

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Correspondents must send their names with each week's contribution, or their matter will not be printed. The names will not be published, but The Dispatch must know who is accountable for everything that is inserted in its columns.

Bath.

The farmers have begun cutting the hay which is turning out a better crop than was expected earlier in the season. There is very little old hay in the country around as the advance in price a few weeks ago enabled the farmers to realize a fair amount of money and they sold all, or nearly all of their old product to the buyers.

The Canadian Pacific Ry. Co., have lengthened the siding at the lower end of the village thus affording them larger yard room.

Amongst the visitors to this town this week was J. T. Allen Dibblee of the firm of W. F. Dibblee & Son Woodstock, N. B.

Miss Maud Milberry who has been visiting her old home and her aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Milberry in this town, left for her work as head matron in the St. Louis Hospital on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. Norton Kinney, of Haverhill, Mass., who has been spending the summer with her parents here Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Shaw, returned home last week.

Mrs. Seth Millberry and daughter Miss Ida Millberry, of New York City and formerly old residents of Wicklow are making their old home a visit and are the guests of their relatives Mr. and Mrs. Amos F. Giberson of this village.

Jabez C. Squires, of Sydney, C. B., a former resident here, after spending a couple of weeks at the "Beulah Camp" arrived in the village and spent a day or so with friends and relatives, left also for his home in Sydney on Tuesday last.

Dr. M. E. Cummins has his large and commodious new house all up and enclosed.

Eber Kearney will begin the erection of his new house on the site where the Ziba Giberson house stood that was destroyed by fire a little over a year ago.

Maurice Pierce, of Holmesville, has purchased a lot on the new street recently laid out and will begin in the spring the erection of a dwelling.

Hamilton Grey the popular barber in town will build near Thatcher Barker's, on the same street.

The work is rapidly progressing on the new Methodist church, the building being all enclosed and about shingled. The new addition to the Bath school house is nearly completed.

Rev. L. A. Fenwick the pastor of the Free Baptist church, here along with Rev. A. F. Currier, of Woodstock, N. B., is spending a few days on a fishing trip on the Marimichi.

Gilbert F. Giberson has given his new livery stable a coat of paint and has swung a handsome new sign.

Hamilton Giberson is repairing and repainting his hotel and has built a large new sample room in connection with his house, the Exchange.

J. T. Garden and Charles Comben, of Woodstock, made this town a call on Thursday.

Red Rapids.

Saul Perley, of Upper Woodstock, was in this place on business. His many friends were pleased to see him.

We have quite a number of visitors among us at present. Mrs. McClary and family, are at her mother's Mrs. Crawford. The Misses Bird, of Edmundston, are at their aunt's Mrs. Merrithew. Mrs. Chesley, of Boston, is at Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Sisson at Mrs. Leonard's.

A goodly number attended services at Birch Ridge on Sunday, July 26th, and also took in the rugged scenery on the Otletic.

Everett.

Edward Wright and wife and son, of Gillespie Settlement, made their relatives quite a visit in this place recently. Mr. Wright caught a fine lot of trout.

David Aiton, of Plaster Rock, made us a pleasant call recently on his way to Riley Brook.

We are having quite a raise of water in the river now. James McNair passed through here last week on his way up to take his crew off the river, as the water is too high for his work of deepening the channel.

There is talk of putting a steam boat on the river to ply between Plaster Rock and Riley Brook.

Mrs. J. F. Watters is at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Everett, of this place.

Mrs. Fred Watters, of Everett, and Mrs. James F. Watters, of Riley Brook, were visiting friends at Burnt Land Brook last week.

Miss Amy Knowlton and Mrs. I. G. Everett were visiting at Wm. Everett's, Burnt Land Brook, last week.

Lakeville.

The vacancy in the teaching staff of the Primary Department of our school is not yet filled.

Haying seems to be the order of the day. We hope the weather this week will be more suitable in this belated season.

Miss Annie Hipwell, Woodstock, is visiting her friend Miss Bessie Carvell.

Mildred Carvell, of Woodstock, is visiting her grandmother this week.
