NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

East Centreville.

The farmers of this place are busily engaged in preparing the soil for crops. We regret the loss of our neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Inglass Harold, who have moved to Good's Corner. They have purchased the property of David Grey. Mrs. Allison McCain has returned home from Fredericton, where she has been visiting her cousin Mrs. John Oldham. Lester Lewis is wearing a broad smile over the arrival of a young daughter. The Sabbath School has reopened with the same officers as before.

Green Bush.

The weather has been very bright and pleasant for the past week, with the exception of a heavy shower Sunday. H. M. Marsten is giving employment to quite a number of men, rafting lumber. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grant, of Woodstock, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in this place. Mr. Norris Tompkins leaves for Patton, Me., this week. Mr. John Farnham, jr., is very low with pleurisy. Little hopes are entertained for his recovery. Dr. Sprague is attending him. Rev. Mr. Hamilton is holding special meetings in the Reformed Baptist church. The attendance at the Sunday services was very large. Much credit is due the choir, which has been organized since Mr. Hamilton came to the church, but we must express regret that we are about to lose the leading soprano singer, Miss Sylvia Hillman, who is going to reside in Woodstock. Miss Amy Price who has been visiting in Woodstock for the past two weeks is now with her sister, Mrs. Byron Grant.

Bloomfield.

The weather, for the past few weeks has been quite favorable for the farmers, who seem to be very industrious in this locality. The potato planter is very successfully worked by Mr. Kiburn Black. Miss Mary London, who has charge of the school at Hartford this term, spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in this place. The Woman's Auxillary met at the home of Mrs. Bruce Black on Wednesday 3rd inst. Mrs. Wm. Kinney and Miss Kitty Harris have returned from a very pleasant trip to Mars Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Black have moved to Beckim Settlement. They will be much missed by their many friends. Bloomfield can boast of a fine base ball team organized by Mr. N. F. Grant of Toronto. The young men seem to be very much interested, and eager to become experts in this sport. Miss Nettie Blackmore, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Havelock Black, during the past two weeks, returned to her home at Richmond Corner Sunday last. Mr. Harry Wiley, of Jacksonville, visited friends in Bloomfield last week. Miss Maggie Black and Miss Edith Beckim spent Saturday in Woodstock.

Union Corner.

With sorrowing hearts we record the death of our neighbor and Bro. B. F. Chase which occurred Wednesday morning May 10 of a lingering illness of two years, being practically confined to his house the last six months. He was 46 years and 3 months old, and was the second son of the late Deacon George Chase, he leaves a widow and two brothers Jacob, E. of this place and, George A., Woodstock to mourn. He was buried on Friday afternoon. By request Rev. C. Currie, preached a very excellent sermon from Heb. 4:10. Rev. F. N. Atkinson, pastor, and Rev. J. C. Blakney gave appropriate addresses. Brother Chase was baptized May 12, 1895 by Rev. C. Currie and united with the Baptist Church of this place, since then when able to be around, was a regular attendant at all the services. The funeral was largely attended, which is a proof of the esteem in which he was held in the hearts of the people.

Rev. C. Currie, pastor of the Prince William and Kingslear Baptist Churches, and wife are up visiting their children, four of them in Houlton Me., and one at Greenroad. Every one is glad to see them again. Why would we not be glad? They lived in the parsonage and he ably ministered to us in spiritual things for eight years.

Wilmot Carson has loaded several carloads of potatoes at Greenroad for Mr. Ferner of Toronto, the last carload went Saturday. One of the loads of potatoes expected to be delivered at Greenroad, was hauled to Woodstock by Mr. Bull one of the Canadian Customs Officials.

Argyle.

