

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Correspondents must send their names with each week's contribution, or their matter will not be printed. The names will not be published, but The Dispatch must know who is accountable for everything that is inserted in its columns.

Andover.

Mrs. and Miss Hopkins have returned from Boston, after a month spent there. Mrs. Bertha Waite and Mrs. Benj. Beverage, who have both been ill, are much better. Lea Bedell is recovering from a severe attack of quinsy.

Mrs. C. W. Lewis has returned from a short visit at East Florenceville.

Revs. B. S. Freeman, of Centreville, and R. W. Demmings exchanged pulpits on Sunday.

On Monday T. J. Carter went to Fredericton in behalf of the W. C. T. U., of Perth, to lay before the judges the matter of illegal liquor licensing in that place. The citizens of Perth are becoming thoroughly awake to the fact that the liquor traffic there is materially injuring not only the morals, but also the reputation of their thriving little village, and are making an earnest effort to abolish it.

There is considerable excitement at Aroostook Junction, and vicinity about a supposed wild man, who has been seen by a number at different times. He is said to be a powerfully built man of repulsive face and threatening manner, and has entirely dispensed with the formality of dress.

Bristol.

Rev. John Perry preached in the Baptist church on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers, Boston, are visiting friends and relatives in Bristol.

Dr. Colter, Sheriff Hayward and Mr. John Watt, were in Bristol on Thursday last returning from a fishing trip on the Miramichi.

Tappen Adney, Woodstock, came up on Saturday, and went to the Miramichi waters, armed with a fishing rod, and kodak.

Emery Hotham who has been very seriously ill for some days, is somewhat better, and hopes are now entertained for his recovery. Dr. Somerville is in attendance.

The Sunday School held its annual picnic Tuesday afternoon.

John Miller who has been visiting his relatives at Glassville, after an absence of forty years, returned to his home in California last week.

Owing to repairs being made to the school house, school will not open until next Monday. The teachers will be Mr. Abram Cronkite and Miss A. M. Hartley.

Dr. C. B. Whelpley, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is visiting at G. A. Brittain's. Mrs. Whelpley has been spending the summer at home, and they will return to Iowa in September. Miss Ella Brittain is also visiting her old home for a few weeks.

Quite a number of our citizens intend taking in the Woodstock Carnival on Wednesday and Thursday.

West Glassville.

Mrs. Alcorn, who was at home during her mother's fatal illness returned to Portland, Maine, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Rogers and little daughter, Doris, of Boston, Mass., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Jones last week.

Some of our folk were present at the wedding, which took place at the Presbyterian church of Glassville, Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Foster, of Windsor, and Mr. William Montgomery, of Glassville, were united in marriage by Rev. J. K. Beairto.

Mrs. John MacLachlan is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Byron Brown, of Lower Brighton.

David Brewster jr., and Ernest Logue returned to their homes Saturday.

Miss Effie MacIntosh, of Glassville, was the guest of Miss Margaret MacLachlan Sunday.

Burton Boyer, of Bristol, visited relatives in this place recently.

Lakeville.

The schools in the village will open on Wednesday. It is understood the services of Miss Lena Kearney, Lower Wakefield, have been secured for the primary department.

Mrs. Havelock Wilson has been in very poor health since she returned from Chatham. On Sunday last Drs. Beairto and Rankin held a consultation over the case. We hope she may speedily recover.

Cecil Wilson sang a very effective solo at the Free Baptist service Sunday night. Her voice shows remarkable strength and sweetness for a child of twelve years.

Robert Jones is making extensive repairs on the interior of his home.

Mrs. Asa Webber, of Houlton, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents.

Louis King a son of Dr. Wallace King, Richibucto, is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenwick Fowler, Miss Myrtle Fowler and Louis Carvell made a circuitous driving tour last week embracing the beautiful scenery of Hartland, Florenceville, Wicklow, Greenfield, etc.

Miss Emma Carvell was a guest at E. C. Turner's, Centreville, recently.

Jack McBride was the guest of J. R. Fowler Saturday and Sunday.

