

LOCAL TOPICS.

MR. JOHN S. LEIGHTON, JR., sessional clerk of the House of Commons, returned from Ottawa last week.

INSPECTOR MEAGHER returned to Woodstock last week and will resume work in some of the schools nearby this week.

JOHN HASTY, of Woodstock, with a crew, is building the foundation for the new Methodist parsonage.—Fort Fairfield Review.

DAVID LAWRENCE, of Wicklow, Carleton County, was in town on Monday and Tuesday looking for a farm.—Fort Fairfield Review.

J. G. FOLKINS, M. D., a graduate of McGill Medical College has opened an office at Canterbury Station for the practice of medicine.

MR. B. B. MANZER is putting a steam heating plant in the basement of his store and will do away with the system of heating by stoves.

THANE M. JONES, who has been practising law at Hartland intends to move to Edmundston to enter on the practice of his profession there.

THE Osage Methodist published at Osage, Iowa, in its issue for July contains an excellent portrait of Thomas W. Todd, Ph. D., principal of Cedar Valley Seminary, with a sketch of his life.

MR. WILLARD L. CARR has sold his residence on Connell Street to Mr. Mavor of Perth, who will take possession about the 10th of September. Mr. Carr will move into the Bull homestead.

THE FOLLOWING gentlemen have been appointed District Deputy High Chief Rangers of the I. O. F., Mayor Lindsay for District No. 11, Mr. John Farley, of Bristol, for No. 12, and Mr. A. C. Gibson, of Centreville, for No. 13.

JOHN BARRY, a printer and fiddler well known for miles round as "Johnnie Barry" died at Bath last Thursday. For years he was on the staff of the Carleton Sautinel and he furnished music for dancing for more than one generation of Carleton County boys and girls.

CONSIDER THIS—The largest source of profits of life insurance companies arise from saving in death rate. The Manufacturer's Life has the lowest death rate of any company of its age in Canada. Consequently for large profits and absolutely safe insurance. Place your risk with the Manufacturer's Life.

AT THE St. John Presbytery meeting last week the call of the Glassville church to Rev. Leonard B. Gibson was sustained and induction was fixed for Thursday, September 1st. Rev. Mr. J. H. Anderson will preside and induct Mr. Gibson. Rev. Mr. McCaskill will preach and Rev. Mr. Pringle will give the address to the minister.

THE government has not yet given any consideration to the fixing of Thanksgiving Day but it has been urged upon them that an early decision would be of great convenience to the public. The suggestion has been made to the secretary of state that if possible Thanksgiving Day should be on a Monday. This event is taken advantage of for family re-unions and if on Monday it would permit of three days at home in many cases.

MR. WILLIAM DOREY, chairman of the Maintenance of Way Men of the C. P. R., desires to contradict a statement which appears on another page of this paper to the effect that he was in Winnipeg several weeks in conference with the leaders of other C. P. R. organizations with a view to getting an increase of wages. Mr. Dorey says the statement, which was telegraphed from Winnipeg, is quite without foundation. Though he was in Winnipeg he had no conference with leaders of other organizations.

THURSDAY Mr. Duncan McDermott received from Boston a telegram conveying the sad intelligence of the death there last night of his sister, Mrs. J. Fred Hill, after a painful illness with heart trouble. A sorrowing husband survives and there are three brothers, Duncan and Archie McDermott of this city and John of Idaho, and four sisters, Mrs. Joseph Robinson of Marysville, Mrs. Bailey of Woodstock, Mrs. J. A. McCallum of Windsor, and Mrs. Crawford of Portland.—Fetion Gleaner.

THE financial District Meeting of the Woodstock District of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Conference will assemble in the Methodist church Jacksonville on Wednesday Aug 31st at 9 a. m. When it is expected all the ministers of the district and an equal number laymen will be present to arrange the business for the year. There will be a communion service on Tuesday evening and a Missionary Meeting on Wednesday at 8 p. m. Rev'ds. B. Oxnard Hartman, B. A., and H. Goring Alder will deliver addresses. The one possesses extensive knowledge of the great West and the other of the West Indies—The British portion. All the meetings are public.

