

Women's Ailments.

Women are coming to understand that the Backaches, Headaches, Tired, Feelings and weak Spells from which they suffer are due to wrong action of the kidneys.

DOAN'S Kidney Pills

are the most reliable remedy for any form of kidney complaint. They drive away pains and aches, make women healthy and happy—able to enjoy life to the fullest. Mrs. C. H. Gillespie, 204 Britain Street, St. John, N.B., says: "I had severe kidney trouble for which I doctored with a number of the best physicians in St. John, but received little relief. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I began their use. Before taking them I could not stoop to tie my shoes, and at times suffered such torture that I could not turn over in bed without assistance. Doan's Kidney Pills have rescued me from this terrible condition, and removed every pain and ache."

Tennyson's Father's Flight.

The following curious story, somewhat differently related in the 'Life of Tennyson,' is part of the 'Personal Recollections of Tennyson,' by Captain W. Gordon McCabe, published in the March 'Century.' The laureate is speaking:

"My father," he said, "was a most impulsive man, and spoke out whatever was uppermost in his mind. Soon after the assassination of the Emperor Paul he went on a tour through Russia, and stopped at Moscow, where the court resided, and where Lord St. Helens was English ambassador. He and my father had been friends at Cambridge, and so my father had the freedom of the embassy while in the Russian capital. One night St. Helens had a grand dinner, at which were all the foreign ambassadors and many Russian notables, not one of whose names my father had caught.

In some way it came about that a guarded allusion was made, during the dinner, to the death of the late Czar. My father, who caught it, leaned over, almost across the breast of some Russian dignitary covered with decorations, who sat next to him, and cried out in his quick, impulsive way, "Why, St. Helens, what's the use of speaking so gingerly about a matter so notorious? We know well enough in England that the Emperor Paul was murdered in the Mikhailovski Palace, and we know exactly who did it. Count Zoffoff knocked him down, and Benningsen and Count Pahlen strangled him.

An appalling hush fell for a moment upon the table, and then Lord St. Helens at once rushed into some subject discreetly foreign to the sixth commandment.

"It is the custom, as you know," continued he, "in Russia not to sit over the wine, as is usual in England, but to go into another room where the samovar is, and there have tea, or more wine or vodka, and a smoke. As the company rose, Lord St. Helens, standing by the door as the guests filed out, gave my father a meaning look to drop behind the rest. As my father came up to him, he said in a hurried whisper:—"Don't go into the next room, but fly for your life. No flag can protect you in such a country as this."

of the diseases that afflict humanity are caused by the accumulation of impurities in the blood.

The greatest of all blood purifiers is

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

It cleanses the system from the crown of the head to the soles of the feet.

If you are troubled with Boils, Pimples, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Biliousness, Headaches, Scrofula, Eczema or any trouble arising from disordered Stomach, Liver, Bowels or Blood, give Burdock Blood Bitters a trial. We guarantee it to cure or money refunded.

The man next you, across whose breast you leaned, was Count Pahlen, one of the most powerful nobles in Russia. Zoffoff was at the table, too, and you have publicly charged both of them with being assassins. If you don't get away to-night, you'll be inside the dungeons of St. Peter and St. Paul within forty-eight hours. Go to a Scotch merchant's whom I know, just outside of Odessa' (giving him the name) and he will conceal you until I can contrive to get you out of the country, if it be possible. Post to-night—the fastest horses you can get. I'll keep the company as late as I can. Don't even stop to change your clothes."

"My father rushed away to his hotel, called up his courier, and made him order a four-horse droshky, while he literally pitched his clothes into his portmanteau. He posted all night and the next day still in his evening clothes, weather bitterly cold; but he had a clever courier, and found his Scotchman, in whose house he lay perdue for weeks.

"St. Helens managed to get a message to him to be on the alert, and when he heard the horn of the "Queen's Messenger" blown three times to be ready to go with the man who gave the signal. At last, one stormy night, he heard the welcome sound, and, disguised as a servant of the messenger, who was being sent home with dispatches (which, by the way, he lost, as he was very drunk, but which were found by my father), and for whom an English frigate was waiting at Odessa, got safe on board and so back to England."

The Women of Canada Are Becoming Proficient in the Work of Mat and Rug Making.

The city and town Fairs and Exhibitions held last autumn in the various provinces of our Dominion, have fully demonstrated the fact that the women of Canada are rapidly becoming proficient in the art of making mats and rugs.

In the sections of Canada's fairs devoted to woman's work, the display of mats and rugs made from the Diamond Dye Mat and Rug Patterns was most varied and attractive, and claimed the attention of tens of thousands. The prize winners (who used the Diamond Dyes to color their rugs and other materials from which the rugs were made) all agreed that the Diamond Dye Mat and Rug Patterns were the best and easiest to work up.

