

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., SEPT. 21, 1904.

Middle Southampton.

A. J. Way has sold his property here and is moving to Woodstock where he has purchased the Turner House and intends to take charge some time this week. Mr. Way is a native of Southampton and has conducted a blacksmith and repair business here for the last seven years during which, by his obliging manner, and careful execution of work, he has built up a good business and won many friends. On Saturday evening some fifty of these latter, by previous arrangement, assembled at his residence and thoroughly enjoyed an old time sociable evening, a pleasing feature of which was the following address and presentation:

To our respected and beloved neighbors and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Albion J. Way:—
 "As a slight token of our esteem and respect, we, your sincere friends and neighbors, have thought we could do no less on this the eve of your departure from our midst, than to gather once more under your hospitable roof, and express our best wishes for your future prosperity. Your departure, from our point of view, is extremely regrettable; but we nevertheless trust and expect it will be to your united betterment, as well financially and socially as spiritually. From our many years acquaintance and association with you we have learned to respect your many estimable qualities, as neighbors, as helpers in times of sickness, as good friends and companions when friends and companionship were most needed, whether in sorrow or the lighter affairs of life. Also as words are but leaves while deeds are fruit we have not only met here to offer our best and heartfelt wishes for your future welfare, and to spend a last enjoyable evening with you here; but have brought with us, as a reminder of old associations in Southampton, and as a tangible though small token of our regard, this Morris chair, which we now present to you Mr. Way and your estimable lady with the hope that you may spend many happy hours in it.

Signed on behalf of your many friends:—
 Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Akerly, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Akerly, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Farnham, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Akerly, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Oldham, Mr. and Mrs. E. Woodman, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Ingraham, Chas. W. Dunham, W. K. Oldham, A. B. Ingraham, LeBaron Ingraham, Edwin Hartin, committee.

It was a genuine surprise party as far as Mr. and Mrs. Way were concerned and they had scarcely recovered their balance from so many people coming in on them so unexpectedly when the address and presentation were sprung on them. As was very natural Mr. Way was at a loss for words of thanks just at first, but after he got fairly going he made a very good attempt indeed, which was heartily applauded. It is needless to say that the ladies had not overlooked the wants of the inner man and just in time to not encroach upon the Sabbath, after partaking to the full of cakes, confections and ice-cream, the very pleasant gathering dispersed, the strains of the well known hymn, "God be with you till we meet again," sang by nearly all persons, mingling with good nights and good byes.

The Key to the Situation.

Baron Kaneko, of Japan, is spending the summer in the Maine woods, and the people of the picturesque Maine village of Harpswell enjoy greatly his interesting comments on American life.

"I don't know," said Baron Kaneko one day, "that I altogether approve of the compulsory instruction in music that is put up on American children. If a boy or a girl has an ear for music, then cultivate it by all means, but don't try to make musicians out of all children indiscriminately, and thus you will avoid such household conversations as one I overheard the other day. I was on a train and a father and his young son sat near me. The father said:

"John, do you practice regularly on the piano while I am away at business?"

"Yes, father," replied the boy.

"Every day?"

"Yes, sir."

"How long did you practice today?"

"Three hours."

"And how long yesterday?"

"Two hours and a half."

"Well, I'm glad to hear that you are so regular."

"Yes, father."

"And the next time you practice be sure you unlock the piano. Here is the key. I locked the instrument last week and I have been carrying the key in my pocket ever since."

SUCCESSFUL MOTHERS.

You will always find that the mothers who are successful in bringing up families of hearty, healthy children are those who are careful to note the slightest evidence of illness and to check it at once. The wise mother gives her children Baby's Own Tablets at the first symptom of any childish ailment, and almost at once the little one is all right. Mrs. Thos. Stevenson, 13 Bishop St., Halifax, N. S., says: "It gives me pleasure to be able to speak of the great value of Baby's Own Tablets. I always give them to my children when they are ailing in any way, and they speedily make them well. I would advise every mother to keep the Tablets in the house." The Tablets allay teething irritation, cure colic and stomach troubles, prevent constipation, destroy worms, allay fevers and break up colds. They can be given safely to a new born child. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail at 25 cents a box by writing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Ruined The Echo.

What has become of the splendid echo we could hear from yonder bluff last season?" asked the returned guest of the summer-hotel landlord, as they met on the veranda.

"Well, I'll tell you. After you left last fall there was a bunch of these here college students come, an' one night they got full of love for Almy Mater, or some other woman, so they said, an' was likewise full o' something else, an' they got out here in front o' the hotel, an' all at once an' all together they cut loose with the dadblamedest thing about 'Rah, rah, rah!' an' a whole lot more to the same effect, an' that there echo just naturally must 'a' give up the ghost an' quit, for the next mornin' one o' the hired men was over there on the bluff, an' he said the ground was torn up fer a space o' fifty feet square, an' there seemed to have been a terrible struggle. At any rate, we ain't seen nor heard nothin' o' the echo sence."