Leslie Huggard a former teacher here but now a medical student at the University of Vermont, Burlington, was in the village last week calling on his many friends.

Miss Carrie Tracey, Boston, arrived home Sunday and will spend her two weeks vacation here.

Stanley Barker, Bath, was in the village on Saturday.

The Misses Georgie and Maud Everett of Philadelphia, are visiting their uncle, Howells Corbett.

Your Vacation Suit, Ready to put on.

Most men don't realize what their wardrobe lacks, until just at going-away time. To a man in a hurry Fit-Reform clothes are "a friend in need." Instead of selecting the cloth, you select the suit—made up, ready-to-try-on. Any alterations necessary, are completed in a few hours, and you have a tailor-made, finished-to-order suit—selected, tried on, fitted and delivered the same day. The man who buys in a hurry, because his tailor has disappointed him, is sure to disappoint his tailor by becoming a firm friend of "Fit-Reform." For what chance made a necessity, calm judgment will approve.

Ready Tailored Clothes

Weaves and patterns—shades and colors—that mirror every dictate of fashion. Sizes to fit every figure.

Suits and Overcoats, $10 to $30.
Trousers, $3, $4, $5 and $6.

Fit-Reform Wardrobe, B. B. MANZER, Woodstock, N. B.

Miss Myrtle Anderson passed the Normal school entrance examination successfully and is making preparations to attend next session. Mr. and Mrs. John Bricknell, Mars Hill, were the guests of M. C. Smith, Sunday.

Many of the younger portion of the village are hustling through the haying season in order to see the wonderful sights advertised for Woodstock's carnival.

Richmond.

Mrs. George Gilkey and daughter Edna, of Wisconsin, who have been visiting relatives in this place returned home last week.

The Rev. J. E. Flewelling, Mrs. Flewelling and children spent their vacation at Andrew McIntyre's.

Mrs. F. Harrison and Miss Harrison, of Mauderville, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Thomas McIntyre.

Allan and Hugh, sons of the Rev. Henry Montgomery, Rector of Kingsclear, have been spending their holidays with friends here.

Walter Hay, of McKenzie corner was taken very ill last Friday. Dr. Griffin was called and decided to operate at once, and although Mr. Hay is over 70 years of age he is doing well. Miss Parent is nursing him.

Dr. Tracy, of Philadelphia, is visiting his parents.

Miss Josie Currie, Exeter, Maine, is home for a vacation.

The Rev. A. W. Teed accompanied his mother as far as St. John last week. Miss Maggie Campbell was visiting at Red Bridge last week.

Everett.

Dr. Coffin called here the other day on his way up Tobique to disinfect the house of Mrs. John McDougald, who has recovered from that dread disease, small pox. There are no other cases in the vicinity.

Mrs. Elijah Grant is visiting relatives in this place.

The rattle of the mowing machine is heard in the land. The hay is being got into the barns in good condition.

A great many sportsmen from the United States are spending their vacations with us this year. They are all enthusiastic over the scenery on the Tobique.

Blueberries will be a short crop this year. There will be almost none at all.

Mason Johnson, the popular agent of the Massey Harris Co., took dinner at Everett House the other day on his way back from Riley Brook, where he was putting in a Magnet separator for S. R. Hayden.

We were pleased to see Fred. Estey and Thomas Cox back in our midst again.

There are some improvements going on here this summer. Thomas Porter is building a barn. Messrs. Geo. Padged, Robert Clyde and Peter McCarty are also putting up new barns. John A. McDonald is building a large house, and G. L. Everett is extending his building.

THE vacancies on the staff of the Woodstock schools caused by the resignation of Mr. N. Foster Thorne, who has accepted the editorship of the "Sentinel" and of Mr. Frank A. Good, who has accepted the position of teacher of Science in the Fredericton High School, have been filled by the trustees who have accepted the application of Mr. H. B. Loggie, B. Sc., of Chatham, for the first position, and that of Mr. Aaron Perry, M. A., of Lake View, Queens county for the latter.
