MODERN FABLES, - BY GEORGE ADE.

Once there was a Happy Young Pair, each of whom got stuck on the Photograph of the other, and thereupon a Marriage was arranged by Mail.

Shortly after taking the Life Risk they started in to get acquainted. Up to the time that they moved into the Arcadian Flats and begun to take Orders from the Janitor he never had seen little Sunshine except in her Evening Frock.

He had a sort of sneaking Suspicion that she arose every Morning already attired in a Paris Gown and all the Diamonds.

And she supposed that he went to the Office every Day in his regular John Drew Regalia with the Concertina Hat.

After she began to see Hubby around the Flat in his Other Clothes the Horrible Truth dawned upon her that he was not such a Hot Swell as he had looked to be in the Bunko Photograph.

Sometimes on Rainy Sundays he would cut out the Morning Service and decide not to Shave, and then when she got a good long look at him she would begin to doubt her own Judgement.

And so far as that is concerned there were Mornings, after they had been out Late to a Welsh Rabbit Party, when she was fairly hard to look at.

Love's Young Dream was handed several goshawful Whacks about the Time that they started in to get a Line on each other.

For instance, the first Morning at Breakfast it came out that her Idea of a Dainty Snack with which to usher in the Day was a Lettuce Sandwich, a Couple of Olives and a Child's Cup full of Cocos, while he wanted $35 worth of Ham and Eggs, a stack of Grid-dle Cakes and a Tureen of Coffee.

She was a Case of Ambrosia and Nectar, and he was plain old Ham and Spinach.

It used to give her Hysterics to see him bark at an Ear of Green Corn, at the same time making a Sound like a Dredge.

For Dinner she liked a little Consomme en Tasse and then a Nice Salet, while he insisted on a Steak the size of a Lap Robe and German Fried to come along.

They did not Mocha and Java at all on their Reading Matter. She liked Henry James and Walter Pater, and he preferred Horse Papers and the Comic Supplement. Sometimes when she would wander off into the Realms of Poesy he would follow her as far as he could, and then sit down and wait for her to get through rambling and come back.

If they took in a Show she was always plugging for Mrs Fiske or Duse, while he claimed that Rogers Brothers were better than Booth and Barrett had been in their Prime.

She would weep over a Tosti Serenade, and he would walk a Mile at any time to see a good Buck Dance.

When they got round to fixing up Invitation Lists there was more or less Geeing and Hawing.

All of his Friends belonged to the High-Binder Division. Their only Conception of a Happy Evening was to put the Buck in the Center of the Table, break a fresh Pack and go out for Blood.

Wifey found her most delicious Joy in putting passionate Shades on all the Lamps and sitting there in the Crimson Glow to discuss Maeterlinck and Maarten Maartens and a few others that were New Ones on the he-end of the Sketch.

When they had an Evening At Home up in the Flat it was usually a two-ring affair. She would have the Cerebellums in the Front Room looking at the New Books and eating Peppermint Wafers, while he and the other Comanches would be out in the Dining Room trying to make their House Rent and tossing off that which made Scotland famous. Sometimes it would take half the Night to get the Smoke out of the House.

Although she feared she had turned up the wrong Street while searching for her Affinity, the Partnership Arrangement had to stand.

They came to the Conclusion that Married Life is a Series of Compromises. If he did well while sitting in with some of his Friends, he would divide up with her, and she would take the Money and buy Art Pastels.

He would spot the Afternoons on which the Ethical Researchers were due at his Premises and he would go to a Dutch Restaurant.

She permitted him to have a Room and call it his Den, so that he and his Friends could do the Escape in case somebody in the Parlor started a Reading.

He put up the Coin to enable her to attend State Conventions, and when she was elected Recording Secretary of the Society for trying to find out what Browning was up to, he took her Picture around to all the Newspapers and told every one that he had a little Woman up at the House who was as Keen as a Hawk, as Swift as an Eagle and Sharper than Chained Lightning.

He fumbled a great many of her In-shoots, but that did not prevent him from admiring her Delivery.

Finally they arranged their separate Schedules so that they did not see much of each other, and they began to get along all right. Occasionally they had a slight Difference, but they could always patch it up. For instance, she selected Aubrey De Courcey as a Name for the First Born, while he held out for Bill, so they had to compromise on Aubrey De Courcey.

Aubrey is now 10 years of Age. Mother is teaching him how to Crochet and Father is showing him how to Draw without tipping off his Hand, while all the Friends are sitting around, waiting to see Aubrey's Finish.

Rid the System of Poisons,

And You Need Have No Fear of Appendicitis, Peritonitis and Other Dreaded Ills.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The Great Family Medicine.

When the bowels are constipated or sluggish in action the human body seems an easy prey to nearly every ailment to which human beings are subject.

The immediate result of inactivity of the bowels is the clogging and obstruction of the action of the kidneys and liver, the upsetting of the digestive organs and the forcing back into the system of poisonous impurities which contain the germs of disease.

Not only are colds and all contagious and infectious diseases more likely to attack a person subjected to constipation, but appendicitis, peritonitis, inflammation of the bowels and chronic dyspepsia are the direct result of neglecting to keep the bowels regular and active.

In health the bowels should move about once a day, otherwise, the effects are soon felt in the way of indigestion, headache, dizziness, bodily pains and feelings of uneasiness, languor and depression. The most prompt relief as well as the most thorough cure for constipation is Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills.

Mrs Andrew Hewey, St John street, Fredericton, N. B., states: This spring I had a sickness which left me in a very run down, nervous state. In fact for a number of years I have suffered to a great extent with nervousness and frequently had attacks of headache and dizziness. I also seemed to be very weak and was distressed with pains in the small of my back.

I have spent a great deal of money for medicine but obtained little or no relief until I procured some of Dr. Chase's preparations. I have been taking Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills and can say that the results of this combined treatment have been most remarkable. I never had any medicine build me up like the Nerve Food and I give the credit for curing the pains in my back to Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills. I cannot speak too well for these remedies since they have done me so much good.

I have also found Dr. Chase's Syrup of Lineed and Turpentine to be an excellent medicine as it cured one of my children of croup.

No merely cathartic medicine can do more than relieve constipation. The bile which is poured into the intestines by the liver is nature's cathartic and consequently healthy liver action is essential to regularity of the bowels. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have a direct action on the liver and kidneys as well as the bowels and for this reason effect a thorough cure for constipation.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are of inestimable value as a family medicine. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box. At all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Professor Kretschmer, of the Berlin Technical University, who holds a prominent position in the navy office, has patented a design for the hulls of ships. He was convinced that it is a mistake to imitate the shape of a fish, so he studied aquatic birds, with the result that he decided that the most efficient shape was that of a tetrahedron. Construction on these lines forms the basis of his invention. He claims that vessels of this shape will be fifty per cent more efficient than the existing types, and as there would be no wash this would be an immense advantage in internal navigation.

Coughs, colds, hoarseness, and other throat ailments are quickly relieved by Cresolene tablets, ten cents per box. All druggists

"He fails who climbs to power and peace Up in the pathway of disgrace. He fails not who makes truth his cause, Nor bends to win the crowd's applause. He fails not—he who stakes his all Upon the wright and dares to fall. What though the living bless or blame, For him the long success of fame."
