

Where do you stand on the Flour Question?

Beware that you do not stand still.

Lots of people are making better bread than ever before, because they have given up old kinds and are now using the new kind,

ROYAL HOUSEHOLD.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

Lansdown.

Spring has arrived at last. Glad to see the warm weather.

Guy Buck, of Woodstock, is spending a few days with Barrett Campbell.

Miss Lena Babbitt, of Sunbury Co., has returned home after visiting her sister, Miss Bessie Babbitt, who has charge of the school at this place.

The Christian Endeavour gave a concert last week. Miss Grace Quenick occupied the chair. A very pleasing programme was well rendered.

The Parish Sunday School Convention will meet at the church here May 16th. It is hoped there will be a large attendance of delegates from all the schools in the Parish. Miss Hattie Parent is dress-making at Mrs. H. Greer's.

Mrs. Isaac Saunders, of St. John, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. A. Parlee. Miss Augusta Campbell spent Easter at Bath with her sister Mrs. C. W. Parlee.

Middle Simonds.

We are having some delightful weather now and the roads are in fine condition. No doubt the farmers would be pleased to get some rain, as it would start the grass and get the ground more fit to sow the grain.

The Advent people are working diligently at their meeting house, they expect to have it dedicated about the first of June.

The water is very low in the river, much lower than it has been, so early in the spring, for many years. Some of our boys went away about two weeks ago to stream drive, but as there has been no rain, it is doubtful if there is any driving yet.

Our teacher, Miss Bessie Porter, spent Easter at her home Bairdsville.

Some of our young folk are planning on a trip to Uncle Sam's Country some where about 4th of July.

Miss Tilley I. Shaw, who is teaching school up Tobique, spent Easter at her home in this place.

This has been a fine spring for making maple honey.

Rev. Leonard Steeves preached in the Baptist church Sunday; his text was found in Philippians 2 chapter, 8 verse. He attended the prayer meeting on Tuesday night.

We are glad to see Mr. Charles Ebbot around again. He has been sick for some weeks past.

Mr. Munro is able to go out of doors now, but he is still a sick man.

G. W. Hatfield has purchased a new house

Andover.

Rev. Arthur Ross held service in the Kirk on Easter day. The church was prettily decorated with plants, Easter lilies, carnations, etc. The choir rendered excellent special music.

Dr. Wiley is spending a few weeks in Portland, Maine.

The dance given by the married people on Easter Monday was a success. Music was furnished by the Ogilvy orchestra.

Ralph and Harold Waite made a flying visit to their home here on Monday, and returned the same day to Woodstock. They were accompanied by George Mitchell, who left for his home in Nova Scotia on Tuesday. Miss Ethel Armstrong spent Easter with Eva Cameron at Caribou and Miss Mildred visited friends at Fort Fairfield.

Mrs. S. P. Waite is visiting friends at Woodstock.

Harry Tibbitts spent Easter with his mother in Fredericton.

Mrs. Aubrey Clarke, who has spent several weeks at the Court house has returned home.

The "Ladies Aid" held a successful sale and entertainment on the 26th instant in Beveridge's hall. The programme consisted of a chorus by the Guild girls, reading by Beatrice Welling, Shepherdess Drill by twelve young ladies, solo, Walter Townsend and a farce by Rosa Hoyt, Muriel Kupkey, Perley Miles and Fred Hoyt.

Mr. Ronald McLeod, who will have charge of the Presbyterian circuit during the summer, arrived in town on Friday.

Quite a number of Andover people attended the play at the Colony on Friday.

Fred Olmstead, one of our popular young men who lately established his business at Grand Falls, and Ulla Langen, of South Tilley, were married at McAdam Jct. on Friday by Rev. Arthur Ross.

The "A. B. C." intend holding a social in Beveridge's hall on Friday, May 5th.

Centreville.

A Mr. London, from Woodstock, is moving into the village and will occupy rooms in the J. W. Cheney building and will engage in the agency business with Mr. Cheney.