If you would like to make up a choice mat or rug, send your address to The Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, 200 Mountain St., Montreal, P. Q., and you will receive full range of new designs.

The Agony of Sleeplessness

Did you ever pass a single night in wakeful misery, tossing and rolling in bed, trying in vain to sleep and longing for morning to come? Can you imagine the torture of spending night after night in this way, each succeeding night growing worse and worse? This is the most dreadful symptom of Nervous Exhaustion and Debility. You can be gradually and thoroughly cured of Sleeplessness by the rebuilding influence of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. It cures in nature's way, by creating new nerve cells and restoring lost vitality.

Modern Fables, - By George Ade.

THE TWO TABBIES WHO WERE INTERESTED IN PUGS.

It befell that Mrs. Caldwell and Mrs. Frisbie met at a Tea Fight and proceeded to wrangle with Current Topics.

Mrs. Caldwell was Corresponding Secretary of the Society for Ethical Research and once dined at the same Table with President Elliot. Mrs. Frisbie was the party that read the Paper before the Tuesday Morning Club.

These two began to deplore the Tendencies of this years Journalism.

They wanted to know if it wasn't too Bad that the Papers printed so much about Horse-Racing and other Crimes when it was possible to drop in at any Litry Club and get enough Hot stuff to fill the whole Sheet.

Mrs. Caldwell said that her idea of a gingery Daily would be one with a Picture of Jeannette Gilder and a couple of Book Reviews on page 1, some Club Notes and Society Announcements on page 2, a few useful Hints on how to clean White Gloves without making them smell on page 3 and then fill the remaining Space with Pomes.

"Ain't it Sickening to pick up a Paper and find Columns about these brutal Prize-Fighters?" asked Mrs. Frisbie. "Just at present it's all about Fitzsimmons and Jeffries. It begins to look as though they might get together."

"It would have been pulled off long ago if Fitz had not insisted on an even Split of the Purse," said Mrs. Caldwell. "It looks very Fakey to me when a Man holds out for 50 per cent., win or lose. I think Jeff is right in insisting that the winner take the Big End."

"You seem to think that Jeff has a cinch," said Mrs. Frisbie, in a sarcastic Tone.

"I think it's like robbing a Child's Bank," said Mrs. Caldwell. "I can't see any one but Jeff. Goodness! He has a Right that would change any Man's Religion."

"Well, Lanky Bob is quite a Few when it comes to sassy Rights," maintained Mrs. Frisbie. "Once he hit a Man in Evansville and the Man woke up in Memphis. Any time that he lands one of those Mary Anus, there's something doing in the other Corner."

"You seem to forget that Jeff once gave him his Trimming," said Mrs. Caldwell, with a Smile of Superior Wisdom.

The Croup.

It's a terrible thing, isn't it? Somehow, that awful cough, that hard struggle for air, can never be forgotten. Be a little fore-handed and prevent it.

Keep Vapo-Cresolene in the house, and when the children take cold let them breathe-in the vapor during the evening. It goes right to the throat, just where the croup lies. All irritation subsides, the cough quiets down and serious trouble is prevented. If never fails to cure whooping cough. Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including the Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a life-time, and a bottle of Vapo-Cresolene, complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresolene, 25 cents and 50 cents. Illustrated booklet containing physicians' testimonials free upon request. VAPOR-CRESOLENE CO., 150 Fulton St., New York, U.S.A.

"But Fitz says that he was Drugged," retorted Mrs. Frisbie.

"Back to the Night School!" exclaimed the Corresponding Secretary of the Society for Ethical Research. "I'll tell you what Drugged him. It was that Haymaker that was handed to him in the Second. That was a regular Lizeumtizzus. After he got that one he didn't know whether he was in the Arena or up in the Hay-Mow, looking for Eggs."

"Let me ask you something," said Mrs. Frisbie with considerable Warmth. "Didn't the Sailor stay for 25 Rounds with this big Burly? Then didn't Fitz put him away the fourth time up? Now, if there's anything in the Dope, how can you figure anybody but the Kangaroo? Don't talk to your Aunt Hester! Any time that they beat him on the Square they'll have to push a Steam Roller into the Ring. The next time he gets Mr. Boiler-Maker in front he'll take his Measure in a hurry. He will certainly light on that naughty Actor and sting him like a Bee. Jeff will think that somebody is shooting Gloves at him from a Rapid Fire Gun. All that the Kinetoscope will show will be something that looks like an Electric Fan in Motion. Little Bright Eyes from California will begin to see Stars that never were on the Chart. Now, I'm telling you."

"Go back and finish your Nap," said Mrs. Caldwell, giving her friend the Banjo Eye. "You must have received a few Marconis from Dreamland or else some False Friend has been feeding you the Baked Atmosphere. To hear you talk one would suppose that at any time Fitz comes into the Ring they have to put Asbestos under the Matting. He may be fairly warm, but I don't think that he has to wear a Steam Gauge. I will admit that he is all right in his Class, but he has his Nerve with him when he tries to upset a Baby Elephant."

