Presentation.

At the close of the sermon on Sunday morning last, before the congregation had been dismissed, Dr. Baker, leader of the choir, stepped up beside Rev. F. Allison Currier, on the pulpit of the Free Baptist church, and presented him on behalf of the congregation with an Easter egg inside of which was $25 in gold, and read the following address:—

The church and congregation worshipping here, appreciate your uniform labours and ardent zeal among us in the cause of Christ our great master and would hereby beg to express, though not as adequately as we would wish, a sense of our gratitude in the presentation of a small amount of this most precious of metals "gold" for the express purpose of securing for yourself a volume of the most precious of books "The Holy Bible."

We are truly thankful to our Heavenly Fatherly that in His wise providence he has called you to become the under shepherd of this little flock, and may he help us pastor and people to labour valiantly together for the salvation of the unsaved among us.

May God bless you in your labours for the furtherance of His cause and kingdom in the earth, and when your work on earth is ended may he receive you into the glories of the life of Elysium.

Rev. Mr. Currier was completely taken by surprise. He thanked the congregation for their expression of good will toward him.

John Gallagher.

John Gallagher died at Woodstock on Friday April 1st at the age of 79 years. Mr. Gallagher was born in Ireland and came to this country with his parents when he was eight years old. As a young man he went to Queens County where he married Miss Ann McGovern.

About 36 years ago he moved to Woodstock where he established a marble works which he conducted up to the time of his death.

Mr. Gallagher is survived by a widow, four sons, Ex-Councillor H. E. Gallagher and Councillor James W. Gallagher of Woodstock, Lawrence of Nelson, B. C., and John of St. Louis, Mo.; four daughters, Mrs. Daniel Riorden of Woodstock, Mrs. Will Bregan of Boston, Misses Ella and Agnes Gallagher, who conduct a millinery establishment here and Miss Mary Gallagher who lives at home; two sisters Mrs. Margaret Doherty of Woodstock and Mrs. Holbrook of Boston and one brother, Lawrence of Johnville. All the children and brother and sisters attended the funeral except the two sons who are in British Columbia and Missouri who could not get here in time.

The funeral was held on Monday morning at St. Gertrude's church. High Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father McMurray. The pall bearers were the two sons H. E. and J. W. Gallagher, Daniel Riorden, son-in-law and Lawrence Gallagher brother.

In the death of Mr. Gallagher the town of Woodstock has lost one of its most respected citizens. In all his relations in life he was an honourable and a kind hearted gentleman.

FINELY ENTERTAINED.

Carleton County Students the Guests of County's Members.

What has gotten to be an annual affair took place at Mrs. David Hatt's King street, on Thursday evening and for hours the house resounded with laughter and other signs that the guests were happy and enjoying themselves immensely.

The occasion was the entertainment of the Normal School students from Carleton County by Messrs. Fleming, Jones and Smith, M. P. P.'s, for that constituency.

Between 30 and 40 including representatives of the local press, found it possible to accept the kind invitation extended by the Carleton County legislators, and as they arrived at Mrs. Hatt's they were each warmly welcomed by the hosts and soon made to feel very much at home.

The evening was most pleasantly spent by the jolly assembly. Dancing was engaged in by many, music, including selections on Murray Morehouse's gramophone, and games helped to pass the time most enjoyably.

Towards the close light refreshments, including ice cream, cake, sandwiches and coffee, were served, and when the assemblage broke up all were loud in their praises of Messrs. Fleming, Smith and Jones as hosts, and needless to say the students thoroughly appreciated the thoughtfulness of the trio of members.—Gleaner.

Three Things That Ought to be Stopped at Hartland.

Sheasgreen-McCormac.

This morning at 5.30 o'clock at St. Gertrude's church, Isaac Edward Sheasgreen and Miss Katharine Mary McCormac, daughter of John McCormac, were united in marriage by the Rev. F. J. McMurray.

The bride was dressed in a blue travelling suit and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by her sister Miss Louise C. McCormac, who was dressed in a suit of grey cloth and carried a bouquet pink roses.

The groom was supported by Dr. T. W. Griffin of Debec.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheasgreen took the early train for Newcastle where they will spend a week at Mr. Sheasgreen's old home.

The bride is the daughter of one of Woodstock's most respected citizens, and there is no brighter nor more charming young lady in Woodstock than she.

Mr. Sheasgreen is one of our most prosperous and popular merchants, proprietor of the "Peoples' Pharmacy" an ex-councillor, an active politician, a man who is well and favourably known in Carleton County.

The presents were so numerous and of such a character as to witness to the popularity of the happy bride and groom. The firemen presented a handsome oak dining table, the members of the A. O. H. a set of oak chairs and about thirty other gentlemen in the town and county presented a handsome oak sideboard to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheasgreen have the best wishes of the community.

On their return they will reside in the Johnston house on Connell street where Mrs. Sheasgreen will be at home after April the 17th.

Wallace Gibson's New Store.

Wallace Gibson opened his new boot and shoe store yesterday morning for business. He has the large and bright store that has been known for some time as Jewett's Corner. It has been thoroughly renovated. The walls and ceiling are white and the lower portion including the drawer space is oak grained. The floor is polished birch.

Besides the ordinary lines of boots and shoes Mr. Gibson makes a specialty of high class foot wear for both ladies and gentlemen. For ladies he carries the well known Dorothy Dodd, Sovereign and Kumbak. For gentlemen he carries the Walkover, Sovereign and Lester.

Mr. Gibson understands the boot and shoe business thoroughly and is determined to give the public good goods at right prices.

