WORK on the armory is going forward, on all parts of the building, with satisfactory speed. It is now all enclosed except the Chapel Street end, part of which is to be three stories high. The last story on this part will soon be completed and the roof put on. The whole building is temporarily wired and lighted.

It was expected that the Florenceville, Carleton county, Consolidated School, the third in New Brunswick, would be opened in January, 1906, but the latest reports which the Chief Superintendent of Education has are to the effect that the opening will be postponed until the commencement of the next school year, in August next.

A PARTY of prominent C. P. R. officials were in town on Friday last for a short time. The members of the party were:—Mr. D. McNeill, General Manager, Mr. J. W. Leonard, the Assistant General Manager, Mr. William Downie, Divisional Superintendent, Mr. Barbour, Engineer of Way Department, and Mr. Brennan, private secretary to Mr. Downie. The gentlemen were shown around town by Supt. D. W. Newcombe.

S. B. CHARLTON has been painting and shellacking the interior of the east apartments in the second story of the B. S. Smith building, corner Bridge street and Riverside ave. east. These apartments have been rented to Rev. Percy J. Trafton of Woodstock, who will be the pastor of the new Holiness church in this place. Mr. Trafton and family will move into these apartments as soon as they are ready to receive them, which will probably be in about two weeks.—Fort Fairfield Review.

MAYOR JONES received a telegram last week announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. Edward Jones at Auburn, Me. The deceased, who had reached the age of 86 left here a few years ago to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. S. A. Briton, in Auburn. Besides Mrs. Briton and Mayor A. E. Jones, a son George, resides in Los Angeles, California, and a daughter, Mrs. Frost in Portland, Oregon. The husband has been dead about ten years. Mr. Jones attended the funeral which took place on Sunday.

THE FUNERAL of the late Mrs. Frank Mowatt took place on Thursday afternoon last. The body arrived from Houlton by the noon train, and was at once conveyed to All Saints' church. Among those who accompanied the remains here were the deceased's husband, her two children, Harry Killikelly, of Pittsburg, and Mrs. Payson, of Woodstock; her brother, Rev. Henry Montgomery, of Kingsclear, and wife, and Mrs. J. S. Leighton, of Woodstock. The funeral services were held in the church at 2 o'clock and were largely attended. Rev. R. J. Langford officiated at the church and grave. The death was very sudden and was due to paralysis.—St. Andrews Beacon.

SULLIVAN BROS. bowling alley's were opened to the public on Wednesday evening last, and a great many took advantage of the occasion to play the game. F. B. Carvell, M. P. started the fun by rolling the first ball. The room is large and well lighted, and the material for the alley's, which was purchased in Dayton, Ohio, is the best that can be procured. Mr. James Sullivan, who is an expert at the game, is in charge of the alleys. That bowling will be a popular sport is indicated by the large number of patron who have already started in to play game. It is good exercise and not expensive and with proper restrictions we cannot see any reason why the town council will not give this firm a license.
