News of Hartland and Vicinity

FRED. H. STEVENS, Reporter, and Manager Hartland Branch Office.

NOTICE:—The Dispatch has opened a branch office at Hartland, with Fred H. Stevens. former Editor of the Advertiser, in charge. He will conduct this department in such manner as to satisfy all the people demand in a local paper. At the Hartland branch subscriptions, orders for advertising and for printing will have the same attention as at the office of publication. same attention as at the office of publication.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., OCTOBER 25, 1905

Produce Prices.

This week prices are being paid for produce as follows:-

Hay, $6.00. Oats, 32c. to 33c.

Buck est, 40c. Buck est Meal, $2.00.

Beans, $2,50.

Butter, :20c.

Eggs, .20c. Chickens, .10c.

LOCALS.

E. C. Morgan is receiving congratulations over the advent of a son.

That dangerous hole in the culvert on the bridge road, west side, still exists.

H. N. Boyer has returned to the village from his summer residence on the island.

Rev. J. A. Ross and Rev. H. H. Marr (Methodist) exchanged pulpits on Sunday The bankrupt stock of C. W. Hurst was sold by Sheriff Hayward at public auction on Break away from that bad habit of borrowing THE DISPATCH and subscribe-it is $1.00 a year in advance. The Hartland friends of Charles Appleby are pleased to know of his appointment as Judge of Probate. Methodist services next Sunday as follows:

At Argyle at 10 30, at East Glassville at 3 p. m., at Knowlesville at 7 p. m. The Baptist services next Sunday will be as follows:-At Rockland, 11 a. m., Lower Wakefield at 3 p. m., and Hartland at 7.30. A number of the friends of Miss Sadie

Currie met at her home on Tuesday evening and had a very pleasant time of it for a few

Mrs. Burtt Clark of Mount Pleasant died on Saturday evening of tuberculosis. She had been ill about a year and was upwards of 50 years of age.

The Misses Thornton are desirous that all outstanding accounts be paid at once and those who owe them will please govern themselves accordingly.

On Thursday Augustus Milmore and Frank Glidden, of Woodstock, were the guests of James Montgomery. Mr. Milmore makes his home in Texas where he has met with very good fortune, he having interests in mining properties there.

The Victoria County News is authority for the statement that Harry N. Dickinson has taken over the fruit business of his late brother, Frank, at Perth and will add a line of light groceries. It further states he has rented apartments in the same building and will move his family there this week.

THE DISPATCH reporter has heard of more than one man who is keeping account of the number of bridge tickets purchased the past year and intends asking the government heelers to reimburse him for them before

On Thursday George R. Burtt, T. J. Carter and C. J. Tabor returned from their nunting trip. Mr. Carter succeeded in getting a moose. A. Plummer and David Shaw were also out a few days.

Each day the inconvenience occasioned by the abominable train service is felt by some person or another. While the wishes of those living on the Edmundston branch have been house is expected. acceeded to the people along this section of the line have to put up with one train a day. It is past understanding why the "hobo" was taken off.

W. F. Thornton has now one of the best equipped livery stables along the river. The recent new addition of 37x40 gives ample room for the housing of the waggons besides providing accommodation for twelve horses. He expects soon to put in a two-seated rubber-tire carriage and next season intends getting a buckboard suitable for picnics, parties, etc.

James Nebemiah Sipprell is visiting his brothers Abner and William and other relatives at Somerville. Mr. Sipprell was in his more youthful days-he is still a young man-a school teacher, but 23 years ago this month he left for the west. He went first to Minnesota and a few years later to Washington State. When the Klondyke boom broke out he was among the first to make the pilgrimage to that northern clime. He sojourned for a long time at Sulphur Creek far above Dawson and has been and is in the employ of the British North American Trans-portation Company. He is among the com-parative few who have gone from here and done very well in the west, among his other acquisitions being a wife and family- His present home is at Everett, Washington.

PERSONALS.

Sheriff Hayward was in town on Saturday. S. G. Barter, Avondale, was in Hartland on

W. R. Gillen arrived home from Montreal on Thursday. Bernard Travers, St. Thomas, was in Hartland

Miss Mable Shaw spent a portion of last week in Woodstock.

Lee G. Thistle returned on Monday from a trip to Arcola, Sask.

F. S. Farris, of St. John, the insurance man, was here recently. George S. McLauchlan was on a business trip up river last week. George Johnson, of Green Road Station, was in Hartland on Friday. Misses Mabel Curtis and Helen Alexander spent Sunday in Woodstock.

W. L. Stewart, representing D. Magee's Sons, St. John, was here on Monday.

Mrs. W. W. Ross went to Fredericton on Saturday to remain several days.