Young Men Break up a Social.

Last Wednesday evening, March 30th, the members of the Holmesville Baptist church held a social in the hall at Hall's Corner. Asa Hartsgrove was on the scene and sowed the seed of discord by peddling out some bad whiskey among the bad boys who were present. Among the celebrities present were Israel DeMerchant the young man who paid a fine of $25.00 and costs only a couple of weeks ago for creating a disturbance at Bath station. Robert Kinney and Elbridge Giberson were also in evidence.

John E. Kinney, a well know farmer and lumberman, was auctioneer. Some of these bright and witty spirits interrupted him with loud and lewd remarks and made themselves disagreeable in other ways. Later in the game they got into a fight. In fact, they practically broke up the social.

An information was laid against them and Sheriff Foster and Constable Woolverton drove out and arrested them.

Hartsgrove pleaded guilty to a charge of selling whiskey and went to jail. The other fellows pleaded guilty and the police magistrate sentenced Israel Demerchant to six months in jail; Elbridge Giberson $20, or 2 months in jail and Robert Kinney $10, or 1 month.

The Horse Market.

There is a certain amount of activity in the horse market just now. On Sunday night, March 27th W. F. Glidden received a consignment of fourteen horses from Montreal and during the week he disposed of seven of them.

Alderman Stockford and Peter McDonald of Fredericton were in town looking for horses and Mr. McDonald bought from Mr. Glidden a high stepping bay driver. W. F. Mallory the livery stable owner of St. Andrews bought a handsome bay gelding. William Briggs of Temperance Vale bought a Clyde mare and driving horse, George Good of Jacksontown got a bay driving horse, William Wilson of Lakeville a bay driving horse and a man living at Lower Southampton a bay mare.

The season's favorites in Ladies' and Gent's ready-to-wear clothing and furnishings can be had at B. B. Manzer's.

SHALL COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS BE TAXED?

Is a Question Before the Town Council.—George E. Balmain Elected to School Board.

At the regular monthly meeting of the town council on Monday evening the Mayor and all the councillors were present but Coun. Gallagher.

The resignation of W. S. Saunders from the School Board was accepted and on motion of Coun. Burt seconded by Coun. Fisher George E. Balmain was elected to fill the unexpired term.

The Mayor informed the board that the Woollen Mills refused to pay their taxes. In 1892 a resolution to the following effect was passed by the council "That any company establishing a Woollen Mill in this town would be exempt from taxation for a period of ten years."

A Woollen Mill was established here and was exempt for about seven years under this resolution when the company failed. It was reorganized and now G. A. White claimed that on the strength of the resolution the new company should have exemption for a period of ten years from its formation.

The matter was referred to the finance committee who were instructed to consult Mr. Hartley, the town solicitor, and report.

The Mayor said it was the opinion of some of the councillors that the tax on commercial travellers should be reimposed. The tax was repealed some years ago on the representation of some travellers that if this were done lower prices would be quoted to local merchants. He could not see that any change had been made in this direction and the tax produced a revenue of $1000 a year, so he thought it should be reimposed. Nothing was done in the matter.

The report of the town auditors T. Carleton L. Ketchum and John S. Leighton jr., was read. It was ordered to be printed with the treasures report.

The mayor called attention to the fact that the Imperial Packing Company were doing custom sawing and thus competing with other industries in town. This was contrary to the provisions of the act under which the bonus was given to them.

It seemed to be the opinion of the council that Mr. Hay would not wilfully violate the terms of his agreement with the town and a committee was appointed to see him about the matter.

Mrs. Hiram Schriver.

Mrs. Hiram Schriver, of East Florenceville, who has been in failing health for over a year owing to heart trouble went to visit her son Hiram a few weeks ago. While there she suddenly died, March 29th. The deceased was born at Peel, Carleton County, in 1831. She was married to Mr. Schriver in 1853. She is mourned by a husband, three brothers, George Banks, of East Florenceville, William B., of North Brockfield, Mass., and Shepherd, of Bath, two sisters, Mrs. Mathias Hartley and Mary Banks, of East Florenceville, eight of a family of ten children, William S. and Mrs. Elliot Barker, of East Florenceville, Mrs. E. C. Dibblee, of St. John, Mrs. James Turner, of Lowell, George S., of Michigan, Mrs. Fred Phillips, of Bristol, Hiram S., of Florenceville, and Douglas, of Gordonsville.

The deceased was a consistent member of the East Florenceville Baptist church. That she had many friends was evidenced by the large number of people present at the funeral services held at the home, March 31st, at 2 p. m. The exercises were conducted by Col. A. D. Hartley. The pall was borne by three sons and a son-in-law. Rev. W. H. Smith spoke from 1 Cor. 15:55.

Peter Ryan.

Peter Ryan probably the oldest and certainly one of the most highly respected citizens of Woodstock died at the home of his son Marcellus on Friday night, at the age of 85 years.

Mr. Ryan was born in St. John in 1819, within a few weeks after the arrival of his parents from Ireland. He came to Woodstock when he was fifteen years of age and has resided here ever since. He married Miss McRath of Mavgerville who has been dead about 25 years.

Mr. Ryan leaves three sons, Simeon who is in Vancouver, Lee, who is in the Western States and Marcellus who resides in Woodstock and two daughters Mrs. Laug of Aurora, Ill., and Mrs. John Connor of Pawtucket, R. I.

The funeral was on Monday. The pall bearers were John Brown, John Thompson, Alex Beaton and Own Kelly. The members of the Woodstock Fire Department, of which Marcellus Ryan is a member attended the funeral in uniform.
