit Lamps? As for executing a Clutch and swinging into the Slow and Dreamy, that seemed only a vague and far away Hope of Paradise, and it was a Sin to waste time on it.

The best he could hope for was to send her a box of long-stemmed Roses and then go and let a Train run over him, and maybe she would condescend to attend the Funeral. That, or else he could save her life in a Run-away and die with his Head in her Lap. All he wanted was a Romantic Finish that would leave a Sad, sweet Memory behind. He wanted a Guarantee that she would think of him a couple of times, and he would be satisfied to play Village Dog and die any kind of a Death.

While in this desperate Frame of Mind, he met Mr. Buzzer, the moving Graphophone and He-Vampire, sometimes known as the Burned Edge of the Crust of Society. When the unspeakable Buzzer said that he knew Clarice, and stood Aces and Eights, the soulful Attorney wanted to throttle him, for he could not believe that a real Diana would trifle with a blue Cat-Fish.

However he accepted the Opportunity to hold Converse with the Star of his Soul. Buzzer led him around the long Veranda, and at last he stood in that radiant Presence: "Sis. I want you to know a Friend of mine," said the well-known Safe Blower and Social Outcast known as Buzzer.

He stood enthralled for at least one-twentieth of a Second. Then Clarice got under way.

"Oh, Crickets! I seen you at the The-ayter one Night," she said. "I was there with Ollie Pozozzle of Minneapolis. Me and him came out just behind you. Say, wasn't that 'Mamie, Mamie, Ain't it a shame?' When did you land here? Huh? Oh sure! This is a small Joint all right, but they stick you for everything. Gee! but I'm glad Mr. Buzzer come out. He's awful good Company. I'm going out ridin' to-night with He and a Friend of his. Come along! I'll stake you to a Girl."

When they found the Sentimental Attorney in the Woods an hour later, he was barking like a Sea-Lion and butting his Head against the Trees.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Is The Only Medicine That Can
Promptly and Permanently
Banish All Wasting and Dangerous Diseases.

It Restores Lost Health When Physicians Pronounce Your Case Incurable.

If, in springtime sick people—young and old—act with promptness, wisdom and decision, suffering, agony and misery would never be carried into the summer months.

To delay the work of banishing disease, regulating the nerves, purifying the blood and restoring perfect digestion is a serious mistake.

When the blood is sluggish, impure and poisoned, when the nervous system is unbalanced, when digestion is deranged, and the appetite poor and variable, be assured your condition is critical, and calls for instant attention before the summer months bring additional dangers.

At this time the use of Paine's Celery Compound will do a marvellous work for every rundown, sick and diseased man and woman.

Its life giving work first commences with the blood, which is made clean and pure; then the nerves are quickly set in order, digestive vigor is fully restored, the appetite is made natural, sleep is refreshing, and the desponding heart is made light and joyous.

It is well to bear in mind that Paine's Celery Compound owes its origin to the most distinguished physician that this American continent ever produced, and his marvellous prescription is publicly indorsed by our best and ablest physicians.

If all sufferers who have been disappointed in the past will promptly start with Paine's Celery Compound, they will be astonished and delighted with the speed with which this wonderful remedy is able to call a halt to wasting and dangerous diseases. It is now making tens of thousands well and strong, fitting them to enjoy the summer months which, to the well and strong, are pleasurable and happy.

Husband (to wife who is singing): My dear, you are a marvellous singer. You ought to be with Carl Rosa, the great singer."

Wife (flattered): "Do you really think so, John?"

Husband: "Yes, my dear. I wouldn't flatter you for the world."

Wife (after a minute of thought): "But Carl Rosa is dead!"

Husband: "I know that."