PHOTOGRAPHS.

Keith's Studio

First-Class Work.

Fair Prices.

WHAT DO

you prefer in drug store goods? We are here to please you, not ourselves; we carry what you want. If you have any trouble about finding anything, come here and we will order it for you--if we haven't it already on hand. Our prices for prescription work are fair and just--never excessive.

E. W. MAIR,

The Prescription Druggist.

In the ladies sweepstakes match played on the golf links on Monday afternoon, Miss Rankin took first prize and Mrs. George W. Gibson second.

MESSRS E. LONDON of Canterbury Station and George Hallett of Grand Falls were in town last week attending the meeting of Woodstock Preceptory K. T.

MR. B. T. CONNOLLY of Great Falls, Montana, arrived in Woodstock on Friday and is staying with his son Mr. Albert P. Connolly. Mr. Connolly, who is a former resident of Jacksonville, will make his home in Woodstock hereafter.

MR. ALBERT P. CONNOLLY who represents the Baird Company returned on Saturday from a three months trip during which he visited Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, Cape Breton the Quebec coast and the North Shore in the interest of his house.

NEXT Sunday evening the Rev. Z. L. Fash will preach the last sermon in the series on "The biography of a Christian." Large congregations have been very much interested in the three sermons which have been preached. The subject next Sunday evening "The New Life Set Free—Glorification."

A CREW of sixteen men under the direction of Mr. George Lee went to work yesterday morning to paint the river bridge. They will have to scrape it and give it two coats of paint. The job will take about two months time to complete it. The work is being done not by contract but by day's work.

MRS. MARTHA LOUISE PURDY and George Black were married last evening at the bride's residence, overlooking the Klondike. The bride is from Chicago, and is well known in the Klondike as the energetic managing owner of the Munger-Purdy mill near Ogilvie bridge. The groom is one of the Conservative leaders of the Yukon and one of the brightest and most energetic and successful members of the Dawson bar. The wedding came as a surprise to the numerous friends of the bride and groom.—Dawson Weekly News, August 5th. Mr. Black is a Fredericton gentleman who has many friends in Woodstock.

WANTED.

Fifteen experienced stitchers on wrappers and shirt-waist suits, steady work and the best of pay, Apply to the Emerson Mfg. Co., Bangor, Me.

LOST.

Lost on August 23rd, a quantity of samples of leather belts. The finder will confer a favour by returning same to Aberdeen Hotel, Woodstock.

TEACHER WANTED.

A Second Class Teacher in school District No. 7, Aberdeen, for balance of this term. Apply stating salary to FRED D. SKINMER, Secretary to Trustees, Argyle.

NOTICE.

During the Exhibition the Vendome on Queen Street will be re-opened where meals will be served at all hours at reasonable prices. Aug. 24th, 5 i.

WANTED.

Agents to sell for "Canada's Greatest Nurseries". Bigger and better selection of varieties and specialties than ever. Liberal terms—pay weekly. Exclusive territory. Outfit free. Send 25 cents for our pocket Microscope. Everyone should have one to examine plants and trees for insects. STONE & WELLINGTON, Toronto, Ont. Aug. 24—5 i.

LUMBER FOR SALE.

A quantity of dry hemlock boards. Apply at this office, or to A. E. PLUMMER, Waterville. Aug. 24th, 4ins.

HOUSE TO RENT.

In a desirable locality—containing ten rooms—modern conveniences. Opposite Reformed Baptist Church, Victoria Street. Inquire of C. R. Watson. 1m—Aug 17.

HEIFER FOUND.

A yearling heifer strayed to my place some weeks ago. Owner may have same by applying and paying for this advertisement. FRANK BURPEE, Upper Woodstock. Aug. 17-21.

HOTEL FOR SALE.

