SERGT. M. D. CORMIER has been appointed provisional lieutenant in the 67th Carleton Light Infantry.

SEVERAL carloads of construction steel for the new armory and the meduxnakeag dam arrived last week.

FRANK THOMPSON has sold his fast gelding, Shamrock, to J. W. Gallagher, who drove him last summer.

THE ice rink closes for the season this week. The ice will be removed at once and work commenced on the new armory.

DON'T misunderstand life insurance. It is no mystery, but a plain business proposition, and the Manufacturers Life offers the best propositions.

MAYOR JONES is slowly recovering from his recent attack of sickness. He was able to be out for a drive on Monday last.

A TELEGRAM was received here last week announcing the death at Missoula, Montana, of Mr. Havelock McBride, a former resident of Richmond Corner, Carleton County.

AN exciting game of hockey was played in the ice rink Friday evening last between the Wellingtons and Orioles. The score stood 3 to 3 when time was called. In order to decide the game the teams played an extra five minutes when the Wellingtons were victorious by a score of 5 to 4.

IF we are to have no County Fair this fall we ought to hold our Annual Summer Carnival a few weeks later than usual and make it the best one yet. We can't begin to think about it too early in the season. Already one man is working on a design for the street parade that ought to take a prize.

JOHN R. TOMPKINS has been awarded the contract for the cellar for the new consolidated school house at Florenceville. The price is about $900. The cellar will be 50ft x 63ft. The trustees are undecided yet as to whether to build of brick or wood. They estimate that a wooden building will cost $6,000 and a brick one $8,000.

THE death took place last week at Somerville, Mass., of Mrs. Annie Chute, sister of Edward True, of this town, and a former resident of Jacksonville. The remains arrived by train here on Thursday last and were taken to Waterville where the burial took place. Rev. F. Allison Currier, assisted by Rev. Fred S. Todd and Mr. Bonnell conducted the service.

In the Free Baptist Church on Wednesday evening last, Judge Stevens delivered an address on "Sunday Observance" under the auspices of the Lord's Day Alliance. The Church was crowded to the doors. Short addresses were made by Mr. D. McLeod Vince, Revs. I. A. Corbett and Geo. A. Ross. A male quartette composed of Messrs Baker, Hull, Watson, and Burden, sang the selections.

W. B. NICHOLSON is making many improvements in the interior arrangement of his tailoring establishment. He has enlarged his show room and his cutting room and has increased the lighting capacity of his cutting room very much. His show room is now lighted by the enclosed arc lamps, which give forth a brilliant white light. Mr. Nicholson has added very much to the attractiveness of his store.

MR. C. H. GRAY has rented his place at Jacksonville to Mr. George Hall of Richmond Corner who will move in about April 1st, when Mr. Gray will move to Caribou where he and his brother have bought a farm. Mr. Abraham Cronkhite of Southampton who is at present at the University of New Brunswick will fill out the rest of Mr. Gray's term in the Jacksonville school. Mr. Gray has taught the Jacksonville school for twelve consecutive years, which beats the record of the Rev. W. B. Wiggins in that school by about four years.

THE special room for the infant class of the Reformed Baptist Sunday school was completed and furnished last week and the first exercises were held in it on Sunday afternoon. The room is just in the rear of the main Sunday school room, in the basement. It is newly papered and painted and is furnished with 25 new little chairs for the comfort of the little tots who attend the class. There were 24 pupils in attendance on Sunday and the number of chairs will be increased to 30 for the membership is on the increase. Mrs. Fred L. Mooers is teacher of the class.

THERE was a public missionary meeting in the Reformed Baptist church Monday evening under the auspices of the Sunday school. The exercises consisted of Scripture reading, prayer, recitations, solos, trio, and two selections by the male quartette. Miss Ida Morgan missionary elect for South Africa also gave an address. Mr. F. L. Mooers presided. There was a large audience and the meeting was a decided success as all did their parts well especially the little ones, and the audience was much pleased. A collection was taken, amounting to $16.00.

After the Doctor.

After the physician has made a careful study of a case and has decided upon the remedies necessary to cure, then the responsibility of the pharmacist begins. The remedies prescribed must be pure, of standard strength, and must be accurately compounded.

Our appreciation of this responsibility is shown by the rare stock of prescription drugs we carry and by the modern, scientific methods employed in our prescription department. Your physician will be pleased if we fill his prescriptions.

How Does It Apply to You?

One person out of every five meets with an accident every year. You may be the fifth.

No other company gives as liberal benefits for the same money as Canada's Oldest and Strongest Accident Insurance Company.

It does the largest business in Canada of any company in the world.

It is patronized by more people than any other company in Canada.

Not a claim resisted in the year. For the very small sum of $1.00 per month we insure against ALL accidents and ALL sickness.
