R. ERNEST HOLYOKE and J. Rankin Brown entered into a partnership on May 1st for the purpose of carrying on the grocery business established on Main Street by Mr. Holyoke some years ago. Both gentlemen are well and favourably known. Mr. Brown will be a very valuable addition to the business.

BENJ. CLARK has the contract for putting up two small buildings, one at the College and the other at the Broadway school, for the storing of the tools used in the model gardens and for other purposes connected therewith. The buildings are 12x24, with 9ft posts. The one at the Broadway school is already completed.

THE REV. DR. FRASER of St. Stephen's church St. John left on Monday as the delegate from the Presbyterian church of Canada to the Pan Presbyterian Conference which meets in London. He will be away three months. The Rev. G. D. Ireland of St. Paul's church will take his services during the month of May. The Rev. Arthur Ross late of Andover will take Mr. Ireland's services.

E. B. ROSS, of Peel, has just been graduated at Dalhousie University, with high honours in philosophy, receiving the University medal for the highest standing among the honour graduates. This medal is only awarded for very exceptional work and is not given to the man of highest standing unless his standing reaches a very high average. Mr. Ross will spend the summer at home and will take up the study of law this fall.

THE ATTENTION of farmers and others interested is directed to the advertisement of Balmain Bros. There is no doubt whatever but the all steel land roller they are offering is a very superior roller. At any rate it will pay intending purchasers to look them over before buying. Balmain Bros. are sole agents for the justly celebrated Perrin Sulky Plow. This is a riding plow which gives satisfaction every time. They are supplied either for one or two furrows.

NOTWITHSTANDING the unfavorable weather a good number attended the Sunday School meeting in the Hall at Red Bridge last Friday evening. After a short service the questions of re organizing the Sunday School was taken up. There was heartiness and unanimity in the meeting. Reorganization was effected with the following officers:—Leslie Wilson, Superintendent; Cavalier London, Teacher of men's class; Mrs. Ezra Briggs, teacher of woman's class; Miss Kate Dalling, teacher of Primary class; Mrs. Herbert McBride, teacher of Intermediate class.

A FAIR SIZED audience attended the concert in the opera house on Friday evening last under the auspices of the Methodist church. Mr. Ruthven Macdonald, baritone, was the principal attraction. Mr. Macdonald has a very rich baritone voice well under control with a good range of compass, and his selections pleased the audience very much. He is also a success as a reader. His selection, "The Life Boat," was well rendered. Miss J. Stratton Harrison, violinist and vocalist, gave several selections. Her singing of "Shubert's Serenade," with violin accompaniment, was her best number.
