For Harboring a Ferocious Dog.

One day last week, Preston Wheeler was summoned to appear before the police magistrate, on a charge of keeping a ferocious dog. The information was laid by J. C. Gibson, town marshal, at the request of a number of people who live near Mr. Wheeler.

Evidence of the dog's vicious habit was given by the Misses Garrity and Dr. Baker's little boy, the latter testifying that dog had thrown him down and bitten him. The police magistrate imposed a fine of $20 and costs or thirty days in jail.

Base Ball.

The Woodstock Alerts played ball at Houlton on Saturday with the Houlton Little Giants. The score was 11 to 9 in favor of the Giants. This was the rubber game and leaves Houlton the winner.

There will be two games of ball in Woodstock on the 25th. In the morning a team from Connell's foundry will play the Colts and in the afternoon the town team will have it out with the Houlton Stars.

The following is taken from the Four Falls correspondence of the Fort Fairfield Review:—George F. Watts, an old and respected citizen of this place, has sold his farm to Charles Clarke, and moved over into Maine; On the evening previous to his leaving this place the L. O. L. No. 53, of which he is an honored member, held a banquet for him in the L. O. L. hall. Mr. Watts will be greatly missed at Four Falls. The farm he has bought is about a mile from Fort Fairfield on the Dorsey road. [Mr. Watts desires through THE DISPATCH to thank the friends who prepared the banquet in his honour.]

REV. S. A. BAKER and family went to Riverside Camp Ground, at Robinsons, Monday afternoon. Mr. Baker will for a fortnight look out for the building there of the large new tabernacle, the frame of which is already up. With his family he will then live for some six weeks at Meductic, N. B., and will afterwards spend some weeks at his cottage at Beulah Camp Ground, above St. John, during the time of the great camping there. It is expected that they will return to Fort Fairfield during the first half of August, doubtless to remain during the winter.—Fort Fairfield Review.

JOHN MCBRIDE, of Bellville, an old and respected resident, died at his home on Saturday morning at the age of 78 years. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, the service being conducted by the Rev. A. W. Taed. He leaves a widow, who was a Miss Strong, and three sons and one daughter.

FOREST fires are raging in this part of the country, in some cases doing a great deal of injury, destroying good fire wood sections, fences and sometimes buildings. Two fires have already swept from the sixth tier in to the Jackstown road. A fierce fire burned in Brighton on Sunday.

THE Canadian Pacific Railway will sell return tickets at single fare price on the 23rd, 24th and 25th, good to return on the 26th.

More Industries For Woodstock.

The committees of the town council and the board of trade went down to the works of the Meductic Meat Co. on Monday to look things over, to see what was being done in the manufacturing line, what the possibilities of expansion of the business were, and to discuss with Mr. Hay the probability of the company moving its works to Woodstock.

The committee of the council were J. T. Allan Dibblee, J. T. Garden and A. E. Jones. The board of trade was represented by William Dibblee, Williamson Fisher and H. P. Baird. They were very much pleased with what they saw and are anxious that so big an industry and one whose future is so well assured and which will naturally grow to much larger proportions should be located in Woodstock. Mr. Hay was in Woodstock last night and had a conference with the committees again.

Probably the question of granting a bonus to the Meat Company will be submitted to the rate payers at an early date, and if the bonus is not too large the vote should be emphatically "yes."

The advent of this industry to Woodstock means the coming here of at least twenty families, and the rate payers in these families will pay in taxes the interest on a good bonus.

It is only by the increase in the number and size of such industries as this, employing a large number of hands, that the town of Woodstock can hope to make any advance in population and wealth, and it is the duty of every citizen to encourage the council in its efforts to induce the Meductic Meat Co. to locate here.

A SPECIAL telegram to the St. John Sun has the following to say of George J. Raymond, formerly of this town:—"It develops that the Washington street merchant who is making it exceedingly troublesome for irregular politicians at the state house is not a Nova Scotian, but a New Brunswicker. The complainant, George J. Raymond, says he was born and brought up in Woodstock. He educated himself the best way he could and came to Boston via the St. John boat when he was fifteen years of age. Mr. Raymond's charges against certain members of the legislature, Senators Foster of Gloucester and Fitzgerald of Boston, that they attempted to collect money from him to have certain bills put through, created a sensation throughout the country, particularly in New England. The bribery investigation is still in progress at the state house. Mr. Raymond is a six footer, with Scotch features and has a splendid appearance. He is a prominent member of the Canadian Club of Boston."

The concert held on Tuesday evening last by the 67th Reg't band was very well attended. The splendid playing by the band was a prominent feature of the evening. A chorus of thirty voices sang three selections which brought forth applause. Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. George Gibson sang solos and were well received. Although the concert was got up at short notice, it was a most pleasant affair and a nice sum was realized by the band.

MAJOR GOOD, commanding officer of Woodstock Field Battery, arrived in town Monday from Kingston, Ont., where he had been attending a special course of instruction in field artillery. The major says there were fourteen field battery commanders in attendance at the course, representing nearly all field batteries in Canada.

