Nine were seen in one herd one day. Mr. Thomas Bridges who has about 200 acres in hay says that under the most favourable weather conditions that can possibly exist between now and haying, he will not get more than half a crop.

Pure Cream Ice Cream

We use only the purest, richest cream in our ice cream—no gelatine, corn starch or other adulterants. Then we use no artificial essences for flavoring it—only ripe fruit pulps or juices or high grade extracts. The result is the most deliciously flavored, fine grained and the most altogether satisfactory ice cream it is possible to make.