"The bigger they are the harder they fall," observed Mrs. Frisbie.

"It's like starting a Dray Horse against McChesney," reiterated Mrs. Caldwell. "If Jeff connects the small Boys will be picking up Freckles around there for a Week after."

The discussion regarding the Sensational Press was taking an acrimonious Turn when the Hostess entered and asked them to step into the Front Room and hear Agnes Gladys Otis read something from "The Ring and the Book."

"Gracious me! I hope it isn't anything about the Prize-Ring or the Winter Book," said Mrs. Caldwell. "We get enough of that in the awful Daily Papers."

A RELIABLE OFFER

Honest Help Free to Men.

We are authorized to state by Mr. Carl Kunz, Second and Brady Streets, Davenport, Iowa, that any man who is nervous and debilitated or who is suffering from any of the various troubles resulting from overwork, excesses or abuse, such as nervous debility, exhausted vitality, lost vigor, unnatural drains and losses, lack of development, etc., can write to him in strict confidence and receive, FREE OF CHARGE, full instructions how to be thoroughly cured.

Mr. Kunz himself was, for a long time, a sufferer from above troubles, and after trying in vain many advertised remedies, became almost entirely discouraged and hopeless. Finally he confided in an old clergyman, whose kind and honest advice enabled him to speedily obtain a perfect and permanent cure. Knowing to his own sorrow that so many poor sufferers are being imposed upon by unscrupulous quacks, Mr. Kunz considers it his duty, as an honest man, to give his fellow men the benefit of his experience and assist to cure. Having nothing to sell, he asks for no money, the proud satisfaction of having done a great service to one in need, he rightly considers an ample reward for his trouble. If you write to Mr. Kunz, and follow his advice, you can rely upon being cured and upon absolute secrecy as well.

Address as above, enclosing a stamp. No attention will be given to those writing out of idle curiosity, therefore state that you really need a cure.

A painter who doesn't mind a joke at his own expense, says he went into a chemist's recently and asked for some morphine. The assistant objected to giving it without a prescription.

"Do I look like a man who would kill himself?"

"I don't know, I am sure," said the assistant; "but if I looked like you I should be tempted."

ARE YOU DEAF?

ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1901. Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain

Very truly yours,

F. A. WERMAN, 735 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and advice free.

YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.

Had Been There Long Enough.

The proprietors of one of the great daily papers, having long been dissatisfied with the work done in their pressroom, reduced the foreman of that department to the ranks and employed a new one. The new foreman, although he was thoroughly competent, and an artist in his way, as such a man has to be nowadays, was rather boyish-looking. In making the rounds on the morning of his arrival, he stopped to note the work of the big color press.

"I beg your pardon," he said to the man in charge of that particular press, "but if you will take a suggestion from a stranger, I think there is a way by which you can make this machine register a little better."

He proceeded to point it out, when the pressman roughly interrupted him.

"Young fellow," he said, "you can't teach me anything about running this machine. I've been at it too long."

"I think you have," replied the new foreman, quietly passing on. "I shall make it my business to see that you are not 'at it' much longer."

What Is Life to You?

If you are a victim of piles, as one person in every four is, you suffer keenly from one of the most torturing ailments known to man, and may well wonder if life is really worth living. Certain relief and ultimate cure is awaiting you by means of Dr. Chase's Ointment. It has never failed to cure piles. Painlessly and naturally it allays the inflammation, heals the ulcers and thoroughly cures this wretched disease.

Cured The Squeak.

A gentleman going down the river on a steamer, the engine of which was upon the deck, sauntered to see the working of the machinery. Near him stood a man apparently bent upon the same object. In a few moments a squeaking noise was heard on the opposite side of the engine.

Seizing the oil can, a gigantic one, by the way, the engineer sought out the dry spot, and to prevent further noise of that kind liberally applied the contents of the can to every joint.

All went on well for a while, when the squeaking was heard in another direction. The oiling process was repeated and quiet restored; but as the engineer was coming quietly towards the spot occupied by the gentleman and the stranger, he heard another squeak. This time, however he detected the true cause of the difficulty. The stranger was a ventriloquist.

Walking straight up behind him, he seized the astonished joker by the nape of the neck and emptied the contents of the can down his back.

"There!" said he, "I don't believe that old engine will squeak again."

PUBLIC OPINION is strong in favor of Pain-Killer. For over sixty years the foremost household remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, and all bowel complaints. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis' 25c and 50c.

Wife (reading paper): "Here is an account of a man in Yorkshire who sold his wife for five pounds. Isn't he dreadful?" Husband (thoughtfully): "Well, I dunno. Five pounds is a good deal of money."