Misses Isabelle Staten and Mary Moore were the guests of Miss Lena Skinner last week. May baskets are the order of the day. We all agree that our teacher received the Crane basket. The Sunday school was reorganized last Sunday, but we were sorry there was not a larger attendance. Many interesting and instructive books have been added to the Sunday school library during the last week. Mrs. Skinner and her daughter Miss Lena spent a few days with friends in Centreville during last week. Mr. Tom McCain passed through this vicinity last week. Mr. James Hovey has returned from visiting his brother at Greenfield. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith were the guests of Fred Currie last Sunday. We are glad to be informed that Samuel Hemphill is recovering and able to be out. The young folk regret that some of the boys are so fond of retiring at 9 o'clock p. m. Rev. B. O. Hartman and Miss Katharine Skinner made a few calls in Northfield Saturday.

Jacksonville.

Mr. Johnson Clark is recovering from his illness, being able to be out on Sunday. Miss Kinney, primary teacher, left on Saturday for Melrose Mass., where she has taken a position. She will be greatly missed from our village and all wish her success in her new work. On Friday morning the pupils presented her with a ten dollar gold piece. Miss Kinney's position as teacher will be taken by Mrs. Gartley until the close of the term in June. Mr. and Mrs. D. Dickinson and granddaughter, Dorothy, of Woodstock were calling on relatives here on Friday. Mrs. Kinney, our local dressmaker for a number of years, has closed her house and gone for a few weeks stay with her daughter Mrs. Everett, after which she intends leaving our village to make her home in Melrose. The removal of the Brymer house will add greatly to the neat appearance of our village. We trust its removal will not be delayed but a thorough cleaning be given the grounds. Picnic parties are hereafter requested not to damage any private residences for any charitable purposes. All parcels left at the door.

Foreston.

Farmers are busy putting in their crops in this vicinity. Mr. John Brooks who has been seriously ill with pleurisy and pneumonia, for the past three weeks, we are glad to hear, is able to be among his friends once more. He was under the skilful attendance of Dr. G. A. Wright. Miss Myra Biggar was the guest of Miss Ruth Brooks on Sunday. Mr. Abner DeWitt, who has been ill with LaGrippe, is able to be around again. Miss Mary Adams was the guest of Mrs. J. N. Brooks last week. Mr. Seldon Brooks and his sister Miss R. E. Brooks made a flying trip to Bristol and Florenceville last Thursday, returning on Friday. The old folks are getting disturbed of their slumbers by the wee ones hanging May baskets.

The roads are in very good condition now owing to the recent rains. There was quite a large crowd gathered at Mr. James Scovil's on Friday night to start up the prayer meetings. Mr. Tom McCain of Florenceville made a flying trip to this place on Thursday.

Middle Simonds.

We have been having some very cold weather but the grass is looking fine and the wheat and oats are peeping above the ground. Mr. W. Mills was sick in bed last week. Mr. John Colwell is also very poorly. Miss Bessie Shaw of this place has been visiting friends in Hartland. Heber Hatfield made a business trip to Glassville last week. He thinks farming is not so far along out there as it is in here. Annie M. Shaw has just returned from a visit to Limestone. There will be singing school here next Wednesday night. W. C. Rideout was at Cloverdale last week. There was quite a crowd at the prayer meeting last Friday night. Charles Ebbot's folk like their new organ fine and the girls are both taking music lessons. Annie L. Rideout spent Sunday last in Peel. Bloomfield is very attractive in the spring of the year. Dean Shaw is sick with the measles. Joseph Bullick, of Brighton, spent Sunday in this place.

East Florenceville.

Harry Tompkins who has been living here since last summer has moved to Bristol. Garnet Birmingham of Hartland and Geo. Fraser of Caribou spent Sunday in town. The Baptist sewing circle held their supper in the Orange Hall last Friday evening. Rev. Mr. Perry occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church Sunday evening. Frank Lovely went to Perth Saturday to work there. The C. P. R. had the new piece that was built on the freight shed painted last week. Bedford Moore returned Monday from Lowell, Mass. H. D. Hunter is home from the Bellville Business College.

Centreville.

