EDWARD L. CLARK has been appointed a Justice of the Peace for the County of Carleton.

DR. FRANK BULLER of Montreal one of the most favourably known eye specialists on the continent died last Thursday afternoon of anaemia.

MR. AND MRS. E. M. KNEELAND of Presque Isle were in town last week attending the funeral of Mrs. Kneeland's brother, George McKinley.

MR. E. J. CLARK is in Boston on business. While there he will attend the graduation exercises at South Framingham, where his daughter and Miss Kate Saunders will receive diplomas.

MR. AND MRS. ALONZO STEPHENSON of Presque Isle were in Woodstock last week visiting friends. They went to Florenceville on Wednesday where they are visiting Mr. Stephenson's mother.

Dan McGinty a character in the Gay Matinee Girl is played by that famous laugh-provoker John E. Flynn who is one of America's natural comedians. Opera House one night only Friday Oct. 20th.

MASTER ROBBIE DUNBAR and Richie Murphy entertained sixty of their young friends on Tuesday evening Oct. 10th. Games music, etc., furnished much enjoyment to the little folk who dispersed at 10 o'clock.

THE Primitive Baptist Church of Middle Simonds will be rededicated October 29th, there will be three services. Rev. Messrs. Giberson, Orser and Brook will officiate. The church has been remodelled and repainted at a cost of over $250.00.

HARVEST SUPPER the Ladies of the East Florenceville Baptist Sewing Circle will hold a Harvest Supper and Fancy Sale in the Orange Hall, on Saturday evening. Supper will be served at 6 o'clock. Tickets 25 and 15 cents. Everyone come and have a good time.

SENATOR GEORGE T. FULFORD of Brookville Ont. died at the Newton Hospital on Sunday afternoon as the result of injuries received in an automobile accident last week. Senator Fulford left an estate of $7,000,000, which he made by manufacture and sale of Pink Pills.

MRS. STEPHEN TEED died at her residence Charles Street, on Wednesday night, aged 66 years. A husband survives. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon. Services were held at the house and at St. Luke's church. The burial took place in the Methodist cemetery.

THERE is plenty of news in Woodstock, but there is so much of it that it is not fit to print in this journal of the fireside that it is not easy to fill it up every week. The sporting editor says he intends to write up the lines of the Smart Set of Woodstock but the religious editor says he wont let him do it.

MR. VICTOR J. BEDELL, B. A. I., of Lower Woodstock, left last week for the west, where he is to be employed on the building of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway line to the Pacific Coast. He graduated from the U. N. B. in June last and has since been employed on the B. & A. railway at Houlton, Me.

THE detachment of men from the 10th Field Battery, who had been at Petewawa, taking part in competitive gun practice under command of Major W. C. Good, arrived home on Thursday evening last. The Carleton County boys made a good showing, and perhaps may come out ahead when the final result is made known.

A young fellow, evidently a stranger in town stepped on the steps of the Carlisle Hotel on Sunday and after gazing for a while at the people driving past he asked "where do the Woodstock people go on Sunday?" A gentleman who knows something more or less about the town answered "well, some of them go to the devil, and some of them don't go any place."

GEORGE W. FOWLER, M. P., president of Chimalapa company, passed through St. John Friday evening on his way to visit the lands of the company in Mexico. Mr. Fowler will be joined by F. H. Hale, ex-M. P. for Carleton County, at Toronto. Mr. Hale is negotiating for a complete plant for a saw mill to be erected on the property, which is to be under the management of Mr. Hale. Mr. Fowler intends to thoroughly examine all parts of the 130 thousand acres owned by the company, and will probably be absent from Canada until December.

A Fredericton despatch to the St. John Globe says that Rev. A. A. Rideout is not likely to remain pastor of the Free Baptist church, in that city for very long. During the recent conference at St. John Mr. Rideout preached at Leinster street Baptist church and impressed his hearers so much that the congregation about decided that Mr. Rideout was the man whom they wanted for their next pastor. Rev. Mr. Rideout was seen by a reporter and asked in reference to the matter, and all he could say was that he had no plans for the future. It is stated today that the salary which Mr. Rideout will be offered is $1,200 per annum. This is somewhat more than he is receiving here.

IT IS TAILOR MADE.

You can tell it by the hang of it.

Clothes made in a factory do not reach the perfection and style that tailor-made clothes do, as any man who has tried both knows.
