

I have never had such good results in making loaf bread and biscuits as I have had with ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR. It is also excellent for pastry.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., NOV. 9, 1904.

Jacksonville.

Now that election is over everything has returned to an air of quietness. Some perform their duties in a more joyful mood, while others wear a sober look, but never mind, winners or losers, our representative is only to look out for us in a business way, we ourselves, mark out our own life. Next election let us hope all can find their way home.

Mrs. Sarah Estey is visiting her son and family in this place.

A large attendance was reported at the oyster stew on Monday evening.

Mr. Ernest Estey was home to cast his vote. He is at present driving team for his brother, at Presque Isle, who, we are sorry to hear has poor health.

Some on the sick list are slowly improving. Rev. J. C. Berrie, although unable to be out is somewhat better. Miss Debbie Clark who has been confined in the house for some time with a serious cold, is now much better and her friends hope to see her among them, soon.

The many friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. James Alton were given a surprise last week by their unexpected return to this country from their home at Butte Montana. Mrs. Alton is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Shaw, of Victoria Corner, and it is partly on account of her mother's failing health that their stay of four weeks will be made here.

Rev. Joseph Bleakney preached in the Methodist church on Sunday 30th ult.

Most of the farmers attended the ploughing bee at Mr. George Mallory's on Tuesday last. Mr. Mallory and family recently moved from Jacksonville, purchasing the Patterson property, where they intend making their home.

East Florenceville.

Election seems a little easier than it did last week this time.

B. F. Smith, M. P. P., had an elevator put in his new warehouse at the station last week. The work was done by Connell Bros., of Woodstock.

C. H. Jameison spent Saturday and Sunday at home here.

We are glad to report that H. W. Burnham is improving so as to be around in the house.

Miss Evelyn Semple returned from Boston Saturday, where she has been working for her brother.

Hallowe'en was celebrated in lively style here. What wasn't changed and twisted around wasn't worth thinking about.

Most all of the young men who were up in the woods were out election day.

Mrs. D. H. Semple was visiting her sisters at Caribou last week.

Miss Alberta Kitchen who has spent the summer with Mrs. A. D. Hartley left for her home in Oakland, California.

Centreville.

A council of "Royal Templars of Temperance" has been reorganized here and a number of new members have joined some taking the insurance benefits. The council promises to be very interesting, as a debate is being carried on as to which is the greater evil, The Cigarette or the Liquor habit. Mr. Roe, of Sussex, the organizer, arranging the forces at his command against the liquor habit, while the Rev. Isaac Keirstead, of Royalton, directs the fusillade against the cigarette habit. As there is considerable talent and much ingenuity thought on both sides, those who attend will be interested.

A large number of old friends whom we have not seen for a long time called around to see us on the third and some of the young folk ripened into manhood in a surprisingly short time, but of course time flies.

The result of the elections was a genuine surprise to many and a bitter disappointment to those who had picked out an office for themselves when the conservative party were returned to power but the election prophet is very much like the weather prophet, can never make as good a prediction before as after.

The hay pressers are again into business and although the season was so unfavourable the hay appears bright and clean.

The heavy frosts have about brought the ploughing to a close, unless mild weather should set in, but as far as one can judge by passing along the roads the acreage ploughed is very much less than ordinary.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Burt have returned from Boston.

Meductic.

Frank I. Murray, of Cabano, spent a few days with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Porter, of Houlton, who have been visiting relatives in this place returned home Monday.

E. J. Edwards spent Sunday with his parents here.

Warren Ebbett, of The Barony, visited his sister, Mrs. J. H. Gerow this week. Barry Bull and his mother, Mrs. Albert Bull, of Bull's Creek, and Nelson Brown and wife, of Southampton, were guests of Mrs. W. L. Turner this week.

Mrs. W. W. Gibson and Master Hugh Stairs are visiting Mrs. P. S. Marsten.

Central Southampton

Election passed off very quietly in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw of Hawshaw and Mr. and Mrs. Hedley F. Grovesnor of Meductic were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grant last Monday.

Mr. Henry Farnham has gone to Houlton for the winter.

Miss Beatrice Tompkins, of Meductic, and Miss Minnie Hatfield, of Temple, were calling on friends in this place last week.

Miss Hazel Cronkhite who has been visiting in Blaine, Maine, has returned home.

Rev. Jos. Noble occupied the pulpit of the Free Baptist church Sunday morning. After the preaching service a vote was taken, which resulted unanimously in favor of the union of the Baptist and Free Baptist bodies of these provinces.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas and children, of St. Stephens, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Grant, have returned home.

The investigators into the comparative nutrition values of food stuffs, who have been carrying on their work in Washington, D. C., have come to the conclusion, which will surprise most, that weight for weight, white bread is more nutritious than whole meal bread. It is true that chemical analysis shows that the bran which is removed does contain nitrogenous material, and also phosphates. This is where the brown bread enthusiasts stop, somewhat naturally concluding that when the miller takes out the bran he removes the most valuable part of the flour. Laboratory analysis is not the same as that made by the human body, and it is proved conclusively that the digestive apparatus of a man has not the power to utilize the bran at all; consequently, when he eats the meal from the whole wheat all the bran ingredients are rejected. Cattle and sheep, however can digest this bran material, so the miller is quite right in selling it for stock and reserving only the white portion for bread for man. The experiments seem to prove beyond doubt that the nitrogenous ingredients of the bran escape digestion entirely, and that one pound of pure white flour provides more digestible material, than the same amount of whole meal.

