THERE was a special town meeting at Presque Isle last Thursday to see if the town would loan its credit for $10,000 to aid in the construction of an electric road to Washburn. As most of the farmers were attending the reunion and circus, the village people had things all their own way, and the money was voted.—Fort Fairfield Review.

MR. FRANK DICKINSON, of Woodstock has been playing ball this season with a team of the Mountain Athletic Club, of Fleishman in the Catskill Mountains, and has as yet not lost a game. The other day the Fleishman Herald, in referring to a game said:—"The victory on Friday was largely due to the excellent pitching of Dickinson, but one hit being charged against him."

THE preparations for the Annual Midsummer Carnival, August 15th and 13th, are progressing rapidly. Gallagher Bros. offer a good programme of horse races for both days, giving away in prizes the sum of $1200. There will be four races; on the 12th, there will be the 2-25 class and the 2-35 class, and on the 13th the 2-21 class and the 2-30 class. These will be the first horse races in town this year.

A VERY pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Seeley on Tuesday the 14th, the occasion being a party given in honor of their guests, Miss Carrie Boyer, of Woodstock, N. B., and Miss Ada Cook, of Bridgewater, Maine. Music was furnished by Prof. Cleaves. Ice cream and cake were served and the party broke up in the "wee, sma' hours," all voting the evening an entire success.—Presque Isle Star Herald.

ONE day last week Mr. A. J. Best, the tailor, of Meductic walked into the blacksmith shop of William E. Dickinson and told him all the different things he could do to him with one hand, and all the various sorts of ways he could lick him. He further very illadvisedly, sought to lay hands on Mr. Dickinson, who promptly gave him a couple and laid him out. Later in the week Mr. Dickinson had the pugilistic gentleman down in Fredericton before Judge Marsh, where he was fined $20, and costs and was bound over to keep the peace.

FOR SALE.

A good milch cow, apply to FRANK FOSTER, opposite Woodworking Factory.

Chocolate for Instance.

To know how excellent our soda is, suppose you test our chocolate. Most people like chocolate, most can judge quality.

The making of a perfect chocolate syrup is a lot of trouble. Costs considerable, too; a fine flavored, soluble, free-form-grease chocolate is expensive.

We pay a fancy price for ours and would pay more if we could get better. And we take the trouble to use it rightly. The same regard for quality marks our soda service through.

TWO KINDS OF GRASS.

The Minister Finally got the Source of his Text

At a certain revival meeting of colored folks in a church in North Carolina the minister announced from the pulpit: "My tex' is 'Let de woman l'arn in silence wid all subjection.' You will done fin' it in de secon' chapter, 'leventh varse, ob Clover.'" At this mention of an unknown epistle a good brother plucked the coat tails of the minister. The latter turned round, then again faced the audience. "In spite of de interruption," he said, "I repeat de tex' am from de secon' chapter, 'leventh varse, ob Clover.'" Again the coat tails were plucked, and the minister glared at the plucker, only to turn once more to the congregation. "Budder Johnson," he said, "objects to de tex' 'Let woman l'arn in silence.' We all know dat Sister Johnson am not a silent woman. But I done repeats dat de tex' will be foun' in de secon' chapter, 'leventh varse, ob Clover.'" Here Brother Johnson rose to the minister's ear and whispered earnestly. "Oh!" said the dominie. Then to the gaping people: "I asks Sister Johnson's pardon. Her husband says I made a mistake, he is dat triflin'. My tex' will not be foun' in de secon' chapter, 'leventh varse, ob Clover, but in de secon' chapter, 'leventh varse, ob Timothy. I knowed it was some kind ob grass."