J. J. HAYWARD, proprietor of the Bristol Wood Working factory was in town yesterday on business. He says the prospect is good for a fairly large amount of building in Carleton and Victoria Counties this season.

THE farmers are getting along well with their seeding. The grain is pretty well in and most of the potatoes. The ground is very dry and rain is sorely needed.

CARLETON COUNTY L. O. L. will meet in semi annual session with L. O. L. Kirkland, No. 57, on Tuesday, June 2nd, at 2 p. m. J. H. McKinney, County Secretary.

WORK will commence about the 1st of June on a new bridge to replace the old Red Bridge at Bellville. The present structure is in pretty bad shape.

ALFRED J. SILLS with his wife and family leave this week for California. Mr. Sills sold his property below town to Fred Cookson.

THERE will be a meeting of the Black Preceptory in the orange hall on Thursday evening, May 21st. Members will take notice.

WOODSTOCK Royal Arch Chapter meets Thursday evening next in Masonic Hall at 8 o'clock. Important business.

THERE will be a flag raising at the Centreville school on Empire day, Friday the 22nd inst.

Dead Flies Tickle no Noses.

It is the little worries that bother us, and nothing is more annoying than to have flies buzzing all around you, settling first on your ear, then on your nose or face, particularly when you want to rest. To brush them off is useless, they return at once. The use of Wilson's Fly Pads is the only sure way to get rid of the little pests. Buy a packet and clear your house in a few hours.

MASSACRE OF JEWS.

Fiendish Cruelty at Kishinep Unmatched in History—5000 Soldiers Look On.

St Petersburg, May 17.—Lieut. General Vonraaben, governor of Bessarabia (the capital of which is Kishinef) has been summoned to St Petersburg.

A ministerial circular forbidding the Jews to defend themselves has been issued. It is expected that this step will stimulate Jewish emigration to America.

Three thousand suits for damages have been instituted against the state at Kishinef. The damages demanded amount to $1,500,000.

Berlin, May 16—Reports received from Kishinef, say that during the three days' massacre of the Jews, 48 persons were killed outright, 80 have since died of their wounds, and upward of 1,600 were injured. Nine children were murdered in a horrible manner. One child was found with his body split in two. Most injuries were inflicted with pieces of furniture and heavy sticks. Such was the fury of the crowd that many of the bodies were unrecognizable. The Tagblatt publishes a special despatch from Kishinef which says:

"On the evening of the second day Russian doctors who were moved to pity by the horrible sights drove to a distant station and sent a telegram to St. Petersburg, informing the authorities of what was happening.

"The murderers and robbers were well organized. The attack had evidently been carefully planned. They worked in groups of eight or ten.

"The total number of the murderers did not exceed 300, whereas there were 5,000 soldiers and 300 police in the city.

The military and police calmly looked on while the atrocities were being committed, making not the slightest attempt to stop them. They gladly accepted many a good piece of loot thrown them by the ruffians.

"In some cases the barbarous wretches took their time over their awful work. One band in particular took possession of the dwelling of a Jew in good circumstances which promised to yield valuable plunder and leisurely killed and robbed.

GREAT RUSH WEST.

More Than 75,000 Immigrants Have Reached Canada, Mostly for the West.

Winnipeg, Mann., May 16.—Altogether more than 41,000 immigrants came to the Canadian West during the first four months of the present year. This is more than 3,000 greater than the whole immigration of 1901, when 38,063 arrivals were recorded. Mr. Sifton's hope that in the present fiscal year 75,000 settlers will locate in the West is already more than realized, for 75,566 have arrived in the ten months that have already elapsed of the Dominion year. The months of May and June are always amongst the heaviest number of arrivals. More than 18,000 immigrants landed in the West in those months last year, and, with the general increase in immigration, there is every reason to hope that the newcomers this year will number 25,000. This will bring the total for the year to the 100,000 mark.

An analysis of the April immigration reveals some interesting facts. Of the total, 8,578 were either English, Scotch, Welsh or Irish, and 7,058 were Americans. Thus 15,638 out of 23,320—just about two-thirds—are Anglo-Saxon stock. Next in point of numerical importance are the Germans, of whom 2,441 arrived. The Ruthenians (Galicians) were next in number with 2,110 settlers, and the Scandinavians—Icelandic, Swedish, Norwegian and Danish—close up with 2,056.

As is usual, there was a great disproportion between the sexes in April's immigration. There were 15,179 men to 3,579 women. The children under 12 numbered 4,622—2,495 boys and 2,127 girls.

The occupations of the new-comers showed a vast majority who professed to have had agricultural experience or were bent on going on farms. Of the 23,320, no less than 12,265 were going on farms. There were 962 who gave their occupation as mechanics, while 425 were clerks or traders; 1,227 were general laborers, and 192 were miners. There were only 12 recorded as domestic servants, and 8,237 were "not classified."

The destinations were: For Ontario, 517; for Manitoba, 10,103; for the Territories, 11,614; for British Columbia, 805, and for the Yukon, 3.

"Why not?"
