Robert Montgomery now has the contract for carrying the mail from here to Glassville, and intermediate points, and entered upon his duties on April 1st.

F. A. Phillips is confined to his house on account of illness. George Colwell has charge of the store in the meantime.

Rev. W. H. Smith preached in the Baptist church on Sunday evening.

The Sunday School convention at Bath on Thursday last was a very successful meeting. There were present; Rev. L. A. Fenwick, Rev. W. H. Smith, Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, Rev. D. Fisk, Rev. L. A. Lockhart and Rev. Charles Sterling, besides a number of lay delegates. Two interesting sessions were held. The county president, Mr. J. T. G. Carr, Hartland, was also present, and did much to make the sessions interesting and profitable.

KNOXFORD.

The ripple of excitement usual in such events flowed over the place last Tuesday afternoon, when Harry White led to the marriage altar, Miss Lena Currie, sister of Mrs. Chas. Margison, at whose home the service took place. Rev. E. S. Parker officiated in the presence of a number of the friends and relatives of the family. In the evening a well-ordered serenade was given the happy couple, followed by a generous treat to the charivariers. Mr. and Mrs. White will reside at Millinocket, Maine, whither they went on Thursday, followed by the best wishes of their many friends.

Mrs. Theodore Jamieson, whose life has been despaired of for several days and who has been faithfully attended by Dr. Peppers, of Centreville, is now considered out of danger.

The doctor has also had to make several calls on Mrs. Vandine who was suffering from an attack of erysipelas in the face. She is also on the mend.

Mrs. David Irvine is on the sick list.

Rainsford Trafford sold his farm to Austin Bartley and has bought another above Andover.

Mr. Chas. Smith who has left his farm in Upper Knoxford will occupy the Bartley house this summer.

We are expecting a contingent from Lowell, Mass. shortly the result of the shut-down in the cotton factories.

RICHMOND CORNER.

Maple sugar making is the order of the day. All report a favorable season.

Some of our prosperous farmers are building additions to their residences.

The band boys were entertained one evening recently at the home of Osburn Toms. The band rendered a number of selections. Cake and coffee were served. All report a good time.

Mr. Brown, agent for the Home Comfort Range Co., who has been boarding in this vicinity the past winter, has gone back into the employ of the company. He is very much missed.

Mrs. Harry Hay, our genial postmistress, has returned from Prince William where she was called by the illness of her parents.

Patrick Carlin is very ill with cancer of the stomach.

Thomas McGeorge, who has been sick for some time, we are sorry to say, is not improving.

Mrs. Ephraim Wilson, who underwent an operation for cancer in the face, is in a very critical condition.

Mrs. H. Montgomery is slowly improving.

Mrs. J. Gentle has returned from Houlton.

Purinton Bros. are doing a rushing business sawing wood.

C. C. Campbell, our enterprising merchant, says business is brisk.

Miss Ethel Dickinson and Miss Maggie Nason, of Debec, spent a few days with their friend, Miss Clara Currie, of this place.

Roland Hanson is erecting a new barn.

The Richmond Corner brass band are going to hold an Easter ball in the orange hall at Richmond Corner, April 13th. All are cordially invited. Ladies are requested to bring a cake. First-class music will be furnished.

CENTREVILLE.

Winter's reign has not yet been entirely broken as was felt the heavy weather Sunday. Sleights are once more very common.

Jack Lee has returned from Fredericton business college, and has once again entered C. M. Sherwood's employ as clerk.

The many friends of Miss Lara Ross are pleased to see her back again. Miss Ross will resume her position with Miss L. E. Fitzgerald as milliner, and we are sure the opening in the near future will be up-to-date in every way.

Mrs. W. D. Balloch, who has been spending the winter in Southern California is expected home soon.

Burton Clark left last week for Portland, where he has a position as clerk.

Mrs. Ludlow Estabrook, who has been spending a short time with her sister, Mrs. Anna Downey, returned to her home in Marysville recently.

Rev. F. B. Freeman's sermon in the Baptist church on Sunday morning last, was directed especially to the children of the Sunday School, who were there in large numbers. The entire congregation was very much interested and pleased.

WICKLOW.

It almost seems as though winter had returned as the ground is covered with snow.

Wicklow has been sleeping all winter, but is now slowly awakening.

On Thursday, 26th of March, the members of our union Sunday school met at the residence of our past superintendent, T. H. Estey, and presented him with an address and a large arm chair in appreciation of his work in our school. The ladies took cake and a very pleasant evening was spent. On the next Thursday evening we again met at the residence of Mrs. Sarah Gallop and another social evening was spent. She was also presented with an address and a small token in remembrance of her kindness among us.

Our Sunday school is progressing under our new superintendent, Herbert Olmstead.

Our day school is taught by Miss Jamieson, who, we believe, is giving satisfaction.

The Upper Wicklow school is taught by Miss Peters.

Miss Helen Hutchinson, who was so badly hurt last winter, has so far recovered as to be able to travel, and has gone to Lynn, Mass. We are sorry to lose her from among us, and our best wishes will follow her.

Mrs. Upton Squires has been spending a few days with her father at Upper Wicklow.

Harry Gallop is visiting friends in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blackie have been visiting at Mr. Blackie's home in Brighton.

Miss Marion Estey, who is attending Normal school, will spend the Easter holidays with her parents here.

Our farmers will soon be busy getting in crops.

We are glad to hear that T. G. Milberry, who has lately moved to Clear View and opened up a store, is doing a good business already.

Miss Albert Olmstead, who has been sick all winter, is able to be out again.

Bart Maddox is confined to his house by sickness.

Miss Lizzie Maddox is spending a few weeks at home.

BATH.

Deputy Sheriff Foster passed through the village on Sabbath morning in search of Charles Melville, the Blaine murderer. He was able to locate him near Andover, after having searched all Sunday night, and passed with him handcuffed in the train this morning (Monday). Mr. Foster deserves great credit for this act as well as other acts in so promptly securing criminals.

The Parish of Kent Sabbath School convention convened in the Free Baptist Church in this village on Thursday afternoon and evening. The Parish president Rev. L. A. Fenwick B. A., occupied the chair and John Farley acted as Secretary. A number of schools were reported in good working order. It was resolved to have all the dormant schools begin work in May if possible. The congregations were given much good advice and assistance by the County president, John T. G. Carr, of Hartland, who was present through all the meetings. In the evening stirring addresses were given by Rev. David Fisk, Anderson and Smith, of Florenceville, and president Carr and Rev. O. Stirling, of this place.

The Canadian Jubilee Singers were very much appreciated here last week, and a very large