That nicely situated private hotel on Chapel street known as the Turner House. This house has all modern improvements, is in first class repair and has a large patronage among the best class of people who visit town. For further particulars and terms apply on premises to MRS. W. L. ALBERTON, Chapel St., Woodstock. 1 mo.

WANTED.

Five good pant makers immediately. Highest wages and steady work, R. B. JONES, tailor.

BOY WANTED.

A boy to learn the printing business. Apply at his office.

MR. GEORGE A. BRITAIN, of Bristol, was in Woodstock yesterday.

THE Rev. Father Dollard's picnic at Bath last Wednesday was a successful affair. Music was furnished by the citizens' band of Woodstock.

MAJOR JOHN R. TOMPKINS and B. Frank Smith, M. P. P., were in town last week attending a meeting of the Press Printing Co.

THE results of the examinations of the U. N. B., show that in the Engineering department Victor J. Bedell of Woodstock led the junior class.

THE theme of discourse at the Adventist Church next Sunday afternoon will be "Holiness." In the evening "The Divine Magnet" will be the subject. All are invited and welcome to these services.

THE following gentlemen left yesterday for St. John to attend Masonic Grand Lodge, the Rev. G. D. Ireland, Grand Chaplain, Mr. John McKenzie, D. D. G. M., Mr. E. L. Hagerman, G. P., and Mr. Geo. W. Gibson. Mr. G. H. Harrison who is now in Chatham and who is a delegate from Woodstock Lodge to Grand Lodge will also be present.

Town Council.

At a special meeting of the council on Monday night a by-law was passed to the effect that all electric light, telephone and telegraph wires in town should be not less than 22 feet from the ground. The penalty for infringing this law is $5.00 for each offence.

It was decided to extend the water main on the Houlton road from Mr. John Driscoll's a distance of 1350 feet, about to Mr. Norman Smith's place.

THE REAL THING.

A policy that will cover all kinds of sickness, as well as accidents, at a small cost.

The Dominion of Canada Guarantee and Accident Insurance Co.

issues this special contract.

This company is noted for its liberality in paying claims.

HAROLD L. GRANT,

AGENT.

Where Experience Counts.

We have filled thousands of prescriptions during the past year, and doubtless a good share of the number were for serious cases where much depended on purity of drugs and accuracy of compounding. We never forget in this matter and we don't want you to forget that skill and accuracy come by long experience. Our experience is of a 32 year quality. You can avail yourself of it without extra cost.

Our Responsibility

GARDEN BROS. DRUGGISTS,

Main Street, Opposite Queen, Woodstock, N. B.

ESTABLISHED 1877.

Lots of Hot Weather Yet.

A few Summer Tweeds left. Sold at Prices to close.

GEO. W. GIBSON,
Merchant Tailor, Queen St.

Lipton's Pickles, Malt Vinegar, Marmalade Cocoa, Potted Meats, Jams and Jellies.

FOR SALE BY

HOLYOKE & BROWN,

Sole Agents in Woodstock.

Remember This Fact.

If you leave an order with me for a Suit, Overcoat or Fancy Vest, you can depend on getting suited. I keep an up-to-date stock of cloths to select from, and do not allow any work to go out unless it is just right.

Ask to be shown the famous DR. DEIMEL (Linen Mesh) UNDERWEAR. That it preserves the health, and promotes comfort is attested by the man who wears it—ask im.

W. B. NICHOLSON,
MERCHANT TAILOR,

Cor. King and Main Sts. Woodstock, N. B.

Men's Rain Coats.

Not the hot, heavy, ill-fitting affair you've known and often condemned. These are an entirely new kind—light, well ventilated, and stylish—made to fit, and of a cloth so treated chemically, that it is absolutely rainproof. These garments look like the ordinary top coat except in length.

Prices, $5, $8, $10, $12.

Our Rainproof Coats shed water like a duck's back. Every man obliged to be out in wet weather should have one.

R. B. JONES, MANCHESTER HOUSE
Main Street.