MODERN FABLES, - BY GEORGE ADE.

A team of Proud Parents had a Son named James Henry Guff. On the Day of his Birth the Wind changed and blew in another Direction. Apples fell off the Trees, Chickens went to Roost at Mid-day. All Nature seemed to have been given a Jolt by the Portentous Event. For James Henry Guff was born to know all the Brands of Human Greatness. Destiny had put a Green Tag on him and nothing could stop him.

When he was only 18 years of age he was elected Captain of a Volunteer Fire Department, which was a valuable Organization, only when there was a Fire no one could find the Key to the House in which they kept the Hand-Pump. But the papers began to speak of him as Captain Guff. His Intimates called him Cap. After the Hose Company disbanded his Title clung to him, and it was generally believed that he had been with Grant at Appomattox.

Not satisfied with a resounding Title for which those in the Regular Army have to struggle for years, Captain Guff began to give Lessons on the Flute at 50 cents an hour, and the first thing he knew he was a real Professor, just the same as it he had gone up in a Balloon or had some Trained Horses. Now over at Harvard, where the grow the English Accent, a Student must grind thru a long Course, and a Fellowship, and an Instructorship, before he blossoms into a simon pure Professor. Which only goes to show that the Real Boy can gain by one stroke of Genius the Renown for which the ordinary Skates must go forth and Rustle.

James Henry Guff at the age of 70 was both a Captain and a Professor, but his insatiable Ambition spurred him to go out and gather other Laurels. So he ran for Justice of the Peace, and was elected the third time he ran because the other Candidate pulled out. As Magistrate he became custodian of a Law-Book, a Checker Board and a stack of Blank Affidavits. Once every three months or so somebody would levy on a Cow or threaten to Assault and then the Judge would get a chance to operate his Craft. But he didn't care so much about the Income, so long as he could be addressed as Judge. He allowed his hair to grow into a long, graceful, Cow-Lick, that kept falling into his Eyes, and he looked at the sidewalk meditatively as he went over to the Grocery to get Fine-Cut. Sometimes, when he was far enough from Home, those who met him and heard him called Judge thought he was on the Supreme Bench.

In the course of Time he began to crave a Political Job, so he began to stump around in the Interests of the Machine. He drove out to the District School-Houses with the American Eagle seated on the Dash-Board of his Buggie, and when he got on the Platform he waved Old Glory until both Arms gave out. All of which went to prove that the Machine should be kept in Power. After he had been spell-binding for a couple of Seasons a Job Printer conferred upon him, the Title of Honorable. Every time there was a Jim-Crow Speaking then the Honorable James Henry Guff showed up with his voice in a Shawl-Strap and also a fine Assortment of Platitudes. When the Congressman wrote to him and asked him to get the Jimpson County Delegates into Line, he always addressed his letters to the Honorable James Henry Guff, and in the course of Time Guff began to believe.

But a prouder Distinction awaited him. In view of the fact that he had plugged for the Regular Organization and delivered the Goods at the State Convention, he was made a Colonel on the Governor's Staff to ride in a Pullman Car and take a Ball every time he is touched in the Back. Colonel Guff was in a Dream when he got into his $275 Uniform with the Gold Braid rigged all over the Front. He wore a Chapeau similar to the one worn by Napoleon at Austerlitz, but he had on top of it seven Tail-Feathers of the Loo-Loo Bird, which rather laid over everything that Napoleon ever wore. And when Colonel James Henry Guff, in his magnificent Regalia, and smoking a ten-cent Cigar, leaned back in an Open Carriage drawn by White Horses, and allowed the People to gaze at him, the Grandeur of the Spectacle made one forget the real Horrors of War.

Many of the ardent admirers of Professor Guff, and Captain Guff, and Judge Guff, and Colonel Guff, believed that he had climbed to the Summit of Greatness when he appeared in his $42 Plume. Not so. One Year the State Militia was to have an Encampment, and the Governor gave Colonel James Henry Guff the Job of buying all the Beans, Fresh Beef and other Supplies, because there promised to be a slight rake-off. Officially he was known as the Commissary-General.

Thus it came about that after Years of Endeavor James Henry Guff, who left the Post a poor and unknown Boy, went under the Wire a real General.

When his Daughters went away to Boarding School, and were introduced as the Offspring of General James H. Guff, they assumed a social Leadership. General Guff lead the Grand March at a great Many Military Balls. At a Banquet costing $8 per Plate he sat at the Right of the Chairman wearing Medals which had been presented to him by the 4th Ward Marching Club. In his Address he had always defended the Soldier against unwarranted Attacks, and protested against hauling down the Flag at any Time or Place.

If the Government adopted a new Machine Gun, the Reporters went over and interviewed General James Henry Guff about it. He wrote a Magazine Article on the Mistakes of the British in South Africa, and likewise got rid of a few ponderous Opinions on our Policy in the Philippines.

When he died the Funeral procession was two miles long. The Family had to erect two Marble Shafts so as to find Room for all of his Titles.

WHY NOT CHANGE YOUR MEDICINE?

If You Have Failed Up to the Present to Banish Rheumatism and Sciatica Try

Paine's Celery Compound

There is but one true and reliable specific for the cure of all forms of rheumatism; it is Paine's Celery Compound. This decided and weighty assertion is fully supported by letters from thousands of cured men and women and prominent physicians have ably and fearlessly supported the statement.

If your efforts up to the present with other medicines have failed to drive the terrible disease from your system, remain no longer in agony and peril; change your medicine at once. Prudence and wisdom will surely direct you to use Paine's Celery Compound, the medicine that has cured so many of your friends and neighbors.

The prompt and marvellous cure of Mrs. E. King, Cedar Hill, Victoria, B. C., who endured the tortures and agonies of rheumatism for almost a lifetime, points unmistakably and truly to the fact that Paine's Celery Compound is the king of medicines for the cure of rheumatism; she says:

"I have been troubled with rheumatism nearly all my life, and about eight years ago I had a very severe attack, almost losing the use of my right arm. A friend recommended the use of Paine's Celery Compound, and kindly gave me a bottle, that I took three more, and was quite cured. Since then it has been almost my only medicine for all the ailments from which I have suffered, and all my family have found some benefit from it. I am sixty-five years of age; I live on a farm, get up early in the morning, and am now equal to a good day's work."

For Temperance.

Attention is called to the encouraging work done in the Catholic church in the field of temperance. Lately the thirty-second annual convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America met in Dubuque, Iowa. The reports state that the Union now embraces 980 societies, with a membership of 854,110, an increase during the past year of more than 10,000 members. This movement was organized two years before the Women's Christian Temperance Union. It has the emphatic endorsement of the Pope, who has admonished the priesthood to "do their best to drive the plague of intemperance from the fold of Christ, by assiduous preaching and exhortation, and to shine before all as models of abstinence."

Penny Wise.

In a Sunday-school belonging to a large parish in an American city the teacher of a class which consisted of boys and girls requested each pupil to commit to memory an appropriate text and recite it on the following Sunday when the regular contribution of a penny should be deposited in a bag kept for the purpose. The idea was a new one and pleased the children, and on the appointed day each child, as he or she dropped a penny in the bag, recited the text, which evidently had been learned with pleasure. The texts, "The Lord loveth a cheerful giver," "Cast thy bread upon the waters," and others equally appropriate were repeated with each contributed penny, and the delighted teacher passed the bag to the boy who sat at the end of the class. Rising from his seat, the little fellow dropped his penny into the bag, and, in a voice which plainly revealed his satisfaction with his own selection of a text, said, "A fool and his money soon parted."—October Lippincott's Magazine.