Mrs. Howard Adams, of Bloomfield, is also moving to Centreville occupying the tenement over the carriage shop of H. J. Clarke. Henry Good has also engaged a part of the Isaac Tracy house so that with those who have already come and those who are coming, about all the available rooms have been taken.

Charles Cliff caught a sixteen inch trout on Friday last just below the Sherwood dam.

S. W. Burt and wife will celebrate their silver wedding anniversary this evening at eight o'clock. About eighty couples have been invited.

John Gilland and Elisha Perkins are each repairing their houses and a number of others will follow their example.

Herbert Agnew has decided to attend to his own farm work the coming season and is negotiating for a team for that purpose.

Some work has been done on the agricultural building this spring adding much to its appearance.

Mr. Stephenson of our superior school has applications from several school boards in the North-West and the inducements are such that he will accept.

Dr. Peppers has not yet returned and the presumption is that he will locate permanently in New York State.

Mrs. Henrietta Getchell has moved to Florenceville to live with her sister, Mrs. Turner. Mrs. Getchell has been much missed in the Sabbath school and church services. The customs office has been removed to the Fitzgerald building over Dibblee & Sons hardware store.

Bristol.

Work has been re-commenced on the new Presbyterian church.

Rev. J. Benson Young, Florenceville, preached in the Baptist church on Sunday afternoon.

The Book and Literary club will hold their regular meeting in the Hall on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Charles McCormack, Upper Woodstock, is visiting her old home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Tweedie, Wicklow, spent Sunday in Bristol.

Manzer Caldwell is building a new house next below Dr. Somerville's office.

A. F. Crandall is building an addition to his residence.

Rev. W. L. Steeves of Albert County has taken charge of the Baptist church here for the summer.

The Parlour Concert at the residence of Mrs. A. W. Phillips, Bristol, on the evening of the 24th ult., was a very enjoyable affair. One of the most pleasing features of the entertainment was an Easter Exercise by ten young ladies dressed in white and carrying white lilies. Those taking part in this exercise were:—Misses Beulah Phillips, Carry Rogers, Eva Colwell, Annie Kelly, Bessie Simpson, Agnes Simpson, Hope Crandall, Ellen Giberson, Viola Giberson and Jennie Farley. The programme in full was as follows:—

Chorus—Heavenly Music,
Solo.....

Rev. J. H. A. Anderson,
Recitation—Lucy Dolls.....

Miss Jennie Lyon,
Piano solo—The Ball.....Lendovic

Miss Ellen Giberson,
Piano duett—Waltz.....

Miss Beulah Phillips and Mrs. Brittain,
Easter Exercise—Behold the Lilies.....

Quartet—Lullaby.....Merriman
Crystal Davis, Marie Farley, Alberta Whelpley

Albert Brittain,
Duett—Violin and Piano.....

Miss Jennie Farley and Mrs. Brittain,
Song and Tabeleau.....

Misses Mona Phillips and Mattie Boyer,
Piano solo—Scherzo.....F. Damm

Miss Eva Colwell,
Piano Duett—The Robin's Return.....

Miss Maude Hartley and Mrs. Brittain,
Reading—Mother and Poet.....Browning

Mrs. (Dr.) G. A. Wright,
Piano solo—Marche Brillante.....

Mrs. C. W. Brittain,
Duett—Rest.....

Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Brittain,
Evening Hymn—Oh Jesus, Keep me in thy sight,
God Save the King.

River de Chute.

Mrs. H. Flanagan, and Mrs. R. B. McLean went to Florenceville this morning, on the "Hobo."

Miss Edith Wallace spent the Easter holidays at Centreville, with her mother, Mrs. F. G. Burt.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Baird took tea Sunday, with Mrs. Frank Baird, Bairdsville.

R. B. McLean goes to Plaster Rock to night, to make some repairs upon Fraser's Mrs. Douglas Wolverson is very ill. Drs. Brown, Ross, and Somerville, operated on her yesterday. Only very slight hopes are held out for her recovery.

Many in this community were shocked to hear of the sad and sudden death of Harry Clark of Centreville. Much sympathy is felt for the stricken family.

