Mrs. Wesley Chute.

Annie C., wife of Wesley Chute died at her home, Somerville, Mass., on the evening of Monday March 13th, after an illness of only a few minutes duration of heart trouble.

Mrs. Chute was a resident of Carleton County, having been born at Waterville on Feb. 13th, 1871, and was consequently 34 years and 1 month old. She was a daughter of the late Capt. George True a gentleman well known in this and the adjoining counties of York and Sunbury. She leaves beside a sorrowing husband, four children: the youngest two months and the oldest nine years old, also an aged mother, two brothers and one sister in Massachusetts, two brothers and one sister in this vicinity. The remains, by the wish of the deceased expressed some time previous to her death, were brought back to the land of her nativity for burial, arriving in Woodstock by the noon train on Thursday the 16th inst., accompanied by the husband; and were met at the depot by a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends.

The funeral service took place at 3 o'clock, p. m., at the Waterville church, conducted by the Rev. F. A. Currier assisted by the Rev's. Todd and Bonnell and were very impressive. The floral offering which accompanied the remains spoke of the esteem in which she was held in the land of her adoption. Mrs. Chute was baptised about 20 years ago by the Rev. Stephen Currie, since which time she had lived a conscientious Christian life.—Com.

Death of Rev. E. A. Warnford.

Rev. Edmund A. Warnford, who for the last forty years had been rector of Norton, died at Hampton Tuesday night March 21st. Rev. Mr. Warnford, though living in retirement for the past ten years at his Hampton home, was well known throughout the province as the rector of the parish of Norton from 1851 to 1895.

Ordained deacon by Bishop Medley Sept. 23, 1849, he was sent as curate to the late Rev. S. D. Lee Street, rector of Woodstock. On Dec. 22, 1850, he was ordained priest, remaining curate of Woodstock until July, 1851, when he was appointed rector of Norton. He is survived by his wife and three sons, Hammill Warnford, of Norton; Dr. Percy Warnford, of Hampton, and Rev. Charles E. A. Warnford, rector of Johnston, Queens county.

Mr. Warnford was always, under all circumstances, a courteous and affable gentleman, whose quite influence has left its mark upon his parish and upon the characters of those whose faithful pastor he was for nearly half a century.

An Attractive Store.

I. Edward Sheasgreen has recently improved the appearance of his popular pharmacy by removing his old fashioned counters and show cases and replacing them with four very fine silent salesmen. These are each eight feet in length and are brilliantly lighted with electricity within. They not only make the display of his goods much more effective but they make the store much brighter and lighter in the evening. One contains at present an attractive display of pipes, cigars, tobacco, cigarettes and all kinds of smokers requisites. Another holds a varied display of fine soaps, perfumes and toilet waters. In a third is an array of brushes of all kinds and the fourth is at present dressed with leather good. Mr. Sheasgreen and Woodstock are to be congratulated on the appearance of this store. It is a credit to the proprietor and to the town.

Shocking Accident.

Last Wednesday at Havelock in this county a little girl named Vina Vasey was examining a loaded rifle when her little brother inadvertently pulled the trigger and discharged it. The little girl had been looking in at the end of the barrel and the bullet went in at her mouth and plowed a furrow up along her face, cutting out one of her eyes. She was brought to the Carleton County hospital where every effort was made to save her life but she died at eleven o'clock on Sunday morning.

Consistency Thou Art a Jewel.

An information was laid against Charles Thompkins for selling wood in town without having it sealed by a sworn scaler of the town. The police magistrate fined him $3.00 and costs or ten days in jail. [Woodstock Dispatch.]

BROTHER EDITOR:—

As we read the above from your last week's issue it occurred to us that perhaps the officials of Carleton County were not aware that there were other violators of your laws beside the poor wood hauler. We were wondering if they knew that there was a Prohibitory Liquor law in Carleton County, and that men were violating it every day in the year, Sundays not excepted. We were thinking if at the time that they were arresting and trying Charles Thompkins they knew there were three open grog shops, pure and simple, (rum being their stock in trade) within eight miles of where they apprehended Thompkins selling a load of wood illegally. We do not know what party is in power in your county and we don't care, but we do know that there is a terrible inconsistency in the enforcement of your laws. Fine a wood hauler three dollars and cost because he failed to have his wood sealed by a sworn surveyor of the town and allow Thompson, McLain, Bradley and Wise to sell liquor a whole year for from fifty to one hundred dollars. Now we will be charitable and allow that they don't know that situated on the highway leading from Houlton to Woodstock in the parish of Richmond, within eight miles of your city, there are two notorious, vile and abominable open saloons. One owned and operated by the Thompson's of your own town the other by John McLain, who used to sell rum in this village. There is another down the line to the south less than a half mile. This one is run on the perpetual motion plan, never stops and is operated by Jake Wise or James Bradley, or both. We have made the description of these places quite minute so that your officials will have no difficulty in locating the property.