Rev. Mr. Spargo came to attend the funeral of Mr. James Page and called upon a number of his friends here before returning home. On Friday evening last the closing of the business places went into effect in this village and many took advantage of the evening off, some to speed their "flyers" others by pleasant drives with desirable companions, some attracted by the sound of the church bell to the little church upon the hill, where a few had gathered to do homage to Him from whose hand come the issue of all life. Perhaps no one could form a correct idea of what any one may think of themselves who go to a place of worship and disturb and annoy the worshippers by irreverent acts such as audible whispering and laughing, but if they could see themselves as others see them they would not so openly outrage the proprieties of common courtesy to say nothing of the home training. There was quite a snow storm on Saturday and the day was too cold to be comfortable in ordinary working dress. The Free Baptist church at Lakeville has been undergoing repairs for some time past and was rededicated on Sunday. The ministers assigned were Rev. Messrs. Phillips, Cahill and McLeod. A great improvement has been made in the house and those who have the matter in hand deserve much credit. Homan McMullen of the Boundary Line seems to be "under the cloud." The Scott Act man was there and twelve others and the impression is gaining ground in some quarters that thirteen is a really and truly unlucky number as they relieved the keeper of about two hundred and fifty dollars and much of his stock in trade. The way of the transgressor is hard. And now it is generally believed that the drinking water of Centreville (like Westmount) has a microbe in it. Some appear to be strangely affected while drinking it in very small quantities. Mrs. Cahill is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Tweedie. James O'Hare is building a pains shop on Mill street and will have it ready to occupy in a short time. Wilbur Williams now has charge of the electric station and has moved into the village occupying the Foster house on Mill street.

Andover.

The social given by the A. B. C. was a success over $32.00 being cleared from the sale of baskets. Music for dancing was furnished by Allen Murphy. On Wednesday the boys played a match game at the Fort with the High School team of that place and were victors with the score standing 10 6. A return game is to be played on May 24th. Mrs. Carter is on the sick list. Benj. Beveridge is ill with an attack of the quinsy. Mrs. S. P. Waite has from a pleasant visit in Woodstock and vicinity. Mrs. A. R. McKenzie of St. Stephen is visiting her parents at the Court House. Miss Myrtle Reed, who has been visiting at H. H. Tibbits has returned to her home St. Almo. Early Wednesday morning fire was discovered in Porter & Sons mills and was so well under way that both grist and saw mill and a quantity of lumber were burned, with a loss of about $10000. Invitations are out for a party in Beveridges Hall on Monday the 15th, by Mrs. F. Howard and Mrs. B. Murphy. The Tennis Club are planning to give a play in the near future. The weather is extremely cool for the time of year, slight snow flurries still occurring occasionally. Miss Margaret McGill is visiting friends in Andover. Miriam Baxter who has been ill since last November is improving slowly. Mrs. Geo. Kinney made a flying visit to her old home here last week.

Mrs. C. W. Brittain, of Bristol, is visiting her mother Mrs. Justus Gill. The pie social held at the residence of Robert Monteith Esq., last week was a most successful affair. The proceeds amounting to nearly $20.00 will be devoted to erecting a flag pole at the school house, buying a flag and general improvements. There will be a flag raising on the 23rd inst., in which the scholars and others will participate. A programme is being arranged by Miss Hemphill which cannot fail to please the pleasure loving public of this place. Mrs. Sarah Rogers has returned from Presque Isle and reopened "Hawarden Cottage" for the summer. Miss Sarah Rolston left for Chicago last week where she expects to remain for an indefinite period. Miss Alice Appleby who, for the last year has been in Hartland, Me., is visiting her parents in this place. Mrs. Silas Heughins, nee Miss Ella Ives, is now at her brother's place in very poor health. She spent several weeks in the County Hospital but unfortunately did not seem to improve as was hoped she might. It is feared that the trouble is cancer of the stomach. Miss Marion B. Dibblee who for the last two years has been making an extensive tour of Europe, is now on her way home to visit her parents and friends.