Mr. Wm. Banks, representing Emerson and Fisher, St. John was in River de Chute Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Watson passed through the village this morning, on their way home to Jacksonville, after having spent Sunday with their daughter Mrs. Frank Baird.

Invitations are out for a birthday reception at Clear View Hall, on Saturday evening. Proceeds go towards the funds of the Methodist Church.

East Florenceville.

Miss Jennie McNeil, of Caribou, is visiting at D. H. Semple's.

Mr. Brewer had a crew of men at work one day last week putting in some new stringers on the bridge.

The I. O. F. Court from here attended the funeral of Harry Clark, at Centreville, on Sunday forenoon.

Mrs. Geo. S. Hartly celebrated her 83rd birthday Sunday. She is as smart and light on foot as lots are at fifty.

J. R. Tompkins has a crew at work blast-

Spring Trousers

Dame Fashion says "Tweeds for Trousers" this spring.

Pronounced patterns, too—broad shaded stripes and finely marked pin stripes. Grays and gray effects are ultra proper.

Fit-Reform Trousers are poems in cloth. Snug and easy at the hips—just the right "hang" at the knees—just the right "set" at the ankles.

Beautiful English Tweeds, woven exclusively for Fit-Reform.
Some elegant West of England Worsteds to go with frock coats.

$3.50 to $7.50.

Fit-Reform

Only one Fit-Reform Wardrobe in this city—

B. B. Manzer, - Woodstock.

THE TRAVELERS

Your Home, Your Family, and Yourself,
Are the greatest interests of your life.

An adequate Endowment Policy in the Travelers will provide for you IF YOU LIVE, will protect your family IF YOU DIE, and in either case will provide for that mortgage if there is one.

For full information fill out this coupon or write.

J. NORMAN W. WINSLOW, WOODSTOCK, N. B.

Please send me information regarding an Endowment Policy for $..... if issued at years of age.

Name,.....

Address,..... ing rocks just above Smith's mill at the other end of the bridge for the new consolidated school cellar.

Waterville.

Misses Ella B. Davis and Lizzie F. Plumer who spent Easter vacation at home, returned to Fredericton on Wednesday last, where they are attending Normal School.

Henry DeWitt, who has taken a Business course at St. John Business College, spent the holidays at home. He expects to leave on Monday, May 1st, for St. John, where he will take up shorthand and typewriting

C. H. Gray has sold his matched span of four year old colts to Gallagher Bros.

Messrs Shaw and Clark have received their wall paper and have been kept busy delivering them.

Wm. Kimball last week bought fifteen beef cattle, four calves and four horses, which he again sold at a profit. How is that for Waterville.

The many friends of Mrs. T. S. Vanwart will be glad to know she is slowly recovering from her serious illness.

A number of our young folk attended the Cuddy Party at Jacksonville on Tuesday, April 25th.

QUALITY WILL TELL!

Don't be foolish; buy things made at home; you may see some of the money back again. We give an absolute guarantee of satisfaction with every package of

GRANGER Horse and Cattle FOOD.

RICHMOND CORNER, N. B.,
11th April, 1905.

MESSRS BAIRD CO., LTD:

GENTLEMEN—I am using the GRANGER HORSE AND CATTLE FOOD and the results are very satisfactory. I have used several other foods and can say the GRANGER HORSE AND CATTLE FOOD is better than any I have used heretofore.

LOREN HALL.

A concentrated and highly nutritious Food for all kinds of Stock and Poultry. The use of the Granger will repay many times its cost.

For Milch Cows—An increased flow of milk will be easily noticed.

For Poultry—Hens will lay better and be more healthy.

For Young Stock—It is indispensable for promoting growth, weight and health.

Our Book with valuable hints on Horses, Stock and Poultry and a large number of tested Household Recipes FREE FOR THE ASKING.

Granger Food for Sale in Woodstock by W. F. Dibblee & Son, F. L. Atherton, G. H. Stokoe and Dealers Everywhere.

THE BAIRD CO., L'td, Proprietors,

Woodstock, N. B.