A. O. H. Celebration.

The A. O. H., of Bath, held their fifth anniversary in McCready's Hall on Wednesday evening, Oct. 14th. It was a joint celebration, as it was also the first anniversary of the Ladies Auxiliary. A short programme was presented, after which the "light fantastic" was tripped to the excellent music furnished by Mrs. Colton and Mr. Hale. About 11 o'clock supper was announced, and all, about 100 couples, sat down to a delightful table set out by the Ladies Auxiliary. The programme consisted on an address of welcome from Miss Kate Bohan, president of the Ladies Auxiliary, A. O. H.; song, "The Harp," by Father Murphy, Debec; address on "The Social Side of the A. O. H.," by County Chaplain Father Dollard; recitation by Miss Mary Gallagher; address, "The Progress of Bath Division, A. O. H.," by Mr. Patrick Gorey; recitation by Miss A. Doucette; address on the "Aims of the Society," by Mr. Patrick Corbett; recitation by President Charles F. Gallagher; song by Father Dollard. Father Dollard's speech carried the audience off their feet. He denounced in unmeasured terms, and with contagious scorn, the bad taste which taught the children of Irish parents to despise the glorious melodies of their own race and genius, and cultivate the vulgar and offensive style of the "coon" and slang effusions of the music halls of London and New York. Father McCarthy, of Houlton, Me., and Father Murphy, of Debec, occupied seats on the platform as guests of the Rev. Chaplain. Numerically and financially the Bath Division, A. O. H., is one of the strongest in the province, and bids fair under the capable and energetic management of its officers to eclipse all previous records. They have decided to organize immediately with a view to helping generously in the erection of a suitable hall which Father Dollard contemplates building in Johnville next year, and which has been long desired by the people of the parish.—Correspondence to St. John Globe.

Perhaps It Would.

MR. EDITOR.—There has been an unsightly pile of rubbish piled on the edge of the sidewalk at the once Town Hall on Main street since the early summer. Today I notice a dead cat is added to the pile. Would it not be well for the City Fathers to see to its removal before the snow comes.

Fit-Reform
READY TAILORED CLOTHES

About Vests.

How few tailors pay proper attention to vests. As long as the buttons are on straight, it's all right. Even if it is too big, they give the strap a pull—tighten it—and defend themselves by saying "the vest won't show anyhow."

But it does. Ill fitting, "pulled-in" Vests have a bad habit of wrinkling at the waist, and bulging out at the collar.

That is the strong point of "FIT-REFORM" Clothes—perfection in every detail—the most scrupulous attention to every part of every garment. "FIT-REFORM" Vests are made just as carefully—fit just as snugly—as "FIT-REFORM" Coats. And when the whole suit is on, it is a suit of perfection—every stitch, every line, every garment absolutely faultless.

Usual sizes to fit the normal man—special sizes to fit the unusual man. No matter how difficult you are to suit, there's a perfect fit for you in the "FIT-REFORM" WARDROBES.