Bradford Day, of New Hampshire, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. George A. Davis. W. H. Banks, representing Emerson & Fisher,

St. John, was at the Commercial on Friday. Joseph McGee and wife, of Somerville, recently visited their son, Frank, at Beaconsfield, Victoria

Miss Lou Smith and Miss Marion Dibblee, of Woodstock, have been the guests of Mrs. Percy

Mrs. T. L. Stetson, of Victoria Corner, who has been seriously ill since last autumn is slowly recovering.

John R. Stevenson, of Coldstream, and John Irving, of East Coldstream, were recent visitors in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Boyer and Miss Annie Davis who have been on a driving trip to St. John returned home on Thursday. On Saturday Henry M. Stevens returned to his home at Somerville after having spent the past four months in the vicinity of Presque Isle. Robert Flemming, A. Dunbar and Misses Bessie again casting his vote for the party in power.

This is not a bad idea from one point of view.

Tinker. NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

mmmmmi

Fort Fairfield.

Our school re-opened a few days ago, with Miss Palmer of Jacksonville, N. B., in charge. Steavon and Delbert Ames returned home from Boston last Monday, where they had been visiting relatives and friends.

The sporting camp owned by Myrton L. Ames was destroyed by fire last Wednesday

Evangelists Trafton are holding special meetings in Elm hall this week. Rev. Mr. Goddard occupied the pulpit in the quaker church last Sunday morning.

We are glad to learn that the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Crane has recovered from his recent illness. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas is much better. There is some talk of G. B. Estes a purchasing a gasolene engine, which will do his sawing and thrashing.

Maple View, Victoria County.

A few of the young people of this place and of Plaster Rock gave a delightful surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. his remark at the laying of the Corner Stone Miles Flanders last Saturday evening. After of the Baptist Church at Centreville last a pleasant evening spent playing games, etc., a sumptuous repast was served by the ladies in attendance. At the close Mr. A. Brown presented a lovely rattan rocker and pleasing address on behalf of those present to which Mr. Flanders ably responded. The party dispersed after singing a few popular songs.

Bristol.

Miss Ethel Dickinson, Canterbury, is visiting her cousin Miss Ella Tompkins.

Miss Sadie Tinker, of Lowell, Mass., is ported to be improving this morning. spending a few days with her brother Chas. 1 Miss Price of Maine who is lecturing in Connell St. Woodstock.

Mrs. A. W. Phillips attended the Provincial Sunday School Convention at Moncton

Rev. Jos, Cahill preached in the Baptist church on Sunday evening, and Rev. J. H. Anderson in the Hall.

A young man named Sayles of Beaufort was taken to the Woodstock Hospital last week to be operated upon for appendicitis.

He was accompanied by Dr. G. A. Wright. There will be a special meeting of Court Sterling I. O. F., on Saturday evening next. Rev. D. E. Brooks is improving the appearance of his residence. The Supper and Fancy Sale held by the ladies of the East Florenceville Baptist Sewing circle was well attended, and $53.00 was

The many friends of Rev. A. H. Hayward regret to hear of his death which occurred quite sundenly on Sunday afternoon.

Centreville.

Rev. Amos Hayward passed away peacefully at his home in Florenceville yesterday afternoon. It is said that he attended the service of Rev. Jos. Cahill in the afternoon and took a part in the service a short time before his death. In his ministry he made many warm friends who will regret to hear of his death. Many no doubt will remember spring "That life did not consist merely in length of days, but in what he could accomplish for God." And "that a man should not covet it only for the accumulation of wealth or honorable position or scientific knowledge but for the good he might do. Mr. Hayward has been in failing health for some time and his death was not altogether unexpected.

Mrs. Clark will be burried in the Metho-Charles Estabrooks spent Sunday at Fort dist Churchyard today. She was the adopted daughter of John Kennot.

The wife of Rev. Mr. Turner was taken suddenly ill yesterday morning but is rethe interests of the W. C. T. U. spoke at Tracey Mills Church on Friday evening last and occupied the pulpu there yesterday and will speak in the Methodist Church in Centreville this evening.

Mr. David Irvine who has been quite ill is much better and has been able to drive to Ward Webb returned to Centreville with his bride on Saturday and in the evening was serenaded by a number of those familiar with the tin horn.

Willard Gray was in the village on Saturday and his many friends were pleased to see him after his long absence.

Rev. Joseph Cahill will deliver a Temperance lecture in Sherwood's Opera House on the evening of the 30th inst at which a full

Waterville.

Mr. Ferguson McCain, Florenceville, visited friends here last week.

Mr. C. H. Gray attended the meeting of he share holders of the Union Telephone Company on Friday last. Miss Nellie Mallony, Jacksontown, spent Saturday and Sunday with her friend Miss

Miss Annie B. Miller returned on Thursday from a very pleasant visit with her sister at Marysville.