You may begin to inquire by this time why we are so interested in the enforcement of the Prohibitory Liquor law of Carleton County. In reply we answer, first, we are neighbors and ought to be interested in each other enough to be willing to do as we would be done by. If our territory reached within two miles of your city and we allowed outlaws from your town and men from our own county to set up an illegal business on our territory that would cost your county four thousand dollars a year and never lifted a hand to relieve you of the burden, what would you say? We have about fifty men in our jail at the present time. We averaged forty a week for the year 1904 and the most of these men were recruited from the saloons above referred to situated on provincial soil. What do you say neighbor? Will you help us rid the earth of these dens of iniquity?—Houlton Times.

For the enlightenment of the Editor of the Times we may say, it is true there are stores situated on the boundary line on the road from Woodstock to Houlton, and the actual act of selling liquor is performed on the Canadian side of the line, but when our officers go to these stores to arrest the offenders they quickly jump to the United States side and so avoid arrest and punishment. The amount of liquors kept in such stores on our side of the line is very small. The reserve stock, in some cases are large and valuable stock of liquors, is stored in that part of the building which is in the United States, and so can't be seized by our officers. So it will be seen that the offenders live in the United States and they keep their large surplus stock there, in a prohibition county.

We believe the officers of Carleton and Aroostook Counties have endeavored to dry up this business and they have worked together to that end but it appears that the Maine Prohibition law is as defective as our Canada Temperance Act. For example, the Maine officers say they can't confiscate liquor stored in their state because the owners declare that it is not kept for sale in that state but for sale in Canada, about four feet away.

One solution of the problem would be for the governments of both Canada and the United States to pass legislation making it an offense to build or maintain buildings of any kind on or within a certain distance of the line dividing the two countries.

The Times must not upbraid our officers for neglecting their duty, for within the county our laws are well enforced. In the case to which our contemporary calls our attention 90% of the illicit goods are kept in storage in the town of Houlton, 75% of the offenders are citizens of the United States and 100% of them are residents of the town of Houlton and dare not come to Woodstock for fear of being arrested.

Recruiting for the Royal Garrison Artillery.

Sergt. Smith of the Garrison Artillery at Quebec arrived in Woodstock on Saturday to recruit and receive applications for the Garrison Artillery and forward recruits when accepted. He is stopping at the Victoria Hotel where he will receive applicants.

The pay of the men commences at $15.00 per month, with board and lodgings, and increases to $23.25 per month while a gunner the only stoppage being 2c. per diem for washing. If he is fairly well educated, well conducted, and attentive to his duties, he may soon become a Non-Commission Officer when his pay will run from $18.00 to $75.00 per month, according to rank.

There are also a number of employed jobs, such as artificers, clerk, cooks, fatiguemen, servants, grooms, waiters, etc., which bring from $3.00 to $10.00 a month extra, with various privileges. If he is a musician, he may join the band which also brings extra pay and privileges. For this a man must keep himself, his kit, etc., clean and tidy, be sober, punctual, and obey orders. He has three hours drill or fatigue in the forenoon and two hours in the afternoon, except Saturday, half holiday, and Sunday morning church parade. From 4.00 p. m. until 6.30 a. m. he has to himself, unless on guard or other duty, which occurs about once in 10 days.

He has the free use of the library, reading room, billiard room, gymnasium and canteen. In the library and reading room, he will find all the leading illustrated papers, magazines, books, etc., while in the canteens are kept any extras he may want such as drinks, tobacco, eatables, cleaning materials, etc., all of which he can get at the lowest rates. Non-Commissioned Officers above the rank of corporals have their own mess room, billiard room, etc. About two months each year is spent in camp for gun practice etc., during which men receive extra pay. Any well conducted man can get a month leave during the year, to spend at home. After 20 years service a man may leave with a pension of from 33c. to $1.25 per diem for life. If he leaves at the end of three years he gets $32.00 and at six years $76.00 cash as deferred good conduct pay. In any case he will have the satisfaction of knowing he has served his country in an honourable and manly profession.

Death of William Hannah.
