"Keeping Things Out."

"Two neighbors, who were both subscribers to our paper, were at enmity. One of the neighbors had a very serious trouble in his family. He called on us and requested that no mention be made of it in the paper. Unwilling to add to the already heavy burdens of the stricken father, we readily and willingly complied with his request, although the facts had been written up by one of our correspondents. The other man was so mad with the Watchman because no mention was made of the domestic calamity of his neighbor that he promptly stopped the paper because "it didn't give the news."

In less than a year and a half the same trouble, precisely occurred in the family of the second man, who had stopped the paper 'because it didn't give the news.' No request was made for non-publicity this time, but the Watchman didn't notice the sad case. What do you think followed? 'By the great power mugs,' to use the swearing formula of a distinguished jurist of our acquaintance, if the first fellow didn't call in the next week and stop his paper because no mention was made of the disaster that had fallen upon his neighbor."—Monticello Watchman.

PAINE'S CELERY
COMPOUND

NATURE'S SUMMER HEALTH GIVER.

It Purifies The Blood and Multiplies the Number of Vital Red Corpuscles, Feeds the Nerves and Tissues and Gives True Physical Strength.

Weak nerves, exhausted tissues, poor, thin blood, impaired digestion and sleepless nights, account for much of the present existing summer misery and suffering. Dear reader, if you are unfortunately numbered amongst the sickly and weak mortals of today, it is now time to awake to a true realization of your danger. The weakening and depressing hot weather will only add to your miseries if you are careless and indifferent.

There is absolute relief and a positive cure for you in Paine's Celery Compound. This wonder-working medicine is successfully conquering such troubles as yours every day. It is a fact verified by able physicians and thousands of testimonials that Paine's Celery Compound makes new, pure blood, builds up the nervous system, regulates digestion, whets the appetite and gives vigor and strength to combat the discomforts of the heated term. Mrs. E. Wilcox, Creemore, Ont., says:

"For years I have suffered from constant sick headache and nervousness; at times I have been so bad that I have been unable to sleep two hours a night for weeks. I have tried many medicines and doctored a great deal, but never received a hundredth part of the value from them that I obtained from Paine's Celery Compound. After using three bottles I can sleep well, my headaches have ceased, and I feel healthier and fresher than I have done for years."

Marjory's Proviso.

Baby Marjory has been having her first experience of rural sights and sounds; of green things growing, of flowers hiding in the grass, of cows in the pasture, of horses in the stable. She was delighted with all but one of them, says a writer in the Philadelphia Telegraph.

The one exception was the big, surly dog that keeps watch and ward over the farm. She respected Hector in his own place, but that place is at a distance. She did not want him or his kind to approach near enough for intimate acquaintance.

Having been invited by a lady of the house to take a walk down to the village, Marjory hesitated a little.

"Why, Marjory," exclaimed the lady, in an injured tone of voice, "don't you want to go with me?"

"Yes," replied the little maid, "I want to go; but please don't let any dogs happen to me!"

A Familiar Name

In the homes of Canada and the United States there are few names more familiar and none more reverently spoken than that of Dr. A. W. Chase, the great physician and receipt book author. He is blessed for the suffering he has relieved and the diseases he has cured; his remedies are used and endorsed by the best people in the land; they are popular because they cure when others fail.

"Lord Hopeless" was the nickname given to the Earl of Hopetoun when he first went to Australia as Governor of Victoria. The people soon learned, however, that it was quite a mistake to apply it to Lord Hopetoun, and he became very popular. This change of opinion was, in a measure, due to the remarkable skill shown by Lady Hopetoun as a markswoman. Her shooting won the hearts of the Victorians. At the butts she made "bull's-eye" after "bull's-eye" with the skill of an old bushman. "She's a nailer," was the complimentary exclamation which went round. Afterwards Lady Hopetoun became very generally known by that epithet.

Severe Pains

Mr. Ellis Gallant, Paquetville, Gloucester Co., N.B., writes: "I feel it my duty to write you, as I have received much benefit from the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I was taken three years ago with a pain just below the ribs of the left side, and right over the kidney. At first it did not cause me much suffering, but a year ago the pain, at times, was very severe."

"After hearing repeatedly of the value of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, I decided to make a trial, and after using two boxes the pain had completely disappeared and I am well, thanks to this remedy. I have also used Dr. Chase's Ointment, and found it worth its weight in gold. You may publish this letter if you like, as it may induce some other sufferer to profit by my experience."

You cannot possibly make a mistake in using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for derangements of the kidneys, liver and bowels. It has proven itself worthy of the most hearty endorsement of thousands of people. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Of Course.

Oh, yes, I'm aware
That he drinks and he plays,
And spends all his surplus
In other wrong ways;
But I love him so truly
I'm certain that he
Will drop his bad habits
Because he loves me.
Oh, no: he's not trying
Just yet to be good,
But he will when we marry—
He told me he would!

Human Nature.

"It is your plain duty, and—"
"Oh, yes; and that is what makes it so unattractive. I wish we could, once in a while have a duty so ornamental that it would be a pleasure to contemplate it."

In all the years that have passed since the Greek architects planned the buildings which made Athens famous no one has arisen to devise a new architectural style which will wear as well. After trying various other styles, the authorities in Washington have decided that the one hundred and nineteen new government buildings, for the erection of which in various parts of the country Congress has made appropriations, shall be constructed on classical models; and the White House, the interior of which has been a medley of styles, is to be restored to the simple beauty of its original colonial planning, colonial architecture being simply the application of the Greek forms to modern buildings.

