

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., NOV. 23, 1904.

Jacksonville.

Our first snow came to us in a raging storm on Monday last, giving us a week of good sleighing. All hope that winter has come to stay and that this snow will soon be followed by more.

On Friday evening a temperance meeting was held in the Baptist church. Rev. J. C. Berrie was chosen chairman, a large congregation was present and Rev. J. A. Cahill in his jovial and yet enthusiastic manner gave an able and interesting lecture on temperance. He showed the evil effects of strong drink on mankind and pointed out where all classes could be benefited not only financially but intellectually and morally if we had a prohibitory law.

The young folk are making good use of the moonlight nights and good roads. On Thanksgiving evening, Messrs. Johnson Clark and Harvey London furnished teams for a driving party to Mr. A. Aiterton's. Although they were taken unexpectedly all enjoyed themselves and express thanks to the host and hostess for the pleasant evening spent at their home.

Mr. Herbert Harper is confined to the house with sickness, the result of overwork.

Miss Harding spent a few days of last week visiting her cousin at Jacksontown.

The many friends of Miss Annie Kinney, teacher in the primary department, regret to hear of her sickness caused by a heavy cold. Miss Alma Havens is acting as a supply.

Miss Snow was given a surprise party on Saturday evening and an enjoyable time was spent.

On Wednesday the 16th instant at six p. m., at the home of her father Mr. Margison, Mrs. Laura Wolhaupter and Mr. Fraser Everett were united in marriage by the Rev. Joseph Cahill. Both are popular members of the young people's society and all send them many best wishes for a happy and prosperous life. They will reside at Mr. Everett's home, Lower Jacksontown.

Mrs. Jewett and son, Frank, of Bloomfield, spent Saturday and Sunday here, the guests of Mrs. Jewett's sister.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary of the Methodist church was held in the church on Wednesday evening. In the absence of the President, Mrs. A. Wiley, who was called away by the sickness of her brother, Mrs. J. C. Berrie, first vice president, took the chair, conducting the devotional exercises, the pastor leading in prayer. The responsive reading was 1 Cor. 13th chapter. Then came the "roll call." Members answering by a verse of scripture. Another hymn was sung and Mrs. Edward London read in an impressive manner "Mrs. Rush at Branch Meeting." Then followed a solo by Miss Berrie sung with much expression and an admirably rendered recitation by Mrs. Archie Plummer "The Thanksgiving Sermon." Members of the Mission Band added not a little interest. Little Agnes London sang very sweetly a solo, Grace Harper and Chrissie Tilley gave a duet appropriate to the occasion and in excellent taste, little Georgie Plummer in a clear voice gave an effective recitation "What a Little Brown Penny Can Do." The report of the branch meeting was read by Miss Berrie the delegate. Collection, singing and the benediction brought a most interesting evening to a close.

Richmond.

Mrs. Mansfield London died at St. John, November 8th, another victim to the Richmond Corner fire. Awakened from a sound sleep by the cry of fire she received a shock from which she never recovered. She will be very much missed as she was always helping the needy.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tracy and daughter, Alice, have taken rooms at the Carlisle hotel, Woodstock, for the winter.

The Thanksgiving supper held by the ladies of St. John's church was a success in spite of cold weather and bad roads. Everything passed off well. Nearly $50.00 was added to the church funds.

Andover.

Everyone is enjoying the excellent sleighing.

Miss Amy Libby, of Fort Fairfield, spent a few days this week with her cousin, Miss Mae Waite.

Miss Ethel Baird, of Woodstock, who was spending a few days at Senator Baird's returned home on Monday.

Miss Mary Holt, of Presque Isle, was in town calling on friends this week.

Miss Lena Baird entertained a few friends on Monday evening.

Miss Mae Waite entertained on Tuesday evening.

The Baptists held an experience social on Thanksgiving night and thank offerings were received to the amount of five hundred dollars.

The new church is progressing very rapidly and when completed will be a fine edifice.

Miss Pearl Waite entertained friends on Friday evening.

Miss Nellie Sadler is visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. T. Baird.

Mrs. D. Sadler who was spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Baird, returned home on Friday.

Frank W. Stevens is home for a few days. Miss Hester Edgecombe spent Thanksgiving at Mrs. S. P. Waite's.

County Court is in session this week which always makes times a little more brisk.

Repairs are being done to Trinity church. A new furnace is being installed.

Miss Helen Manzer entertained the young folks Guild of Trinity church on Tuesday evening.

Rev. Arthur Ross was in town for a few days.

We are sorry to hear of the severe illness of Mrs. C. M. Tibbitts and Miss Mariam Baxter and hope for their speedy recovery.

Miss Ina Baxter spent Sunday at home, returning to Fredericton on Monday.

Mrs. A. J. Beveridge is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Kinney, of Caribou.

Mr. Olmstead, of Grafton, visited his son, Charles, at Perth last week.

The Rev. Mr. Fenwick was in town last week.

Mrs. Peter Anderson, of Perth, who has been quite ill is improving.

A number of friends have been helping Warren Jamer to get in his year's supply of wood. Mr. Jamer had the misfortune to lose his hand a few months ago.

Neductic.

Miss Simms of Prince William is visiting her brother George Simms.

Warren Ebbert of The Barony spent Sunday with his sister Mrs. J. H. Gerow.

Miss Ivy Dow and her brother Roy visited friends here last week.