Dr. Huggard visited friends here last week. We are sorry to learn that Miss Nellie York is unable to be out.

Miss Eva DeGrass who spent the summer at Winthrop Beach, Mass., arrived home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Cardine have returned from Caribou. The Misses Bessie and Georgie Gray and brother Robert of Goods Corner were the guests of Mr. C. H. Gray on Sunday.

The ploughing frolic at W. J. Davis's on Friday last was largely attended.
Allan McLean and Allan DeLong succeeded in capturing a moose last Saturday.

Mr. Gillmam of Pokiok was a recent visitor to this place. Frank Graham and John Merseau, of Ashland, passed through here on their way to Mrs. C. C. Shaw and son paid a visit to Bridgewater and Royalton last week.

Central Southampton.

Mr. Alfred Schriver is visiting friends in this vicinity. Mr. Schriver leaves in a few days for Portland, Maine, to resume his studies in anedicine.

Mr. Leigh Brown who has been suffering with rheumatic fever is recovering. Mr. and Mrs. William Clark with Miss Mildred Clark have gone to Boston. Mr. Melvin Way has moved his family to Michigan, U. S.

Miss Mabel Schriver was visiting friends at Temple last week.

Mr. Billings intends moving his family to Hartland this week.

Rev. Joseph Noble will hold service in the United Baptist church Sunday morning. Mr. Arlington Wright is making extensive improvements on the blacksmith shop.

Mr. A. J. Way, of Woodstock, is in the place a guest of Mr. Jos. Oldham, of South-Miss Maggie Akerley who has been in ### Woodstock has returned home. Kirkland.

Mrs Peter D. Morrison is visiting relatives in Monticello Me.

Mr. John Bunting has purchased a new organ from the agent G. W. Jackson. Mr. Bunting presented his daughter who was married recently with an organ.

James Lord jr. will return to his home in Mrrysville this week.

John McIntyre and daughter made a flying trip to this place recently.

A number of the farmers are hauling potatoes to market. Andrew Bustard has the carpenter engaged moving a building he is joining it to his dwelling house where it used to stand a few years ago it will be used to store his groceries and other things. Joseph Golding and family have moved to this place they live on the farm of David Gidney.

Mrs. Dr. Dickinson from Houlton and Mrs. Tillie Murchie of this place were visiting friends in Maxwell Sett. Mrs. Campbell has returned home to Houlton. Samuel Graham purchased a fine holstein calf from Allan McDougal this week.

Our Blacksmiths are kept very busy horseshoeing and repairing. Messrs Thomas and Howard Kennedy have gone west we think to New Hampshire.

Dressed Pork Wanted.

On next Monday, Oct. 30th, I will ship a carload Dressed Pork at Hartland and Florenceville stations. Will pay 71 cts for both hogs and pigs.

J. McGEE, Somerville.

Have Some Plumbing

You want done before winter. Why not get it done now? I can do it for you promptly, thoroughly and neatly, and at a reasonable price. Don't delay this work till the cold weather is here. Orders from out of town promptly attended to.

> J. P. PICKEL. Plumber,

B. B. Manzer, - Woodstock.

has been busy, and we have now ready a line of our own preparations, the best there is. Let us tell you about them. They are scientifically prepared for special troubles.

NOT CURE ALLS!

The formulæ have been selected from treatment of thousands of cases by Hospital Specialists. Such is not the case with the general line of Patent Medicines. However, we carry a full line of

Patent Medicines

because some people will have them.

Ask about O. O. Preparations.

Remember to call at Hartland

Drug Co.

If it is a

Stove

You want Then interview

Montgomery, At

HARTLAND.

DIPLOMA

May be harder to get at the

Fredericton Business College

Than at some business colleges, but it is EASIER to GET and HOLD a good position after you get it. Send for free catalogue of this large, wellequipped, well-conducted. up-to-date school.

Address

W. J. OSBORNE,

Fredericton, N. B.

Pay the Highest Market Prices

(cash) for

of all kinds, particularly Hay, Oats and Potatoes at their warehouse at

HARTLAND, N.B.

Don't sell your stuff until you have seen them.

Millinery Opening Saturday, October 7.

The Misses Thornton will have their opening on the above date and will continue thereafter. They will be glad to have all their old customers as well and following days,

as new ones call and see them. Ready-to-wear Hats for Women and Misses in the very Newest Patterns. Velvet hats made to order or ready made.

Ribbons, Velvets, Wings, Feathers, Pompoms, Quills, Buckles and all Fancy Goods.

Misses Thornton, Hartland, N. B.

Oct 4- 3i

REMEMBER!

ALLEN Is Hartland's First-Class