"It is your plain duty, and—"
"Oh, yes; and that is what makes it so unattractive. I wish we could, once in a while, have a duty so ornamental that it would be a pleasure to contemplate it."

"I suppose that work in 60 volumes is an encyclopedia."
"No; it is called 'The Love Letters of a Mormon Elder.'—Smart Set.

He: "You told your mother I was sorry for having made an idiot of myself at her dinner-party last night—what did she say?"
She: "Oh, she said she noticed nothing unusual."

Teacher: "Tell me, Bobby, what are the two things necessary for a baptism?"
Bobby: "Water and a baby, ma'am."

Tales of a Circus Man.

A coal black negro applied to Mr. Sells, the circus man, once for a "job." "What can you do?" said Mr. Sells.

"Anything."
"Well," said Mr. Sells, "just now I need a forager; think you could do that?"

"Guess I could boss, if I knew what 't was," eagerly replied the negro.

"Well, a forager is a man that goes a little ahead of the show and gathers in all the chickens he can find, and all the eggs he can find, and once in a while a shote, and gets things generally to eat. How does that strike you?"

"Boss," explosively said the negro, "I'm just your man, I've been foragin' all winter!"

In telling this story Mr. Sells, says the Brooklyn Eagle, added that he thought that the negro got the little best of him, as he felt impelled to give the darkey some kind of work to keep him up for his disappointment when he found that the circus man had been joking, and that no such "job" existed.

Mr. Sells' father used to visit his son occasionally on the road. One day he saw Lewis in earnest conversation with a stranger. He called him to his side and said, "Lew, what are you talking about?"

"I'm going to get a new horse, father," said the younger Mr. Sells. "I'm going to give that horse of mine over there and $90 for the horse the man has hitched to that wagon."

Mr. Sells senior looked at both horses. "Lew," he said solemnly, "give the man both horses, and keep your money."

Scores of Uses

While Dr. Chase's Ointment is best known on account of its wonderful control over eczema, salt rheum and piles, it is found to be in almost daily demand in many homes as a cure for chilblains, chafing, pimples, sunburn, burns, scalds, and each and every form of itching, irritated or inflamed skin. It is invaluable in every home and as a soothing and healing application knows no equal.

Meat for Children.

One of the most unfortunate evil consequences of an early and liberal meat diet, says Dr. Winters, is the loss of relish it creates for the physiological foods of childhood—milk, cereals and vegetables. "A child that is allowed a generous meat diet," he adds, "is certain to refuse cereals and vegetables. Meat by its stimulating effect produces a habit as surely as does alcohol, tea or coffee, and a distaste for less satisfying foods. The foods which the meat eating child eschews contain in large proportions certain mineral constituents which are essential to bodily nutrition and health and without which the processes of fresh growth and development are stunted. There is more so called nervousness, anaemia, rheumatism, valvular disease of the heart and chorea at the present time in children from an excess of meat and its preparations in the diet than from all other causes combined," he declares. —New York Medical Journal.

Justice Greater Than Charity.

The one divine work, the one ordered sacrifice, is to do justice, and it is the last we are ever inclined to do. Anything rather than that. As much charity as you choose, but no justice. "Nay," you will say, "charity is greater than justice." Yes, it is greater; it is the summit of justice; it is the temple of which justice is the foundation. But you can't have the top without the bottom; you cannot build upon charity. You must build upon justice for this main reason, that you have not at first charity to build with. It is the last reward of good work. Do justice to your brother (you can do that whether you love him or not) and you will come to love him. It is all very fine to think you can build upon charity to begin with, but you will find all you have to begin with begins at home and is essentially love of yourself.—Ruskin.

Judges For St. John Exhibition.

The following Gentlemen have been selected for the Great Exhibition at St. John August 30th to Sept. 6th.—Horses, Dr. J. Hugo Reed Veterinarian, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph; Beef Breeds of Cattle Prof. Geo. E. Day, Agricultural, Ontario Agricultural College Farm; Dairy Breeds of Cattle, W. W. Ballantyne, the well known cattle breeder of Stratford, Ont; These two Gentlemen will also judge Sheep and Swine. Fruit will be judged by D. H. Knowlton, the Secretary of the Maine State Pomological Society, and Agricultural Products by G. H. Clarke, Chief of the Seed Division, Dept. of Agriculture, Ottawa. The Judge of Poultry will probably be either C. E. Knapp of Winchester, Mass. or J. H. Saunders London, Ont.

Live Stock entries are now coming in for the St. John Exhibition and every indication is for a record display of Maritime Horses, Cattle, Sheep and Swine. The time limit for taking entries at ordinary fees is 18th August. Late entries are required to pay increased rates.

The Lithographs advertising this Exhibition have as a central figure a magnificent horse in full action and make a striking bill. These are now being distributed, intending Exhibitors who have not yet received Prize Lists should send a postal to W. W. Hubbard, Secretary, St. John, N. B.

The Torture of Itching Piles

Mr. John Harvey, Mayor of Arnprior, Ont., states:—"Only persons who have experienced the torture of itching piles can form any idea of what I suffered from this horrible disease. I was advised to try Dr. Chase's Ointment, and can positively say that it has completely cured me. I tried very many so-called cures for piles, and can truthfully say that there is no remedy on the face of the earth like Dr. Chase's Ointment for this purpose. I would not be without it for any amount of money, and can heartily recommend it to all sufferers, as it is the best thing I ever used."

There are several imitations of Dr. Chase's Ointment, but so far it is the only preparation extant which is a positive and certain cure for piles of every form. You can rely on it absolutely, and it is only a waste of time and money to try substitutes. 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
