BRISTOL races today.

REV. J. W. McCONNELL, of the Central church, Moncton, preached in the Methodist church at both services on Sunday last.

SAMUEL ARSCOTT, who after a residence of some years in Benton returned to Ontario a couple of years ago, is back among his friends in this county again.

HARRY WATT, night agent of the C. P. R. at Canterbury Station, and who is now taking his holidays, left on Monday for River de Chute on a fishing trip.

A NEW street has been laid out in the village of Bath, running from the C. P. R. station, on the eastern side of the railway, north to the main highway at John McCready's.

In the Free Baptist Star Bible Class the following young ladies won first class honours: Miss Isabella Smith 98%, Miss Leora M. Harmon 97%, and Miss Maud Slipp 85%.

THE MANUFACTURERS LIFE is the only company in Canada that gives total abstainers cheaper rates than non-abstainers. It is very much to the advantage of all total abstainers to insure in this company.

THE young people of St. Paul's church will hold a concert and ice cream social at Mrs. Donald Munro's on Thursday evening of this week. An admission fee of ten cents will be charged. Ice cream and cake will be for sale.

BAIRD & PETERS, blenders and packers of Vim Tea, have decided to give the citizens of St. John the pleasure of a series of band concerts, an example in public spirit that is worthy of emulation. They have arranged with the City Cornet Band to give a series of fourteen concerts.

THE Catholics of Newburg intend holding their picnic on the grounds of Mr. John McKinney, Newburg Junction on Wednesday, July 15th. The usual sports and attractions will be on hand, and low rates east and west by C. P. R. Should the weather be unfavorable picnic will be postponed until next day.

MRS. WILLIAM A. CONNOLLY and Mrs. John E. Estey of Jacksontown, met with a serious accident on Saturday night. While driving a spirited horse, the animal became frightened at the noise made by a truck wagon. He ran away, throwing out the occupants of the carriage and injuring them severely. Though no bones were broken they were badly bruised.

J. Frank Tilley, Dairy Superintendent, has been invited by the Maine State Commissioner of Agriculture to attend a meeting of the Maine State Dairy Instructors and cheese and Butter Makers, which opens at Augusta on Tuesday July 7th. Mr. Tilley's assistance is requested in organizing and developing the Dairy industry of Maine. While in Augusta he will be the guest of the State of Maine.

On Thursday evening, July 2nd, the DuBerg Comedy Co., will appear for one night only. This company is under the personal direction of Mr. W. C. Connors and is highly recommended by press and public as the best repertoire company on the road this summer. They will present the great railroad play, The Pay Train. Besides the play this company carries six high class specialties making one grand continuous entertainment.

THE dwelling house of Mr. W. S. Tompkins on the newly purchased farm at Meductic, is undergoing a thorough renovation, commencing in the cellar a new cement floor is being laid and a new furnace installed. The house is being papered and painted throughout and new hard wood floors will be laid on the first floor. The outside of the house will be painted. This will be a model dwelling by the time Mr. Tompkins is ready to move in.

On Friday, June 19th, the occasion of the 25th anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Nickerson and Mr. Nickerson's 50th birthday, a party of thirty five friends gathered at their residence and gave them a pleasant surprise party. They brought some valuable and handsome presents of silver to attest their good will. After a delightful evening was spent Mrs. Nickerson served luncheon in the dining room. The party broke up about nine o'clock after an evening they will not soon forget.

MR. O. R. MERRITT, a graduate of Ricker Classical Institute, graduated last week from the Law department of the Southwestern Baptist University at Jackson, Tenn., and has successfully passed the prescribed examinations before the State board of law examiners for that State. Mr. Merritt made a high rank in scholarship while he was a student here and his many friends in this town will be pleased to hear of his success in another State.—Bangor Daily News. Mr. Merritt was born in Bristol Carleton County, where his mother now resides.

MARGARET, widow of the late James Stevenson, died at her home in St. Andrews, on Monday, June 29th, in the 84th year of her age, after a short illness of pneumonia. She leaves one son, Frederick A., postmaster, and four daughters, Mrs. J. S. Maloney, and Mrs. E. G. Clinch, of St. Andrews, and Mrs. A. F. Garden and Mrs. George Mitchell, of Woodstock. Miss Marguerite Lamb, also of this town is a granddaughter. Mrs. Stevenson was a member of the Methodist church, and highly respected in the community. She resided for several years in this town, and will be remembered by the older residents.

WILLIE H. REID of Hartland, succumbed to that dread disease consumption, on the 22nd inst., at the age of 17 years and 6 months. He was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Reid, and beloved by all who knew him. A gloom prevails over the entire community, because of the going out of a young life so full of promise here. Naturally the sorrow is felt most keenly by the parents, four sisters and a brother. On the 23rd a large concourse of people assembled at the home and later on at the church to manifest their sympathy to the sorrowing ones, and pay the last tribute of respect to the departed. Services were conducted by pastor J. D. Wetmore, assisted by Rev's Hayward and Perry, F.B.—Com.

Pure
Cream
Ice
Cream

We use only the purest, richest cream in our ice cream—no gelatine, corn starch or other adulterants. Then we use no artificial essences for flavoring it—only ripe fruit pulps or juices or high grade extracts. The result is the most deliciously flavored, fine grained and the most altogether satisfactory ice cream it is possible to make.
