

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., APRIL 27, 1904.

East Florenceville.

Mrs. A. D. Hartley wishes to announce that the mission museum has been moved into the old Hartley home, where five rooms are amply filled with curiosities from many lands, including India, Africa, Japan, China, Turkey, Australia, Alaska, Mexico, California, etc. A visit to this museum may be made not only interesting and amusing, but also highly instructive. In a short time the Arbour will be a popular resort for pleasure seekers. People are invited to go and take their baskets and picnic at this attractive place or if they will send word to Mrs. Hartley she will prepare lunches at a moderate price. The proceeds go to swell the missionary fund.

S. M. Cady made a trip to Grand Lake last week returning Saturday.

Court Florenceville C. O. F. will have their oyster supper at the Exchange Hotel here Saturday night April 30th instead of May 14th.

Mrs. S. R. Boyer and Miss Alice, of Victoria Corner, have been visiting friends in town.

Bicycles are now seen on the streets. The I. O. F. had a most enjoyable time at their supper in the hall Saturday night. They have four suppers a year, and each one is better than the last. The credit for this one is due to the men, who did the cooking.

Andover.

Advice to Mothers.

"Keep your little ones stomach and bowels right, and they will be healthy, happy and grow well." This is the deliberate opinion of a physician of world wide reputation. One mother who followed this advice—Mrs. Albert Boisvert, St. Claude, Que., proves the truth of it. She says:—"I have the greatest faith in Baby's Own Tablets for young children, and I always keep them in the house. Both my little ones were troubled with constipation and sour stomach. I gave them the Tablets and they are now perfectly well. Once in a while I still give them a dose to prevent the trouble coming back." If all sensible mothers follow this advice there will be fewer cross, peevish, sickly babies in the land. These Tablets are guaranteed to contain no opiate or harmful drug. Sold by medicine dealers everywhere, or sent by mail at 25 cents a box by writing The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Life's Tavern.

(Mary Burt Messer, in the "Atlantic Monthly.") In this old Tavern there are rooms so dear That I would linger here. I love these corners and familiar nooks Where I have sat with people and with books. The very imperfections and the scars About the walls and ceiling and the floor, The sagging of the windows and the door, The dinginess that mars The hearth and chimney, and the wood laid bare There on the old black chair. The dear dilapidation of the place Smiles in my face, And I am loath to go. Here from the window is a glimpse of sea, Enough for me; And every evening, through the window bars, Peer in the friendly stars. —And yet I know That some day I must go, and close the door, And see the House no more.

After the Line Stores.

A Houlton letter to the Bangor Commercial says:—A petition is being circulated throughout Aroostook county with the idea that everyone in favor of the prohibitory law will sign. When completed it will be forwarded to the secretary of the treasury at Washington, D. C. It reads as follows:

"We the undersigned citizens of Aroostook county, Maine, respectfully represent that at the present time there is a determined effort being made all over the state and particularly in this county, to enforce the prohibitory liquor law of Maine: that one of the principal impediments in this section of the county is the existence along the boundary line between Maine and New Brunswick of what are known in this section as 'line stores.'

These buildings are located partly in the State of Maine and partly in New Brunswick, and so located that it is almost impossible to tell whether sales are made in the one county or the other. There are three such stores located on the boundary between Houlton and New Brunswick, two between Littleton and New Brunswick, two between Monticello and New Brunswick, two between Easton and New Brunswick, one between Mars Hill and New Brunswick, two between Fort Fairfield and New Brunswick, and one or two between Limestone and New Brunswick, and one on the boundary line between Hamlin Plantation and New Brunswick.

"We have no doubt that these stores are also utilized for the purpose of smuggling goods across the border. We have been informed that the existence of such buildings on the boundary line is in contravention of United States law, or the provisions of the treaty between the United States and Great Britain. If this be true we respectfully request that some active measures be adopted for the removal of these nuisances on our eastern border.

An Educated Echo.

An ordinary echo is a curious thing; but according to the statements of a Frenchman at a watering-place in the Pyrenees, one echo on the Franco-Spanish frontier is so far from ordinary that it must have started in America. "As soon as you have spoken," said the Frenchman, who had secured an audience of wide-eyed tourists, "you hear distinctly the voice leap from rock to rock, from precipice to precipice, and as soon as it has passed the frontier it assumes the Spanish tongue! But yes, I have heard it often!"
