COUNTY COUNCIL.

Coun Brown thought the bills of the Union Telephone Company and Dr Ross should be looked into.

The secretary treasurer gave information as to his charge of $25 for professional services.

Coun Merrithew asked a written report paid $1.16. from the committee as to the items to which exception would be made, and a motion to that effect was carried.

Coun Kearney explained that he had opposed the grant to the hospital, as it was the peoples money. He moved that the councillors pay the amount credited to the hospital.

The motion was not entertained.

$700 was ordered assessed on Richmond for poor purposes, $400 on Brighton, $250 Peel, $150 on Wicklow, $350 on Aberdeen. Parish clerk of Peel was ordered paid $2, same for Wicklow, for Brighton $3.

$500 ordered assessed for poor purposes on Parish of Woodstock, parish clerk to be paid $5, clerk of Kent to be paid $3.

Lists of various parish officers were ap proved. Collector of rates for district in Aberdeen paid $9.40 for extra services.

Coun. Merrithew said that the returns of Road Commissioner, Henry Crabb of Richmond was incomplete and Commissioner Kennedy failed to send in any report consequently the Councillors for the Parish could not render a favourable report and these commissioners could not receive their commsssions until the councillors had seen them. $100 ordered assessed as damages to be paid to Lee Kennedy, and $11 paid Allen Burpee for expenses. Coun Gallagher moved $37 land damages assessed Kent be not paid, expenses connected with it be paid to C. H. Phillips. Carried.

Coun Forrest moved that land damages be assessed to $98 in connection with Kelly hill, and $60 paid to W H Scovil, $30 to J W Topson, $8 to John Lenihan. Carried.

Emmissioner McIntosh and Currie, Aberdeen were ordered $2.00 and $2.17 cents

Commissioner H. L. Dickinson, Brighton was given $5.00 extra services and charged to Brighton.

Bill of Samuel Sharp of Aberdeen $8.00 for repairs to road machine was ordered paid and charged to Aberdeen.

$600 was ordered assessed in Wakefield, $400 to front poor master, remainder to other two, for poor purposes. B Atcheson was refunded $1.50 poor ta charged to Wakefield.

Mos. Johnsons claim of over assessment was referred to assessors for correction. Following motion was adopted:-

Resolved that the Finance Committee and Secretary Treasure be authorized to loan from any Bank in the Town of Woodstock a sum for County purposes of $4000, and in case this is not sufficient to meet the demands, another $4000 and this Council authorize them to give bonds for the different amounts. $300 ordered assessed Parish Kent for poor purposes Parish clerks of Simonds and Wakefield ordered paid $3.00 and $5.00 he resign his position. The council did not respectively.

Coun Saunders moved that the Warden invite Mr Hubbard, agent for the C. P. R. for the transportation of agricultural products and live stock, to come before the June session and explain the objects of the railway. Seconded.

Coun Bohan favored the motion. We have a good country, but we are half a century behind the times. We should have a butter inspector for instance. He would favor a committee of three.

Coun Raymond said that Mr Habbard told him that he intended to bring a carload of young stock into the province the coming Coun Bull said Mr Hubbard would be at the Farmer's and Darrymen's Association which meets here shortly, and he thought that would afford the needed occasion.

Coun Kearney wanted to know who Mr Hubbard was.

Coun Brown said Mr Huobard was thoroughly practical farmer, who was now in the employ of the C. P. R. to increase agricultural developments. Motion carried.

Moved by Coun Gallagher and seconded by Coun McDonald that the collectors in the Parishes and the collecting J. P.'s be instructed to proceed forthwith and collect all lists in their hands using process of law if necessary, and make returns to treasurer of all monies collected and all delinquents on or before the 1st day of March next and pay over to him all monies collected by Parish clerk of Northampton was allowed $2 for his services.

Coun Brown said that Northampton has some poor commissioners, they wanted some renumeration and he moved that they be paid 3% on the money spent last year. Carried.

The sum of $45 was assessed on parish TCL Ketchum, (Co. Court Steno-Kent, land damages.

The sums of $8 each were paid two commissioners, Kent. On motion $14 will be paid John Cronin, and $13.75 to Eran Holmes, connection with road in Kent, and that Maurice Pierce be

On Upper Woodstock road district $115 was assessed, on motion Coun Forrest seconded Coun Bull.

In answer to Coun Skinner, Inspector Colpitts said the item of $26 in his report, was owned jointly by G. R. and Robt. Smith Bolton, Que., writes as follows: was paid by W A Campbell.

In answer to Coun Faulkner, the Inspector and Mr Campbell still owed $4 on a $50

Coun Skinner thought Mr Colpitts was cloaking matters.

Coun Bailey spoke of two bills not included in the Scott Act account. He read the following bills:---William Dibblee, 65.00 Banfred Colpitt, 12.64 and motion was duly carried that when sufficient monies were in the Scott Act fund, and not until then, should be paid.

Coun Bailey:-This makes a deficit o

Coun Skinner thought there must be some deception. First we had a bill that we were $12 behind, then other bills brought the deficit to $242.00.

Coun Gallagher and Bohan thought there was no need of the expenses of counsel in undefended cases.

Coun Bohan thought that between the magistrate, the prosecuting attorney and the inspector, there was no particular desire to put down liquor, but rather to carry the traffic along on certain lines. It looked like

The Inspector pointed out the difficulty in the way of making convictions. He would have been out of it long ago if he was in it for money. He could get more money other

The secretary treasurer said that he thought by the provisions of the act, where a detective was employed, a first, second and third offence could be proved by purchases within one week. A conviction could never be set aside unless exception was taken to the jurisdictirn.

Coun Bohan referred to the decision in the case of the Town of St Stephen, wherein it was shown that all moneys must be paid to the receiver-general of the province.

Coun Faulkner spoke of a compromise made in one case. Was that legal?

The secretary-treasurer said that there was no law allowing a compromise, but in conducting the Scott Act it was locked at as a quasi-criminal matter, and when there was difficulty in securing witnesses, it had been the liabit to settle with the parties for a certain amount less than what would he recoverered if the matter resulted in conviction.

Coun. Gallagher moved that the Scott Act report be received and recommendations
