JUDGE CARLETON went to St. Andrews on Monday to attend County Court.

AN invitation has been sent to the St. John Golf Club to play here on the first of July.

THE Rev. Mr. Alder has rented the Norman Smith house on the Houlton Road and has moved in with his family.

MR. ARTHUR BAILEY has had a neat verandah built on the southern side of his residence at the corner of Victoria and Green streets.

MR. W. E. MALLORY, of St. Andrews, was in town last week. While here he purchased a handsome team of bays for use in his back-board.

MRS. DANIEL THOMPSON, who has not been enjoying the best of health lately was prostrated by a paralytic shock on Sunday morning last.

DON'T misunderstand life insurance. It is no mystery, but a plain business proposition, and the Manufacturers Life offers the best propositions.

MR. J. J. HALE has received the contract to remove the ruins at the Meduxnakeag dam. Mr. Hale started in on Monday with a crew of men.

THERE will be a basket picnic at Bedell Sett, Thursday June 22nd, 1905. If it rains that day, the picnic will be the next fine day. Everybody is cordially invited.

MR. W. L. TRACY, who has just taken the degree of M. A. at the U. N. B. Fredericton, and who has been studying recently at McGill, is spending his vacation with his mother and brothers.—Hartland Advertiser.

A LADIES' committee, composed of Mrs. A. B. Connell, Misses A. G. Connell and Kathleen Bourne, served tea on the golf links on Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. There were a large number of ladies and gentlemen present, and a pleasant afternoon was spent.

A MAN giving his name as John Kelly was brought down from the Parish of Wakefield by Constables Woolverton and Kimball on Sunday. He was taken before Police Magistrate Dibblee on Monday on a charge of vagrancy. He was given his liberty on promising to leave town.

THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE will send a car load of stock, including heavy horses, road horses, beef and dairy cattle, to meetings at Andover and Woodstock on the fourteenth and sixteenth instant. Everyone invited to attend and judge and criticize the stock. Messrs. Anderson and Stephen will conduct discussions.

EARLY ON Sunday morning a slight blaze took place in the residence of Mr. Patrick Bradley, over the store of G. W. Slipp. The fire was soon extinguished, but not before Mr. Slipp's stock was badly damaged by water. Mr. Bradley's furniture, carpets, etc., was damaged by smoke. The loss to both parties is covered by insurance.

MR. GEORGE CLARKE, of the firm of Tennant, Davies & Clark, was seized with appendicitis Thursday evening and taken to Victoria Hospital, where he was operated upon by Dr. W. C. Crockett assisted by Drs. Bridges and G. J. McNally. The operation was a successful one.—Gleaner. [Miss May Clark, of the W. U. Telegraph Co., is a sister of Mr. Clark.]

SOME time during last week a number of pigs were stolen out of Mr. H. W. Scovil's slaughter house. A pickaxe and some other articles were also taken. A warrant for the arrest of the suspected parties was issued and Constable Woolverton got on their trail and soon rounded them up. The property was returned, and Mr. Scovil declining to prosecute, the culprits were discharged.

ON the fourth of July a grand picnic will be held on the grounds of the Catholic Church at Debec. All the various sports will be held, including bowling, dancing, etc. There will be the ever popular merry-go-round and also a real African Dodger. No doubt there will be an immense gathering, as many persons from the neighbouring republic will patronize this picnic. It should be one of most enjoyable outings of the entire season. Dinner and Supper will be served on the grounds. Dinner 35c, Supper 25c.

MR. W. S. SAUNDERS, popularly known as "the insurance man," recently received notification of his promotion by the London Life Company and left yesterday on the C. P. R. to take up his new position. Mr. Saunders came here 2 years ago as provincial representative of the London Life and has been more than ordinarily successful in the business. The London Life Company has decided to push its business in the west and Mr. Saunders has been appointed organizer and inspector. He will spend a few days at the head office at London, Ont., and will then leave for the West, remaining some time in Calgary. His family will remain here for the present. While citizens will be pleased at Mr. Saunders' promotion they will regret that it means losing so popular and worthy a citizen.—Gleaner June 6th.

THE BIG circus will be here on the 24th. The usual gang of fakirs will be hanging around to separate the foolish from their hard-earned dollars. These people should not be granted licenses and the officers of the law should take good care to see that they do not operate without licenses.

REV. G. A. ROSS and family left yesterday morning for Charlottetown, P. E. I. Mr. Ross will attend the Methodist Conference which is now in session in that city. Charlottetown being his native city Mr. Ross will spend in that vicinity the month's vacation granted him by the official board of his church here.

TRACY the Outlaw held down the boards in Graham's Opera House on Saturday evening. The crowd was not large. The show was bum. Many who were present say that the leading man acted as though he were drunk. It is a pity that such an aggregation is permitted to take the people's money; but anyone who willingly attends a show called "Tracy the Outlaw" deserves to be taken in.

SOME necessary improvements are being made to the basement of St. Paul's Presbyterian church. The foundation is being strengthened, and the entrance which has been from the rear of the building will be closed, and a front entrance put in. A new pipe organ will be installed at an early date. It will be purchased from Messrs. Cassavant of Quebec, a representative of which firm was here taking the necessary measurements last week.

MR. HUGH HAY met with an unfortunate accident on Monday evening last in his residence on Main Street. He was going down a stairway with a lamp in his hand when he slipped and fell striking a brick projection and landing on the floor on his head. Miss Smith who lives in the same building heard the fall, and as she knew Mr. Hay was alone in the house, went in to find out the cause. When she saw that he had met with an accident a doctor was summoned. An examination showed that several ribs had been broken, and had it not been for the hard hat which Mr. Hay wore, he would have been severely injured about the head. He will probably be confined to his home for some time.

Prescription Value

The value of a prescription depends wholly on the curative power of its ingredients. The action of good drugs may be impaired by improper compounding, while poor drugs will of course defeat the intention of the physician.

Here prescriptions are compounded from drugs of known purity and potency and by graduate pharmacists of ample experience.

Proper results are assured, your interests are conserved in every way, while the cost is always reasonable and alike to all.
