Brighton Engineers.

The Brighton Engineers went into camp yesterday morning on their old camping ground in James McIsaac's field on the plateau back of the railway track at East Florenceville. Major John R. Tompkins is in command, with Lieuts. W. W. Melville and A. C. Carr. The full strength of the Engineers is six officers, a sgt. major, a quartermaster sgt., four sergeants, six corporals, six second corporals, two trumpeters and eighty-two sappers. With the exception of the officers the corps is now complete and it is probable that one or two officers will be attached.

The location of the camp is delightful and a most successful training is anticipated. A number of young men from Woodstock enlisted this year. H. Campbell, of Peel, is sergeant major and the name of the quartermaster sergeant is not yet given out.

On Sunday morning a religious service will be conducted by the Rev. E. W. Simonson, of Centreville.

The Meductic Inquest.

At the adjourned meeting of the inquest on the death of George M. Marsten at the hall in Meductic on Friday and Saturday, the hall was crowded. It was stated on Saturday that the analyst, Mr. Paddock of St. John, was not satisfied with his analysis of the stomach and desired to take it to Montreal for further examination. He will give his evidence at an adjourned meeting of the inquest on Tuesday the 29th. J. R. Murphy appeared for the crown and J. C. Hartley represented Mrs. Marsten. T. C. L. Ketchum was official stenographer.

From the evidence as put in at present there is no reason adduced to account for Mr.
Marsten's death, either from natural causes, nor from poisoning by either himself nor anyone else. The whole result of the inquest will hinge on what the stomach proves to contain.

Death of a Canterbury Lady.

The whole community heard with a feeling of profound sorrow on Wednesday morning June 18th that Isabella Cunningham was to be numbered among the living no more. She was born in February 1855, the eldest daughter of Jas Cunningham. At seventeen she went to Boston and there remained until her death of heart disease. The end came peacefully and a kindly generous life is closed at its prime. She was one who made friends readily and held them firmly being best beloved by those who knew her best. She leaves an aged father and mother, five sisters and four brothers. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. J. E. Flewelling on Sunday afternoon. The room where the casket rested was filled with beautiful floral tributes speaking eloquently of the esteem in which she was held. The pall bearers were John and Andrew Cunningham, Herbet and Henry Carr. A large concourse followed the remains to their last resting place.

Butter Paper, printed and upprinted, in one and two pound wrappers, at this office.

Town Council.

At the meeting of the Town Council on Monday evening the town treasurer's report showed the month of June:—

Expenditures.....$4,388.55
Receipts..... 1,258.42
The largest items of expenditure were:— Interest.....$1921.00
Health..... 813.00
Schools..... 500.00
Fuel..... 657.72

For the half year ending June 30th:—
Expenditures.....$11,100.48
Receipts..... 4,000.37
Bank Debit Balance..... 11,711.19

Since the treasurer's report had been made up the sum of $285.53 had been received, which reduced the debit balance to $11,425.- 66.

The town marshal's report showed that since he took office he had collected the sum of $2200.00.

Coun. Balmain reported on the new fire alarm indicator. This instrument placed in the Engine room at the town hall, shows in large plain figures, the number of the box from which an alarm has been rung in.
Heretofore the box number was indicated only by the striking of a gong, and if no one was at the engine room this was not received.
Then the first fireman in at the room had to telephone to the pumping station for the box number. The gong struck very quickly, and sometimes in the night it was very confusing. The new indicator had been placed in the room and on being tested from all the eleven boxes had been found to work admirably. It had cost the town rather more than he had anticipated but he had no doubt it would save the town many times its cost.
Coun. Balmain said he had not a very extensive knowledge of these indicators, but as this instrument had been pronounced satisfactory by Chief Tattersall and Superintendent Munro he had all confidence in its excellence.

Mayor Belyea announced that there was no longer a case of smallpox in town. On Tuesday the last house would be disinfected and the quarantine removed. After the vigorous vaccination crusade carried on by the board of health the town was safe from the possibility of an epidemic. It was true that some person who had succeeded in dodging the vaccine might be stricken with the disease but no general spread of it was possible.

The streets committee was requested to call on W. S. Saunders, and learn from him the nature and extent of his demands on the town on account of the flooding of his cellar by water from Chapel St. It appeared that in previous years Mr. Saunders had called the attention of the council to this matter, but nothing had been done about it.

On motion Coun. Lindsay, seconded by Coun.
Balmain, R. J. Lindsay and W. S. Saunders were appointed revisors of the provincial voters list.

The attention of the streets committee was called to the condition of the sidewalk at Payson's corner and that in front of the Woollen Mills.

The attention of the light committee was directed to the fact that in some parts of town there had been no light since March or April.