Miss Eva French spent last week in Houlton and Woodstock.

Miss Violet Porter who has been visiting relatives here returned to her home in Houlton last Friday.

Hazen Scott who is working at Skiff Lake spent Sunday at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cramm of Fort Fairfield, Maine, spent Sunday with friends here.

East Florenceville.

The G. T. P. surveyors have been stopping at the Exchange Hotel here about a week. The railroad is to run right by the end of the bridge, close to Crain Bros. Mill.

The members of the Church of England held a social in Burnhams Opera House last Saturday night. About fifty-five dollars was raised for church purposes. East Florenceville has the lead in socials.

Produce was hustled in lively last week to the buyers. There being no snow on the bridge made it rather inconvenient for teams with heavy loads.

The Comedy Company are preparing for a big entertainment to take place on Xmas Eve.

A number of young folks attended the ball at Centreville last Thursday night and a few went to Bath to the entertainment on Saturday night.

C. S. Osgood of Houlton was in town last week.

Col. Hartley is rushing his new store along rapidly and intends to be open for business before long.

Charles Crain went to Fredericton last week looking after the lumber that was lost from the mill here in the freshet not long ago.

Centreville.

David Burt who has spent some months in Washington has returned home owing to the illness of Mrs. Burt. He says that the part of the state where he was located was delightful to live in the air and sunshine very bracing to the system and the grass and foliage as green as summer but a few days ago.

Mrs. John Barrett was buried on Saturday at Tracey's mills. Having contracted a cold some time ago and not being strong enough to throw it off it finally became settled and ended her suffering on Thursday last. She was a woman whose christian life shed a ray of sunshine across the pathway of all with whom she came in contact.

Mrs. Willard Gray also passed into the "Great Beyond" on Saturday and was buried on Sunday, Rev. Jos. Cahill officiating at the house and at the grave. Mrs. Gray leaves a sorrowing husband and family. She was the daughter of the late Thomas London of Brockvale. G. G. London of Centreville and Albert of Waterville are brothers of the deceased.

Rev. Mr. Beatty continues his services during this week in the Baptist church. His discourse Sunday morning from the words "Behold the Man" led the listener along the line of qualification that he should possess in order to live after the example. There seems to be much interest manifested in the meetings, and perhaps it would not be predicting too much to say that much good might be done in this community as a result of these services.

The electric lights are on again and are welcomed by nearly every inhabitant of the village. Some are having the lights put in who did not have them before.

The Thanksgiving ball was a grand success. The managers of the affair were Thos. G. White, S. Cormier and Ward Webb and they left nothing undone to make both the ball and the supper a success.

A number of the teachers were home for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Rev. Joseph Cahill was in the village on Monday.

BABY'S WELFARE.

Every mother is naturally anxious that her little ones shall be bright, good natured and healthy. Every mother can keep her children in this condition if she will give them an occasional dose of Baby's Own Tablets. These Tablets cure indigestion and stomach troubles, prevent diarrhoea, cure constipation, allay simple fevers, break up colds, destroy worms and make teething easy. And the Tablets are guaranteed to contain no opiate or harmful drug. Mrs. R. E. Long, Paschland, B. C., says:—"I have found Baby's Own Tablets unsurpassed for teething troubles, breaking up colds and reducing fever, and they make a child sleep naturally. They have done my little one so much good I would not like to be without them." Druggists everywhere sell these Tablets, or you can get them by mail at 25 cents a box by writing The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Monster Bowl of Punch.

In 1694 Admiral Edward Russell, commander of the English Mediterranean fleet, entertained six thousand people in a large garden in Alicante, where he served the largest bowl of punch ever brewed. It contained twenty gallons of lime juice, four hogsheads of brandy, one pipe of Malaga wine, twenty-five hundred lemons, thirteen hundredweight of fine white sugar, three package toasted biscuits, fifty-one pounds of grated nutmegs and eight hogsheads of water.

The whole was prevented from dilution in case of rain by a large canopy, which spread over a marble fountain bowl which held the punch. The punch was served by a boy, who rowed about the basin of the fountain in a boat built for the purpose, and refilled the empty cups.

THE MARQUIS PAID.

How the Famous Surgeon Velpeau Treated a Free Patient.

The famous surgeon Velpeau was visited one day at his house during the consultation hour by a marquis renowned for his closeness. Velpeau informed the marquis that an operation was urgent and that the fee would amount to 4,000 francs. At this the marquis made a wry face and left. A fortnight later Dr. Velpeau, while making his rounds in the Hospital de la Charite, had his attention attracted by a face that seemed familiar to him. In answer to his inquiry it was stated that the patient was a footman of a nobleman in the Faubourg St. Germain. The surgeon found that his case resembled in every particular the somewhat unusual one for which the marquis had consulted him a fortnight previously. He refrained, however, from making any comments.

Three weeks after the operation, when the patient was about to be discharged, Dr. Velpeau called him aside and exclaimed: "mon-sieur, I am extremely flattered and pleased to have been able to cure you. There is, however, a small formality with which you will have to comply before I can sign your exeat—that is, you will have to sign a check for 1,000 francs in behalf of the public charity bureau of your metropolitan district." The patient's face became livid. You can do what you like about it," continued the doctor, "but if you refuse all Paris will know tomorrow that the Marquis de D. adopted the disguise of a footman in order to secure free treatment at this hospital and to usurp the place which belongs by right to a pauper." Of course the marquis paid.