A Good Thing.

Stetson's Big Three Car Uncle Tom's Cabin Co., at the opera house, Thursday, November 10th, is actually a $20,000 production of this grand old historical play, a magnificent scenic production. It requires a whole train of three sixty-foot place cars to transport this mammoth spectacle; forty people, twenty ponies, donkeys, and burros; eight original jubilee singers; a pack of seven man-eating Siberian and Cuban Bloodhounds; Eva's Golden Chariot, a thing of beauty, costing over $5,000, two big bands of music; Uncle Tom and his typical southern ox-cart. The grand free street parade is the finest ever witnessed. The sight of a life-time.

Twelve Things to Remember.

1. The value of time.
2. The success of perseverance.
3. The pleasure of working.
4. The dignity of simplicity.
5. The worth of character.
6. The power of kindness.
7. The influence of example.
8. The obligation of duty.
9. The wisdom of economy.
10. The virtue of patience.
11. The improvement of talent.
12. The joy of originating.

He Passed.

In one of the examinations for admission to the New York bar the question was asked: "What is essential to constitute a valid marriage in New York?" One of the aspirants answered: "The parties must be of opposite sexes."

Members of one religious denomination in the United States decline to vote because the name of God is not mentioned in the Constitution. In Italy the Roman Catholics are forbidden to vote because the secular government has seized the city of Rome and the papal states and deprived the Pope of temporal power. It was thought by some persons that the new Pope would not insist on the order issued by his predecessor, but a cardinal has assured the Associated Press that special attention is to be called to the order shortly before the approaching general election in Italy. Less than one-half of the Italian Catholics have in the past respected the wish of the Pope in this respect, and it is not likely that the number will be largely increased this year.

How The Hymn was Saved.

Not the technical merit of words or music but the effect produced when worshippers sing "with the spirit and with the understanding"—this is the justification of many a useful hymn. The truth was exemplified, as Zion's Herald tells during the preparation of the Wesleyan Hymnal recently published in London.

Sir Frederick Bridge, the organist of Westminster Abbey, generously gave his services as adviser to the committee that prepared the new book, and frequently its meetings were held at his home. As a musician, Sir Frederick found it easy to criticize some of the old Methodist tunes. One, in particular, ought to be dropped, he said.

"You wouldn't think so if you could hear that hymn sung as the old Wesleyans used to sing it," some one suggested.

Sir Frederick hesitated. "Mary, my cook, is a Methodist," he said "I'll see if she knows it."

Forthwith he went to the dumb-waiter which led to the basement kitchen, and when the cook answered, asked her if she knew the tune.

"Yes, sir," she replied. "I've sung it ever since I was a child."

"Will you sing it for me, just where you are?"

"I'll try, sir," and the cook lifted up her voice with fervor and soul power. The old hymn with all the pathos and rousment of a revival service ringing through the words and melody, came up through the "lift" and into the room where the distinguished musician and his guests were assembled.

"Thank you, Mary!" called Sir Frederick, when the song was ended. Then he turned to the committee. "We cannot afford to drop that good old Methodist tune out of the new book," he said.

In it went; and when the new hymn-book appeared a handsome copy of it was sent to Mary, the cook, in recognition of the part she had played in preserving one of the old-time Wesleyan melodies.

A MOTHER'S PRECAUTION.

There is no telling when a medicine may be needed in homes where there are young children, and the failure to have a reliable medicine at hand may mean much suffering, and, perhaps, the loss of a priceless life. Every mother should always keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house. This medicine acts promptly and speedily, cures such ills as stomach and bowel troubles, teething troubles, simple fevers, colds, worm and other little ills. And the mother has a guarantee that the Tablets contain no opiate or harmful drug. One wise mother, Mrs. Geo. Hardy, Fourchu, N. S., says: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets and find them a blessing to children. I am not satisfied without a box in the house at all times." If your dealer does not keep these Tablets in stock send 25 cents to The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and you will get a box by mail post paid.

The Venal Vote.

Those among us who saw and heard the Archbishop of Canterbury while on a visit to Canada must have been impressed with the sincerity of the man. He had a sane way of judging things, and a clear way of expressing himself. And the people who met or heard him in the United States were struck by the friendly frankness, the absence of pomp in his demeanor. Some words in one of his American addresses remind us of his letter to the Viscar of Margate, lately published. "I am firmly persuaded," wrote His Grace, "that if our political life is to be maintained at its higher level and our public men to justify the confidence we have been accustomed to place in them, electors must see to it that no political or partisan enthusiasm leads them to record votes for men whom they do not trust or respect." Such words are of great value, and they ought to be pondered by many in the United States and Canada where dignity of the franchise has so much fallen into disrespect. The Archbishop evidently sees the danger to the body politic that lurks in the venal vote, the ignorant vote, or even the careless vote.