The Mayor read a letter from Superintendent Newcombe saying that there was no charge for the special train that carried the Woodstock firemen to the assistance of Houlton. A vote of thanks was passed to the C.
P. R.

The poor farm is divided by a deep and impassible gulch which is not bridged, and in order to get from the front to the rear the man in charge has always had to go over John Lenehan's farm. Mr. Lenehan has always given his permission to this use of his land, but Coun. Lindsay told the council that this permission had been withdrawn.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Kennedy and family wish to express their heartfelt gratitude to their many friends who gave multiplied expressions of love and sympathy during the hours of illness, death and burial of their late son Granville. Among whom were people of Baptist church and community of Hartland, clerks of firm of Keith & Plummer & Co., members of L. O. L. Brotherhood and many others.

Hospital Fund.

Dr. Sprague announces the receipt of the following sums for the hospital:— Lieut. Col. F. H. J. Dibblee,.....$50.00 Half proceeds Steamer Aberdeen Excursion June 28th,..... 18.75

Ideal.

Mrs. Van Antler—She is a fine nurse isn't she?
Mrs. Giltpace—Splendid. Why, I never have to see the baby from one week's end to the other.

Rev. John C. Murray's Death.

The Rev. John C. Murray, the well-known priest of Johnville, died at his residence there, on Monday morning at 4 o'clock. On Saturday evening, Rev. Father Chapman received the sad news of Father Murray's critical illness, and drove at once to Johnville to administer the last rites of the church.
Father Murray was born in St. John, on June 11th, 1834. He studied theology in Quebec seminary, and was the first priest ordained in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. He was stationed some years in Kent County, and was transferred to Woodstock in 1876, where he ministered to his congregation until 1891, when he was transferred to Johnville.

During his ministry in Carleton County, Father Murray won the profound respect and sincere affection of all classes and conditions of men, for his scholarly attainments, his generosity to the poor and his charming personality. He was a gentleman whom it was a pleasure to know. His death was hardly a surprise to his friends, for he had been in poor health for a year or more; but it came as a shock to many people, who feel a sense of personal loss in his passing.

His Lordship, the Bishop of St. John, passed through Woodstock yesterday, to be present at the funeral, which takes place to-day.

Trafford-McCormac.

On Wednesday afternoon, June 25th, the Union church at Connell was filled to overflowing by the friends of the bride and groom, to witness the marriage of Miss Pearl Mc-Cormac, eldest daughter of John McCormac, Connell, to Sewell N. Trafford, son of Thomas Trafford, Centreville. The church, which had been prepared for the occasion by the Misses Mooers, was handsomely decorated with ferns and flowers. The bride was dressed in white, with bridal veil and orange blossoms. The bridesmaid, Miss Glenna Birmingham, was dressed in white with blue trimmings. The groom was supported by Wm. R. Hatfield. L. L. Mooers officiated as usher. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Gregg, of Tracy's Mills. After the ceremony an elegant tea was served at the residence of the bride's parents, only the relatives and near friends of the contracting parties being present. The bride was the recipient of the following presents:—

Mr. and Mrs. Burt White, fancy table cover; Mr. and Mrs. Riley Trafford, fancy rug and cash; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. and Will Jameson, mahogany centre table; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Holmes, oak rockers; T. H. Jameson and wife, bamboo stand; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Holmes, pair towels and hand grip; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Trafford, table cloth and lace curtains; Miss Bell Nicholson, fancy tea pot; H. M. Birmingham, glass tea set; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mooers, chateleine pocket; Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Mooers and Mrs. Wm. Drier, commode set; Miss Stella Jameson, pair towels; Mr. and Mrs. Odber Trafford, porridge set; Mr.
Harry Crone, fan vase; Miss Nellie Haines, silver sugar shell; Miss Nettie Grant, fancy cup and sauce; Miss Matilda McCormac, glass cake plate; Stanley Hatfield, glass berry set; Wm. Burnham, china berry set; W. R. Hatfield, china cream pitcher and sugar bowl; Mr. and Mrs. H. Clarke, dozen silver knives and forks; Mr. and Mrs. W.
L. Trafford, berry set; Coy Birmingham, cake plate; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Trafford, bed spread and pair towels; Fred Holmes, sett smoothing irons; Mr. and Mrs. Miles Birmingham, pair blankets; Mrs. C. R. and Mrs. G. B. Hatfield, commode set; Miss Gertrude Raymond, fancy pitcher; Paul Raymond, fancy vase; Mr. and Mrs.
James Trafford, hand grip; Gideon Holmes, $1.00;
The groom's present was a very costly berry set.

Shortly after tea was served Mr. and Mrs.
Trafford left for their home in Centreville, carrying with them the best wishes of all present.
